HARVESTER SHOT ON

OUT-GOING TRAIN

The result of a chance shot considerably surprised a couple of men on one of the harvester's trains which left St. John last evening. It was a painful-surprise for the man who got the bullet, and a rather shocking one for the man who wielded the revolver. As the train was nearing McAdam Junction, one of the men apparently feeling the need of more ventilation struck his feet out of an open car window. Another man in a rear car looked out and saw the projecting feet. Thinking idly that they made a good target he pulled his gun and "just for fun" and without any intention of nitting them took a shot at the cow-It is just according to one's point of view whether fortune favored him or played him false. At any rate the shot was successful and the bullet lodged safely not in the bull's-eye, out in the miedle of the calf.

With a howl of pain the injured man jerked his leg into the car and with cries that he had been assassinated howled for a doctor. The train was stopped and word was wired to McAdam to have a doctor When the train reached the ready. junction the doctor was waiting, and started to probe for the bullet. It took half an hour's work to locate the piece of lead and extract it. The yound was dressed and the leg bound up and the train proceeded with the victim on board.
