CARRIED DOWN STAIRS IN SPITE OF HIS PROTESTS

Castro Gets Small Quarter From French
 at Martinique
 Prior to His Removal Ex-president Makes a Statement

Makes a Vigorous Protest Against Treatment
 Accorded Him

PORT DE FRANCE, Martinique, April 11.—Prior to his being taken aboard the steamer Versailles for deportation to France, ex-President Castro prepared a written protest against the action of the French government, which has been submitted to the authorities here. It reads as follows:
 "I hereby protest against the action of the French authorities of Martinique in having me put by force on board an outgoing vessel. First, because I was ill at the time and because I have committed no offense against the government of France and the authorities of Martinique during the time that I was permitted to remain on that island, and, finally, because the decree of expulsion which orders my deportation out of French territory compels me to take passage aboard a vessel which will again land me on French territory.

"Moreover, these considerations, since the case constitutes a breach of international law and a denial of the rights of individuals. That such a thing should have come to pass in the land which saw the birth of Josephine and from which came the inspiration and presage of liberty, and at the hands of a people who shed their blood by torrents hardly a century ago to maintain universal rights and the prerogatives of man is inconceivable." The ex-president said, just before the sailing of the Versailles, that if he were at liberty when he arrived at St. Nazaire he would immediately proceed to Spain to take passage for Sent Cruz, Tenerife. General Castro added that he was leaving his brother Carmelo here for the purpose of receiving mail which he expects to be forwarded from Trinidad and Venezuela.

The Versailles will stop at Basee Terre, Guadeloupe. Hardy had the steamer left last night when a party of Castro's friends arrived on the steamer Godeite from Saint Lucia.
 The removal of the ex-president of Venezuela from the hotel to the steamer was not without its pitiful aspect. Immediately on the announcement by the medical commission, who made a lengthy physical examination of Castro, that he was quite capable of making the voyage, the commissary of police with an escort of gendarmes invaded the hotel and proceeded to Castro's chamber. They found the ex-president in bed, and although he still protested that he could not move, they carried him downstairs, the patient all the while moaning bitterly, on a mattress and placed him on a stretcher.
 Officers from the United States cruiser, in civilian dress, helped to make him as comfortable as possible, and then the stretcher was picked up by four negroes and taken to the steamer docks. Gendarmes guarded it on each side, and a crowd of people numbering fully 2,000 followed the procession through the streets.

The entrance to the French line piers was guarded by the police and no one was permitted to enter except those who were directly connected with the transference of the ex-president. Some difficulty was experienced in hoisting the stretcher aboard, and for a moment Castro was in peril of falling out.
 The Versailles immediately slipped her cables and started on the voyage.

PORT DE FRANCE, April 10.—Cipriano Castro, ex-president of Yene-zuela, was tonight, reportedly carried from the island of Martinique by the French government. He protested to the last against his expulsion, but his protests were in vain. He is now on board the French line steamer Versailles, bound for St. Nazaire.
 Official notice was served on Castro this morning of the decision of the French government that he must leave the island within nine hours from the receipt of such notice and that the commissary of police at Fort de France had been charged with the execution of the order. The ex-president was furious with indignation and strove throughout the day to find some excuse that would be satisfactory to the colonial government, whereby he would not be compelled to obey the order.

 ST. JOHN, N. B.

To this end late this afternoon he summoned a lawyer and physician to certify that he was unable to leave the country.

The governor of Martinique and the public prosecutor, however, refused an extension of time and about 5 o'clock the commissary of police, accompanied by a large force of gendarmes, proceeded to the hotel where Castro was stopping for the purpose of removing him forcibly if necessary, to the steamer.

The affair created a great sensation and long before the police made their appearance at the hotel, crowds had gathered which, later were joined by the consuls representing the various foreign powers who showed great interest in the expulsion of what one of them termed "the common enemy of peace."

Castro who during his few days at Port de France has had very little to do with anybody locked himself in his room in company with his brother Carmelo and his secretary, and for a time refused to reply to the summons of the police official. The police hesitated to break in the door and finally decided to submit the matter again to Governor Fourcaud. The governor absolutely refused to sanction any delay and ordered that Castro be removed at once by force of arms. He also gave order that the Versailles remain in port until Castro could be put aboard.

It became necessary for the police and gendarmes to take rigid measures to prevent the crowd from getting that had by this time become riotous outside the hotel.

