Canada's New Coat of Arms

Every home in Canada, every Canadian school boy and girl should know the new Canadian Coat of Arms. It is a most beautiful plate and should occupy a prominent place in all true Canadian homes. The people of Canada are indebted to the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal for reproducing the new Coat of Arms in all its true heraldic colors and presenting a copy, 14 x 17 inches, to all readers of that great paper.

The Family Herald and Weekly Star is Canada's greatest family and farm paper and is known throughout the whole Dominion. It is wonderful value and provides every member of the family with clean, wholesome, instructive reading. It is a great money saver for the farmers of Canada and repays the subscription price one hundred fold each year. Canada is proud of the big weekly. It has no superior the world over and is improving year after year. It costs only two dollars a year and each reader for 1922 will receive free a copy of the "Coat of Arms"

The Children of Christ Church Sunday School under the direction of Mrs. V. O. Boyle will present their annual Xmas Tree Entertainment on Tues. Dec. 20th in the Town Hall.

The programme will consist of a short play entitled "Good Work William" presented by the senior pupils ranging from 10 to 14 years—a small musical skit called the Blue Bird's Wedding, by Mrs. Boyle, and presented by tots from three to ten years followed by a beautiful tableau - The Kings of the Orient, arranged by Mrs. Boyle and presented "en masse" by the Sunday School.

Plan of Hall will be open at Mr. Tribute's on Saturday Dec 17.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM ALLINGHAM

On Sunday evening at 11 p. m. an old resident of Lyn and Athens passed away. In his younger days he was a competent cooper and worked many years at this trade. He was of a genial disposition and many friends mourn his loss to our community.

The funeral was at the house of Mr. Madden Hewitt on Tuesday afternoon at 1 p. m. by Rev. S. F. Newton who preached an impressive funeral sermon.

JAMES GORDON RAPPELL

With startling suddenness, came the news from Eatonia, Sask., that James Gordon Rappel, son of the late John A. Rappel and Mrs. Rappel, had died as a result of an accident which befell him on Nov. 23rd. Following a short absence from town, he entered the bank, of which he was manager, and, finding the revolver out of its place in the holster, picked up the weapon to examine it. Finding it contained some empty shells, he attempted to pry them out, when the fire-arm exploded, the charge entering his side and penetrating the region of the stomach and spinal column. Despite skillful medical attention and careful professional nursing he lingered only some eighteen hours, passing away on the afternoon of November 24th, 1921. Deceased was born in the township of Kitley, Mar. 23rd, 1883, but when only two years of age came to Athens with his parents and resided here until he was graduated from the local High School following which he has held positions of trust in Buffalo, Salt Lake City, Edmonton and Moose Jaw. Early this year he was sent to Eatonia as manager of the Merchants Bank, where his efficiency, exemplary life, and genial manners constituted him one of the outstanding figures in this prairie town. Funeral services were conducted at Eatonia by Rev. Jos. Smeeton, the brotherhoods of Masons and Odd-fellows conducting the burial service.

Interment was made at Assiniboia. Some twelve years ago he was married to Miss Mary McCullum, Brockville, who survived together with his mother Mrs. Mary Rappel, Athens, and three sisters, Miss Grace Athens, Mrs. J. C. Hardy, S. Iway N. Y., Mrs. A. E. Brown, Leeds, and one brother Kenneth, a barrister at Assiniboia, who was summoned when the fatality occurred. The family have the sincere sympathy of the community in the untimely death of Gordon Rappel who is so well and favorably known by a wide circle of friends.

NOTICE

The Rev. D. C. Reid will preach in Holiness Movement Church on Sunday, Dec. 11 at 2.30 p.m. He will be accompanied by a band of singers. Everybody welcome to this spiritual treat.

Editor Athens Reporter—

What has become of our Athens Amateur Athletic Association?

Formed some time ago to advance the interests of clean sports, it seems to have become an orphan in its infancy and a subject for burial due to insufficient nourishment. This is regrettable. Athens has had Baseball Teams second to none in Ontario. How well we remember the players! Many a time have the invading soccer teams tasted defeat at the hands of an Athenian Eleven. Where was Athens ever defeated in Association Football? Our Hockey Clubs have withstood the onslaught of rival clubs and never were disgraced. Not so many years ago train loads came here to witness hockey matches and our streets thronged with visitors. Of late years this has changed. Is this not due to insufficient and improper organization? It does not seem fair to leave the details of organization to the boys. Have not the merchants and residents of Athens some desire to see again our youths in strife with visiting youths and hear again the shouts of Victory?

We have excellent material here for Baseball or Hockey. Is it not possible for the municipality to take a little interest in the pleasures of the rising generations and get behind the A. A. A. and give it a boost? The Hockey season is drawing near and it is very probable the Athletic Association will be holding its semi-annual meeting. Do not let the boys be the only attendants at this meeting. It will mean the death of the club. Let us have a representative citizen gathering to resurrect the spirit of sport and once again place the Town of Athens in its proper place. Watch for the announcement of the Association meeting and be sure to attend.

Rod and Gun for December

The Christmas issue of Rod and Gun in Canada is particularly attractive and is replete with many stories which will appeal to the heart of the true sportsman. Allen H. Kerr's "Trout Hunting on the Kenogami and Kenogamesis" as the opening article will prove a realistic tale, the ever popular F. V. Williams and Bonycastle Dale's narratives are of the usual high standard. The article by A. F. Wallace entitled "Clam and Pearl Fish" will undoubtedly be of vivid interest as well as instructive. Guns & Ammunition, Along the Trap-line, and Fishing Notes, contain several articles valuable to the various readers. ROD AND GUN IN CANADA is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.
