

XXIII.—And be it further enacted, that in any case where such Commissioner, Surveyor, Contractor, or other person as aforesaid, shall neglect to tender any amends, or shall have tendered insufficient amends before Action brought, it shall be lawful for him, by leave of the Court wherein such Action shall be brought, at any time before the trial thereof, to pay into Court such money as he shall see fit, whereupon such proceedings, orders, and judgments shall be had, made, and given in and by such Court, as in other Actions where the Defendant is allowed to pay money into Court. Or pay money into Court.

XXIV.—And be it further enacted, that this Act shall continue and be in force for the period of five years, and thence until the end of the then next Session of the General Assembly.