The ex-president railed against the French government and the local authorities, denouncing them for forcing upon him the alternative of deportation or imprisonment for six months.
 He declared that he would not budge and that it would be necessary to take him on board the Versailles by force of arms. This the commissary of police, who finally entered Castro's room, with an escort of gendarmes, refused to do, but Castro's lawyer took steps to find the chief justice at the very last moment, the governor and public prosecutor decided to have another medical examination made.

Accordingly, a medical commission, composed of Drs. Bouvier, Coste and Barbe proceeded with the examination in order to establish if Castro's health was such that he could make the voyage.

The consultation continued for more than half an hour and they agreed that the life of the president would be jeopardized by his removal to the steamer and the return voyage across the ocean.

POLICE DESCEND ON A CHINK GAMBLING JOIN; ARREST 28 CELESTIALS

Sam Wah is charged with keeping a common gaming house on Mill street.
 The others are charged with gaming in the said common gaming house.
 Their names and ages are as follows: Han Lim, aged 28 years; Mo Kicker, 30 years; Yee Sing, 20 years; Charlie Ham, 28 years; Hum Kee, 35 years; Hum Joe, 20 years; Tom Hen, 28 years; 18 years; Hum Wong, 27 years; Jack Wong, 24 years; Heng Lee, 22 years; Hum Ahn, 38 years; Hai Lee, 20 years; Wesh Lee, 21 years; George Sam Wah, 25 years; Yung Kee, 27 years; Sam Lee, 23 years; Hel Kee, 34 years; Hum Kee, 25 years; Soo Kee, 21 years; Shing Kee, 23 years; Charlie Chong, 33 years.

At 159 Mill Street
 The den is situated at 159 Mill street and the innocent looking laundry is conducted by W. Sam Wah, a thirty-year-old, almond-eyed son of China.
 After passing through the front door where "wash" is taken in and delivered there are four other rooms and the rear room are the tables for playing the game of chance. This rear room is near the likely number and was undoubtedly picked out by the wily Sam Wah as being a quiet place that the police would not think of visiting. The police, when Sgt. Campbell the gambling has been going on for months in Sam Wah's laundry, but it was not thought best to raid the place until about three weeks ago, and last night proved a most opportune time.

Complaints had been made to the police regarding the place and persons residing in the adjoining property could hear the chatter of the excited Chinks as they became interested in their game, and it is also believed by some of the Chinese arrested, that some Chinaman who has lost his way at the game has given the information to the police.

DECIDED TO RAID.
 Last evening the Deputy Chief, decided to raid the place and called to his assistance Detective Killen Night Detective Lucas, Sgt. Kilpatrick and Officers Finley, Perry, Scott and Semple. The deputy when Sgt. Campbell Killen and Lucas kept a watch on the front door, while the other officers guarded the rear of the building. After a wait of about three-quarters of an hour Harry Hum, a young and sportily dressed Chink, sauntered along Mill street and timidly approached the laundry door. He gave a signal rap on the door and in a few minutes the portal was opened for him and at the same time the Deputy Chief and the others made a rush to gain an entrance.
 Harry Hum, who had to close the door against the officers, and in the crush the glass in the door was broken. The police rushed as quickly as they could into the rear room and to climb over numerous articles before reaching the gaming room. The gambling chinks were struck with terror and fled in all directions. There was a rush to escape, and the glass in the rear window was smashed by their attempt to escape, but the officers prevented any from getting clear, and in all 28 CHINKS were trapped.

 In the attempt to escape the gamblers left their money about $20 in all, on the gaming table along with cards and dice. A thousand up, and Detective Killen described it as resembling a thousand English sparrows in a scrap.
 The noise of the raid quickly spread about the city, and in a short time hundreds of people blocked the street, all anxious to see the prisoners. A pa-trool wagon would have come in handy there was a rush to escape, and the glass in the rear window was smashed by their attempt to escape, but the officers prevented any from getting
 trapped.

EXPLOSION MAIMS TWENTY AT ROME

Dynamite Cartridge Explodes, Wrecking House Near the Vatican and Injuring Many.

