

OUR.. ..SPECIALLY FINE CHOCOLATES

50c. a Pound.
We have some new ones that we added to our already large list of fine chocolates, and now have the best assortment in the west. If you want some Extra Nice Candy put up in an attractive way come here.

CHOCOLATES, 40c a pound.

CHOCOLATES, 25c a pound.

CHOCOLATES, 15c a pound.

CARMELS, 20c a pound.

PEPPERMINTS, 15c a pound.

Our Green Grapes are delicious in flavor and large in size, 20c pound.

H. Malcolmson

"FAVORITE" Base Burners

"EMPIRE QUEEN" Ranges

The best pair of stoves a house can contain. Nothing better can be found in all stove-dom and very few as good, rather a strong assertion to make isn't it? But we know what we are talking about. Our sales haven't more than doubled this year for nothing. There certainly must be a reason for it.

Next time you pass just take five minutes to let us show you the reason. We will convince you before time is called.

May we expect a call from you? Any time between 7 a. m. and 7 p. m.

Base Burners $30 to $45
Ranges $33 to $50

J. C. Wanless.

NOTICE!

A few shares of stock for sale with a fortune behind them. Enquire at once.

I will buy Silver Leaf, Foster, Dominion Permanent, Trust and Guarantee, Reliance Loan or Colonial Investment.

ARTHUR J. DUNN,
Phone 109. Fifth St.
Next Harrison Hall.

LEAMINGTON TORPEDO CO...

LEAMINGTON, ONT.

Makers and Shooters Nitro Glycerine.

Orders promptly attended to. Long Distance Telephones—Leamington No. 85.

Merlin—National Supply Co. Office
Magazines FLETCHER AND LEAMINGTON

IN FLOWERS

We are prepared to offer the latest creations in Design Work and Floral combinations, also a full line of Ferns, Palms and Decorative Plants.

C. W. BAXTER, Florist
Phone 370.

TO ADVERTISERS—All changes of advertisements, to insure insertion must be handed in to this office the day before intended for publication.

STANDARD BANK OF CANADA

HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO.

BRANCHES AND AGENTS AT ALL PRINCIPAL PORTS IN CANADA, U. S. AND GREAT BRITAIN.

Drafts Issued and Notes Discounted. Saving Bank Department Deposits (which may be withdrawn without delay) received and interest allowed thereon at the highest current rates.

W. T. SHANNON and Chatham Branch

TO-NIGHT

Prayer meeting, in city churches, at 8.

Court Hope, 6244, A. O. F., in their hall at 8.

Miss McLean's dancing class ball, Auditorium, 8.30.

Court Pride of Kent, No. 9, A. O. F., Juvenile Foresters, in Workmen's Hall, at 7.30.

LOCAL

Smoke Lord Lake Cigar—10c. The Fur Store, the Gordon Store. The Gordon Store, the Fur Store. Miss Grace Laird was a city visitor yesterday.

Babes in Toyland at the Briscoe next Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bedford, of Louisville, spent Monday in the city.

We have gentlemen's fall dress suits for sale or to rent. Stone The Hatter.

Remember the diamond anniversary tea in Park street church Monday, Oct. 29th.

Choice Cannel Coal and Listings, for your fire grate. Fleming, Tillson & Co.

Reserve seat plan for No. 1 of the Lyceum Course opens for subscribers to-morrow morning at Briscoe.

Wm. Taylor, editor of Red and Gun, a magazine devoted to outdoor sports, published in Woodstock, is in the city calling on his friends.

The Chatham football team play an exhibition game at Cedar Springs against a combined team from Merion and Cedar Cross on Thursday at four p. m.

The Victoria Avenue Green Houses have just received the largest consignment of bulbs ever imported into Chatham. They are the best bulbs that can be procured. Bedding tulips $1.25 per hundred.

Hear Gillian, Humorist and Poet, in No. 1 of the Lyceum Course on Friday, 28th, in the Opera House. Tickets on Sale at Briscoe. Single Ticket 50c. for adult, or 25c. for pupils.

Geo. Raymont has received the contract to shingle the Victoria avenue Methodist Sunday school. He will close up the doorway now in use and build a new one between the church and the school room, remove the stairway from its present place and put it in the hallway to make room for class rooms underneath. The school room will be decorated.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

R. W. RUTHERFORD, M.D. SPECIALIST. EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT

GENITO-URINARY DISEASES.
GLASSES PROPERLY FITTED
33 KING ST. EAST, CHATHAM

Dr. Neil Smith
...DENTIST...

