Institution are MANY and IMPORTANT,
and the Rates of Premium quite as LOW as security to the Assured, and safety to the Office, will admit of.
The following are some of the advantages
offered by this Society:

The neculiar Benefits sectored to the Assured.

The peculiar Benefits secured to the by the principle of the LOAN Department.
One half of the Premium for the first five years may be paid by the Assured's own Note. These Notes need not be paid, but may remain on Interest, to be deducted from the Party on the death The peculiar Benefits of the Assured.

Insurers can at all times demand; as a right, a Loan to the extent of two-thirds the amount of Premium they have paid—upon deposit of their Policy, and guaranteeing it will be kept in force. This important advantage removes the fear so many entertain of being obliged, through pecuniary emberrassment, to let their Policies lapse, and at a time such a provision is absolutely needed for their families.

No Charge for $tamp Duty, nor for Medical Examination. The Bonuses divided Annually, either in Cash, Reduction of Premium, or in addition to the sum Assured, whichever of these three ways the Assured may each year desire, after being a Policy holder for Four Years, at which period a Bonus is syable for the Four Years—Annual THIRTY DAYS allowed after Policy.