ROME, April 11.—An explosion in V.
 Borgo Pio, near the Vatican, took place today. A young workman named Progetti was making up dynamite cartridges for fishing and one of them exploded, setting on fire a quantity of cotton, saturated with nitro-glycerine, which was lying prepared on a table.
 The explosion destroyed the first floor, on which was the room in which the man was working, and part of the second floor. Progetti was picked up in an awful state among the debris of the explosion, his foot and right arm having been broken. His injuries, it is thought, will prove fatal.
 Twenty others were wounded. The explosion was heard at the Vatican and the Pope immediately inquired about it. He was kept informed of the condition of the wounded. Numerous visitors in the Basilica hardly heard the explosion.
 A young woman, "Chita" (tablets) but recently married, was enjoying the delightful novelty of, marking-one morning shortly after the termination of the honeymoon.
 "I wish to get some butter, please," said she to the dealer.
 "But butter, mimm" asked the man.
 "No," promptly replied his customer, "we wish to eat it to toast. My husband doesn't care for rolls."

Some of those arrested are said to have been mixed up in previous raids.
 The games played in Sam Wah's is said to be far more than a simple game with dice and roulette was the services of Sgt. Campbell and officers Totton, Elyas, Goeline and Hamm were called on to assist the other officers in the transfer of the prisoners from Mill street to the Central Station. The prisoners were very much excited last night when placed behind the bars and their loud talk could be heard out on King street.

The police court was crowded to overflowing this morning, and many persons could not gain admittance when the twenty-eight Chinese were placed before the magistrate to answer in charge of gambling. When brought into court some of the prisoners seemed frightened, while others smiled and one fellow produced a Chinese newspaper and put in a great deal of the time reading it.

H. A. McKewen and E. S. Ritchie appeared for the prisoners, and a plea of not guilty was entered. A number of leading Chinese laundry proprietors were in court looking after their fellow countrymen.

Policeman Finley was the first witness, and said that about nine o'clock last night he with other officers visited Sam Wah's laundry, 159 Mill street.
 They found two rooms in the rear of the laundry shop. In the rear room was a large table covered with woollen cloth and about the table six chairs.
 When the witness and his colleagues entered the room, six Chinese sitting about the table jumped up and knocked over the chairs. Sam Wah arrived in the room and was seen covering it with the spray of the table.
 Witness found $17.50 in silver, two dice, 28 dominoes, and a small round vessel of wood with Chinese figures on it.
 The witness saw the prisoners being second room some Chinese were drinking tea and Charlie Chong was reading a paper. Witness thought that the game was being played on the table in his pocket. Witness recognized Tom Hen and Hum Con as being round the table.

MANY HONOR LATE DR. JOSEPH BENSON

CHATHAM, N. B., April 9.—The remains of the late Dr. Joseph Benson were laid in the grave today, followed by one of the largest corteges ever seen on the Miramichi. The service started at the house at 2 p. m. and at twenty minutes past the procession started in their three-mile journey at St. Paul's Church, where the service was held by Rev. Archdeacon Forestry, and in this churchyard the remains were interred. At the head of the procession marched a hundred school children, Dr.
 Benson's name being inseparably linked with Chatham school history by reason of the great interest he took in educational matters.

The procession was as follows: School children, sleigh full of floral tributes, hearse, mourners, lieutenant-governor, town council, general tributes.
 There were 125 sleighs in the procession and hundreds followed alongside, walking on foot. The floral tributes were magnificent and so abundant that not only was the coffin completely covered, but a large sleigh draped in black was one mass of wreaths, crosses and other floral tokens of respect. There were no pall-bearers, but the mourners who followed the hearse included M. S. Benson, J. Fred Benson, W. Benson, Stewart Benson, D. T.
 Johnston, J. Stafford Benson, M. Benson, W. H. Tapper, Geoffrey Stead, Richard Hocken, Hon. Allan A. Ritchie and Dr. W. S. Leggie, P. F. Duffy, Dr. Baxter, Dr. Desmond and Dr. Mc-Cully. Among the clergy present were Rev. Dr. O'Leary, Rev. Fr. Crumley, Rev. Fr. McRory, Rev. Fr. Murdoch, Rev. Duncan Henderson, Rev. George Wood, Rev. J. S. McLean, Rev. P. G.
 Dawson.

their clients be allowed their liberty until the next session. The magistrate said that these defendants must be treated like other people residing in the city. He mentioned that no doubt there was society bridge being played for prizes and it might surprise twenty-six ladies to have seven big policemen break in on their game.
 A common gaming house is one run for the gain of the proprietor.
 The Chinese put up $200 as ball and were allowed to go until tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

The defense is that the Chinese of the city congregated at Sam Wah's for the purpose of hearing the news from the Chinese newspapers which Sam receives from San Francisco.