Office over A. I. McCall & Co's Drug Store
Cor. King and Fifth Sts.
Phone 164.

CHATHAM'S ONLY
MILLINERY STORE

We take pride in asserting that you will find no larger assortment of the newest winter designs in Hats and trimmings than we are now offering. All we ask is comparison of prices to prove we can save you money.

C. A. Cooksley,
KING STREET

DR. A. A. HICKS
...DENTIST...

OFFICE: 26 KING STREET WEST
OVER TURNER'S DRUG STORE
PHONE 337

BURROWS & SONS,
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS

OPPOSITE POST OFFICE, OPEN DAY
AND NIGHT.
Telephone No. 408.

Smoke Quail on Toast Cigar—5c.

The Fur Store, the Gordon Store. The Gordon Store, the Fur Store.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bedford, of Louisville, spent Monday in the city.

We have gentlemen's fall dress suits for sale or to rent. Stone The Hatter.

Remember the diamond anniversary tea in Park street church Monday, Oct. 29th.

Choice Cannel Coal and Listings, for your fire grate. Fleming, Tillson & Co.

Reserve seat plan for No. 1 of the Lyceum Course opens for subscribers to-morrow morning at Briscoe.

Wm. Taylor, editor of Red and Gun, a magazine devoted to outdoor sports, published in Woodstock, is in the city calling on his friends.

The Chatham football team play an exhibition game at Cedar Springs against a combined team from Merion and Cedar Cross on Thursday at four p. m.

The Victoria Avenue Green Houses have just received the largest consignment of bulbs ever imported into Chatham. They are the best bulbs that can be procured. Bedding tulips $1.25 per hundred.

Hear Gillian, Humorist and Poet, in No. 1 of the Lyceum Course on Friday, 28th, in the Opera House. Tickets on Sale at Briscoe. Single Ticket 50c. for adult, or 25c. for pupils.

Geo. Raymont has received the contract to shingle the Victoria avenue Methodist Sunday school. He will close up the doorway now in use and build a new one between the church and the school room, remove the stairway from its present place and put it in the hallway to make room for class rooms underneath. The school room will be decorated.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Sweet Cider

20c. Per Gallon

Snow Apples!

Sweet Potatoes

8 Lbs. for 25c

Cape Cod Cranberries!

The King Edward Grocery.

PHONE 51

C. B. Foster, district passenger agent for the C. P. R., is in the city on business to-day.

Gillian is an extraordinary humorist; hear him on Friday at the Opera House.

The Young Men's Club of the Victoria avenue Methodist church will meet on Tuesday night instead of Monday, on account of the evening classes at the C. B. C.

Messrs. F. D. Laurie, Walter Pole, Dr. Neil Smith and Dr. Musson leave for London this evening, where they will attend a banquet given by the Scottish Rite of the Masonic Order.

The notion that tea is injurious to persons of weak nerves is a false idea, as has been proven by the eminent scientist, Jonathan Hutchinson. Tea is in reality a nerve nutrient and is extremely beneficial to weak nerves, especially when you use pure tea direct from the gardens packed in sealed lead packages, such as "SALADAY" Tea, which received the highest award and gold medal at the St. Louis Exposition in 1904.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless and cannot coal, all at lowest current rates. Hard and soft wood.

The Independent Order of Oddfellows have been successful in procuring the gifted impersonator, Newton Beers, for the evening of Nov. 6th at the Briscoe Opera House. Mr. Beers holds the reputation of being the greatest impersonator on the American continent. The Oddfellows and the citizens of Chatham may expect a rare treat on this date, as Mr. Beers comes here with the endorsement of such eminent men as Gen. W. T. Sherman, the late Gen. Lou Wallace, the late Eugene Field, and our own Grand Master, who unite in expressing their admiration for his matchless skill and power in character delineation.

Wanted—A bright boy about seventeen years of age, to assist in office work. Must be able to furnish references. Address Box 23, Planet.

Mr. J. U. Thibodeau, of Chatham, Ont., was in the city last week calling on friends. Mr. Thibodeau was a prominent dry goods merchant in the Ontario city. He sold out recently and is looking for a western location at present.

If you want genuine Soranton coal—the most satisfactory mined—leave your orders with W. T. Campbell, office Fifth street, next to Harrison Hall; phone 109. Soft, smokeless