

The Sunday School Lesson

Lesson XI. March 13.
THE LORD'S SUPPER

Lesson—Matt. 26: 14-30. Printed Text
Matt. 26: 20-30.

Golden Text.—"As often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death till he come" (1 Cor. 11: 26).

Historical Setting.

Time.—Commonly reckoned, Apr. 6, A. D. 30. Place—Jerusalem.

The Lesson Text.

30 Now when even was come he was sitting at meat with the twelve disciples:

21 and as they were eating, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began to say unto him every one, Is it I, Lord?

23 And he answered and said, He that dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth, even as it is written of him; but woe unto that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had not been born.

25 And Judas, who betrayed him, answered and said, Is it I, I, Rabbi? He saith unto him, Thou hast said.

26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it; and he gave to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

27 And he took a cup, and gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many unto remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I shall not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

Comments.

Verse 20, Jesus started from Bethany, Brought this, late in the afternoon, and reached the upper room about sunset, which would be at that season a little after six o'clock.

Verse 21. The paschal supper regularly consisted of the lamb, which represented the offering whose blood sprinkled upon the doorpost had saved Israel in Egypt. With it were eaten bitter herbs, representing the bitter bondage in Egypt. At the point when the company ordinarily partook of the lamb, Jesus took bread and blessed it and gave to the disciples. Christ Himself was the paschal lamb. The unleavened bread symbolized the haste with which they parted.

Verse 22. To be warned of so heavy a crime as this was calculated to produce deep sorrow and consternation.

Verse 23. This saying of Jesus narrowed the circle in which the guilty was to be found and pointed out the extreme treachery of one so close to Him.

Verse 24. This statement indicates that the betrayal of Jesus, while a matter of prophecy, did not remove responsibility from the guilty.

Verse 25. The betrayal was predestined, but betrayal by Judas was not predestined. Judas was justly punished because he voluntarily took the evil business upon himself.

Verse 26. The meal had been interrupted by the announcement of treason. Jesus instituted the Lord's Supper at the close of this paschal meal, and not as a part of it (Luke 22: 20; 1 Cor. 11: 25). Jesus probably designated bread, and not a lamb, to be used at the Lord's Supper because the types and shadows were to cease when the real sacrifice must come. The expression, "This is my body," must have been figurative because the living Christ was present.

Verse 27. Nowhere in the accounts of the Lord's Supper is the word "wine" used, but "cup." Paschal wine was mixed with water.

Verse 28. Christ's blood sealed the new covenant between God and all mankind.

Verse 29. Reference is here made to the spiritual feast in the glorified and higher existence (Luke 22: 30). There may also be a comparison between the Christian dispensation and the Jewish, for in the former Christ is spiritually present with all His sincere followers as they gather about His table on the first day of the week. The words must have made a solemn impression upon His disciples, and should impress us in the same manner.

Verse 30. In the shadow of the cross the Man of sorrow lifted His voice in praise.

Illustrated Truth.

We need to be reminded of the sacrifice of Christ for us (Golden Text).

Illustration.—During the World War a lady often visited in a home from which the young husband and father had gone into service. She noticed that the latter's chair was always placed at the table, and that the children took turns in putting it in place. "This is Ned's day for placing father's chair," the mother would say. When she was asked why this was done she said: "My husband knew that I did not need to be reminded of him, but the children are so young that he was afraid they might forget, so he asked that we do this of which you speak."

Topics for Research and Discussion.

I. The Betrayal—Predicted (vs. 20-22). 1. Where and when did Jesus meet His disciples as described in this lesson? 2. What did the articles of food symbolize in this paschal supper? 3. Describe the effect that must have been produced, by Jesus' words in verse 21. 4. In whose heart was consternation most acute?

II. The Betrayer Pointed Out (vs. 23-25). 5. Do you suppose that the other disciples knew who could be guilty of such a crime? 6. How do you reconcile things here: was Judas responsible or not? 7. Why was Judas' punishment just?