CHATHAM, Mass., April 11.—While close to the shore for a lea from a westerly gale, the tern schooner Annie A. Booth, Capt. Melvin, of Boston, bound from St. John, for Fall River, was struck by a storm on the Naugatuck bar at 3 a. m. Saturday. The crew of six men remained on board.

One of the patrols of the Naugatuck station saw the sails of the vessel in the darkness of the early morning, and realizing that she was too close to the beach, hurried his warning to the shore. The schooner was seen and he put his helm up to wear off, but the schooner refused to obey her ruder, and a few minutes later brought up hard and met a heavy surf on the beach. A westerly gale of force was blowing across the cape and there was some sea, the relics of Friday's storm heaving in from the eastward, so that the Booth immediately began to strain and pound.
 The Naugatuck crew were soon on the scene with their boats and the Orleans crew also gathered at the side of Naugatuck harbor. The captain of the Booth, however, decided not to abandon his vessel, and as soon as it was light he went ashore in one of his boats, and telephoned the owners in Boston.
 Her return soon after and preparations were at once made to get ashore as much of the cargo as possible, which it was thought would prove easy, as it consists mainly of short strops of wool and planking.

The Annie A. Booth was built at Port Jervis, N. B., in 1874 and is 145 tons, she

THE TEMPERANCE CAMPAIGN.

Temperance mass meetings were held last night in Lower Lansdowne Victoria and Duke's wards.
 Rev. J. H. A. Anderson gave an interesting address in Portland Methodist church.
 Mr. Anderson said that from a purely mercenary standpoint a person might as well be a liquor seller as a grocer, dry goods merchant or a professional man. However, all realize that the mercenary does not count all the value of liquor consumed in one year is about $40,000,000. It is spent on commodities and through industrial channels the problem of taxation would be solved. Mr. Crisp closed his remarks with an earnest appeal to all to use their influence and vote now that the opportunity was offered to lessen saloons in the city.
 In the Victoria street church last night, H. J. Smith dealt with the subject as it appeared to the average citizen. Mr. Smith also referred to the statement of the liquor law. He recited the history of other laws and stated that if the local option vote carried under systematic government there would be little difficulty experienced in enforcing the law.
 At the German street church the meeting for the electors in Dukes ward was held. The speakers were Rev. A.
 A. Graham and Rev. H. D. Marr.
 Mr. Graham in a straightforward manner laid the entire matter before the assembly, explaining the various details of the issue. He urged all to do their duty as Christian citizens and to vote against the evil. The speaker referred to a special meeting of the Common Council called for this afternoon at the City Hall to make preparations for taking the vote on the saloon question in Dukes, Lorne, Lansdowne and Victoria wards.
 Rev. Mr. Marr spoke briefly. He lauded the opportunity the people had of voting on the matter and opened the amendments passed by the government. He put forward the need for concerted action in regard to the presents.

Father Morrissey's "No. 7" Tablets

Rheumatism is generally brought on by exposure, but is really caused by Uric Acid in the blood. This Uric Acid is an irritating poison, formed from the waste matter of the body. The kidneys should remove it, but when they fail it poisons the blood, and, setting in the joints, causes Rheumatism.

The Allan royal mail steamer, Virginia, in command of Capt. A. H. Vipond, from Liverpool via Halifax, arrived off the island yesterday morning at 11 o'clock and dropped anchor until 2:30 o'clock when she docked at No. 5 berth. The Virginia left Liverpool at 1 p. m. The Virginia crossed the Atlantic by the long southern course, strong westerly winds were encountered with high seas, but no ice was sighted. The steamer's daily runs were: 280, 380, 414, 290, 425, 380. Total 2,846. While in Liverpool the long distance Marconi apparatus was installed in the ship, and after leaving Liverpool the steamer received daily news messages from the shore throughout the voyage.

A very successful concert was held in the second class cabin on Wednesday evening last. The program consisted of songs, piano and violin solos. The proceeds will be handed over to the St. John's Hospital. On Thursday morning, April 7th, the passengers held a visit drive and over 100 took part in the competition. Six prizes were awarded.
