VICTOR HERBERT, one of America's most popular composers and conductors; and
G. W. CHADWICK, one of the greatest native American composers, and director of the New England Conservatory of Music.

The Heart Songs of 100,000,000 People

Many of the songs cannot be found in any other collection. They came in yellow, time-worn, tear stained sheets—that had been sorely treasured from childhood—others were written out from memory—some were given by titles only—or remembered verses, involving a long search to obtain the whole.

Of the thousands received it is safe to say that the several hundred finally selected—as having the largest number of votes, and the highest endorsement—represent today the taste of the American people in its choice of music.

We believe that the distribution of this unrivalled song collection will bring more happiness into the homes of our readers, will do more to make them attractive to young and old; do more to inculcate a love for music into softening, elevate, and refine the home life; to cultivate the nobler and higher virtues of the fireside—than any other means we could adopt.

OVER 500 PAGES.

Big Book, 518 Pages—Cardinal Seal Grain, Flexible Binding, Red Edges, Round Corners

MORE THAN 400 SONGS OVER 500 PAGES ARRANGED IN LOWER KEY
EVERY SONG chosen for some personal association; some tender memory; some life-lasting effect; for the haunting beauty of its words; for the lilting melody of its melody. The familiar songs of the long-ago, that are treasured in the heart forever.
FOUR YEARS of song gathering to obtain the correct words and music of this unrivalled collection—many of them folk songs only here published for the first time. Others never before found in a home volume. The real heart songs of 90,000,000 people.
THE only songbook written and arranged in low key so that every member of the family can join in the singing. Many pieces harmonized and adapted for the first time to mixed voices. A veritable treasury of words wedded to music that is not for a day but for all time. For the family—for parties—for social gatherings.

The "Ontario" Special Offer to You

We consider it a great privilege to be able to place before our readers this marvelous offer. With more than 100,000 copies already sold at $3.00 each—it was no easy matter to persuade the publishers to consent to a great daily newspaper practically giving away thousands of copies. Yet we have done this, and they now agree with us that it will enormously increase the demand for their work.

SUCCESSFUL YEAR PASSED

Y.M.C.A. Ladies' Auxiliary Reached Record Membership.

The past year the Ladies' organization reached a membership of 288. Throughout the year the attendance and interest has been splendid. It reflects credit on the efficiency and fidelity of the president, Mrs. L. V. Sinclair. Her associates share with her the ambition of raising the membership to 400.
During the past year the ladies raised $481.51. They always require a Furnishing Fund in addition to this they assist the maintenance of the Association in its work.
A very audible work last year was the providing of teas to groups of young men arriving as strangers in the city, in this, the ladies of the various churches assisted in turn. Over 125 young strangers were so entertained last season.
At the annual meeting the convensors of the Social department came in for a good deal of praise for all they had accomplished.
When we think of the diversity of banquets, lectures, organizations and clubs which meet and have their headquarters in the Association Building, we wonder how Belleville managed to exist for so many years without the building.

Much credit was paid the Governor of the Membership Committee for the splendid results they had attained during the year.
The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:
Hon. Pres.—Mrs. J. L. Hess
President—Mrs. D. V. Sinclair

FOSSAL BALM Goes Right to the Spot

If you have a cold in the head—if your nasal passages are inflamed, stuffed up, smarting—or if you suffer from chronic nasal catarrh—you can get quick relief by using Fossal Balm.
This is an antiseptic, healing salve put up in a collapsible tube so formed as to make it remarkably easy to use. When the elongated cap is removed it uncovers the nozzle-shaped end of the tube, about half an inch long. This is inserted in the nose and the tube squeezed gently, depositing a little of the balm well up in the nasal passages. A little rubbing of the nose, and the indrawn breath, distribute the Fossal Balm throughout the passages, where it comes directly into contact with the inflamed membranes and the germs of disease. The latter it kills—the former it soothes and heals. The smarting irritation disappears—the nostrils are cleared, making breathing easy—and the catarrhal conditions, if they exist, are corrected.
Get a 50c tube of Fossal Balm from your Druggist, or write for it direct to us, National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Montreal.

NEARLY IN CONVULSIONS

With Acute Indigestion.

"Fruit-a-lives" Cured Me.

NEWBURY, ONT., May 29th, 1913
I am not a strenuous user of medicines or patent medicines, but I have taken nearly everything recommended for Indigestion and Constipation.
I have been so bad with Acute Indigestion that I was nearly in convulsions and had to be held. I have used "Fruit-a-lives" and I have not had another attack since I started taking it with Indigestion since taking them.
"Fruit-a-lives" is the only remedy I ever used that did me any good, and I am grateful to "Fruit-a-lives" for making me as well as I am today, and everyone agrees that I look in first-class health.
My husband likes "Fruit-a-lives" very much and takes them whenever he has occasion to use a remedy for Constipation.

KINGSTON NOTES.

Did Not Have Price.
A young German, who has been in the city but a short time, started out on Monday for Buffalo, but when within a few miles of his destination he was sent back as he did not possess the required sum, $40 in his possession and he landed back in Kingston on Wednesday morning. He reported to the police and has decided to remain in Kingston for a time at least and try and get work.
Tug Umbria Affair.
About 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning the tug Umbria, owned by Fallon Bros. contractors, was on fire. The six men who were on board decided that to save the tug it would be better not to start the engines, and the tug drifted as far as Belle's Island. The men worked hard, throwing water on the blaze, which was in the region of the wheel house, and the fire was soon extinguished. The tug was working again at noon, towing scows.

Saved From Drowning.

Capt. "Pan" Rooney, of the schooner Marshall saved 3 young men from drowning in the slip at the foot of Princess Street about nine o'clock on Tuesday night. The young fellow missed his way and stepped into the slip. His cries for help brought Capt. Rooney, who was on his schooner close by, to the scene in quick order and the young fellow was pulled out. The schooner Marshall cleared on Wednesday to load coal at Oswego for Patrick Walsh.

Plugged C.P.R. Express.

The out-going one o'clock C. P. R. express, on Tuesday, narrowly escaped hitting a man, who was walking the track near Angusville. The man was standing in the centre of the track and did not notice the approach of the train until it was almost on him. As soon as he realized his danger, instead of trying to jump out of the way, he became so frightened that he could not move a muscle. Engineer Collins, who was watching from his window after giving the man the warning signal, and seeing him remain motionless, plugged the train, which stopped with a jerk, and the man escaped by the closest of a margin.

Osgoode Hall.

Plint v City of Belleville—W. C. Mikel, K. C. for plaintiff, moved for order continuing an injunction in S. Masson, K. C. for defendant. Motion refused. Defendants to go on with work at their own risk. The case to go on at next court. Costs in cause unless trial judge otherwise orders.

Biliousness.

It is certainly one of the most disagreeable ailments which flesh is heir to. Coated tongue—bitter taste in the mouth—nausea—dizziness—these combine to make life a burden. The cause is a disordered liver—the cure Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. They go straight to the root of the trouble, put the liver right, cleanse the stomach and bowels, clear the tongue and take away the bitter taste from the mouth. At the first sign of biliousness take—