III. The Supper Instituted (vs. 26-30). 8. Was the Lord's Supper the same as this paschal meal? 9. What fact proves the expression, "This is my body," to be figurative? 10. What "day" is referred to in verse 29? 11. Why did Jesus designate bread to be used at His supper instead of a lamb?

IMPORTANT POINTS IN HATCHING CHICKS.

During the hatching season the poultry house, and particularly the nest, should be kept clean. Clean water and a supply of whole grain should be provided also. If more than one hatch is being taken off, clean out and disinfect the nest after each hatch and put in new soil and fresh litter. Dust the hen with insect powder before putting her in the nest, and again a day or two before leaving the nest with the chickens. It is a good plan to put into the dust bath a little dry sulphur or ground tobacco.

Be sure also that the house is free from mites. These little pests get into the cracks and corners of the building, and at night, as the hens are roosting, they come out of their hiding place, get on the hen's body, and it does not take very many of them to make a hen so uneasy that she cannot sit. In some cases the mites become so troublesome that they actually worry the hens to death.

How to Get Rid of Mites.

Clean out the house and thoroughly sweep, not forgetting the windows, walls and ceiling. When this is all swept out clean, use a garden hose or a stiff brush and hot water. See that everything in the cracks and crevices is washed out. After this is done allow the house to dry for a while and if everything then appears to be clean, use a good disinfectant, and be sure that the solution is forced by the spray or brush right into the cracks and crevices. If the mites are bad, use boiling water, followed by coal oil and a liquid lice killer or lice plant. Be sure that this goes into the cracks and crevices, and when you have gone over your house thoroughly according to the above treatment, in all probability the mites will be exterminated, but it is advisable in the course of three or four days again to inspect for the mites and perhaps to repeat the dose once more.

HICCUP EPIDEMIC PREVALENT.

Don't get the habit of hiccups—stop the slightest attack at the beginning. Nothing brings such magical relief as slowly sipping a few drops of Nerviline in sweetened water. For stomach pains, bloating, cramps, diarrhoea, nothing will prove more useful in every home than a 35-cent bottle of good old Nerviline.

The net value of the gold, together with 220 ounces of silver recovered, was $4,099,596.

PREFERENCE GIVEN TO THE NEWSPAPERS

RETAIL CLOTHIERS EMPHASIZE EFFECTIVENESS OF ADVERTISING.

Delegates to the convention of the Ontario Retail Clothiers' Section of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada at Toronto were treated to a number of instructive talks on practical methods of advertising and the results obtained when properly placed. Of the many methods suggested the general consensus of opinion was that newspaper advertising was productive of the most effective results. It was pointed out by several speakers that the action of many of the leading journals of Canada in eliminating from their pages, advertising material of a questionable character had been the means of inducing many prospective advertisers to consider more seriously than ever before the real and practical value of newspaper advertising.

Mr. W. Findlay dealt with the topic of "Clean Advertising" and the efforts of newspapers to suppress fraudulent advertising.

CANNOT BECOME CENSUS OFFICIALS

ENUMERATORS BARRED WHERE ARE CONNECTED WITH MUNICIPAL COUNCILS.

The Department of Statistics at Ottawa will notify the assessment commissioners in each riding that it will not be permitted to make any appointments of any officials connected with Municipal Councils to the position of enumerator or any other position in connection with the taking of the census. The reason for this is that there is a lot of information which the Government will require to be taken and which will be of a confidential nature. The Government desires to make it impossible for this information to be used for taxation purposes either for Municipal, Provincial or Dominion legislatures.

This prohibition will extend to Reeves, rural councilors, town clerks, assessors, collectors, road masters, etc., or any person connected in any way with Provincial or Municipal offices.

AMALGAMATE DEPARTMENTS

All Branches Looking After Returned Men to Come Under D. S. C. R.

Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, the pensions and insurance branches and other branches dealing with returned soldiers' problems are likely, it is rumored, to be amalgamated into one department, to be known as the Department of Returned Soldiers' Affairs.

The creation of such a department receives considerable support on the ground that it would expedite the handling of returned soldier problems. If created, it would probably be handled by a deputy minister working under the general supervision of one of the existing ministers.
