THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., OCT. 30, 1891.

Local and Provincial.

Fifteen vessels have been launched this season along the northern shore of Minas Basin.

We are glad to see Prof. Keirstead out again this week, and trust his return to full health may be speedy.

Mr. L. W. DeBarres and family left Wolfville on Wednesday to take up their winter residence at Halifax.

Hon. Samuel Chipman was 101 years old on Monday, the 19th inst. He is still enjoying good health, and on that day was out driving.

It is reported that Mr. J. L. Franklin has purchased the hardware business conducted by Mr. Walter Brown, and will take possession the first of the year.

Rev. Mr. Martell is about to erect a residence for himself in our town. He has purchased a lot nearly opposite the Village House, and will begin operations at once. Mr. Spencer has the contract.

One day last week Mrs. David Caldwell, of Gasperau, sent us a prettily colored butterfly, which was considered somewhat out of season. The insect has been kept in the office, and remained lively up to our going to press.

The attention of the public is directed to the adv. of Mr. E. B. Shaw in this issue. Mr. Shaw has recently opened a shop in Wolfville, and is prepared to furnish custom made boots and shoes in the most approved styles. His work is guaranteed.

Mrs. Sherwood and family, who have been spending the summer at the "Orchards," their summer residence, expect to leave Wolfville to-morrow for their winter home in Mont Clair, N. J. Miss Sherwood will remain a few weeks longer before going there.

The Allan and Dominion Steamship Companies assert that the subsidy received from the Dominion Government for carrying mails is not sufficient to compensate them for the extra risk of running into Halifax. Accordingly they will not call at Halifax but will make Portland their winter port.

"Lightning" Hay knives, to cut hay ratters mow at Brown's.

The steam saw-mill at Wallbrook belonging to John Brown was totally destroyed by fire on Sunday night. The fire broke out about 11 o'clock. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to be the work of incendiaries. Mr. Brown's loss is quite a heavy one, as the insurance was very slight.

Among other exchanges received during the week is that of the Eastern Journal, published at Port Hawkesbury, Cape Breton. This paper is just entering on its third year, and judging from its vast advertising patronage, together with its interesting budget of local news and editorial matter, is enjoying a prosperous and lucrative business.

Flat Table Ware, in steel and silver plate, a fine assortment, at Brown's.

FESTIVAL OF ALL SAINTS, NOVEMBER 1st.—In St. John's church, Wolfville, next Sunday, Nov. 1st, there will be morning prayer and celebration of the Holy Communion at 11 A. M. The Rector will preach on the following subject: "Why does the Church Commemorate the Faithful Departed? and what Special Benefits may accrue to us from such a Commemoration?"

The College work for the year '91-'92 is now well begun, and the greater part of the students are back. Some however are yet to arrive. These are mostly teachers of public schools. The classes now numbers somewhat as follows: Seniors, twenty-five; juniors, twenty-three; sophomores thirty-four; freshmen, thirty-one, of these there are thirteen young ladies.

For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's porous plaster. Price 25 cent. Sold by Geo. V. Rand.

Mr. T. A. Munro has moved down stairs into the room formerly occupied by Mr. J. M. Shaw. He has the room newly carpeted and fitted up for his business, and shows an excellent stock of cloths, etc. The new move will no doubt be a good one for him, as it gives him now an excellent opportunity of showing his store presents a neat appearance. The work-rooms are still upstairs, where he employs a large staff and turns out a large amount of work.

Local and Provincial.

Hallowe'en—to-morrow night.

Attention is called to the notice of the amonac at the Baptist Parsonage on Thursday next.

Mr. Scott, of the Western Chronicle, spent Sunday in Wolfville, the guest of Mr. E. A. Brown, College street.

SHORT-HAND.—Mr. J. F. Herbin has started a class in Short-hand, all persons wishing to take up the study or to obtain information regarding it are requested to communicate with him.

The first fall of "the beautiful snow" occurred on Saturday last, when enough fell to almost make sleighing if the ground had been hard. This week the weather has been quite wintry.

"Unity" Tyre Cement, for bicycles and perambulators, at Walter Brown's.

The members of "Crystal" Band of Hope are preparing to give an entertainment in a few weeks time. Judging from the past efforts of the young people in this direction a good time may be confidently expected. We feel sure the people of Wolfville will give them a liberal patronage.

Carpet Felt is an excellent thing to put under carpets in the fall—at Brown's.

There appears to be a good crop of bears in Cumberland county this fall. The Sentinel's Wentworth correspondent writes: "Bears are seen about the roads quite frequently lately, which shows that our two old hunters are not with us now. One of them departed this life, the other married his third wife and is done hunting."

Call and see T. A. Munro's (Tailor) new stock of Fall and Winter Goods, for Suits, Overcoats and Pants.

Moore Rand, Anderson, Vaughn, Cook and Baker, the special committee appointed to select a site for the new court house and jail, met in Kentville on Tuesday. After consideration it was decided to take no steps in the matter till after the tenders for the present court house grounds are in. The committee adjourned to meet again on Dec. 1st.

Two Bob-clebs and an Avonshire Cow, for sale low by A. A. Jones, Horton Landing.

At the next meeting of Acadia Club, in the College Library on November 10th we understand that the Jewish problem will be considered. The Rev. William Dawson, of Canard, will present the subject, and an interesting discussion will without doubt ensue. In this connection we notice that the now famous novelist, Hall Caine, is to be sent by the London Jews to study the Jewish question in Russia.

The two Sonnets, by Rev. A. J. Lockhart, which appear in another column, are shortly to appear in a volume of selected verse, entitled "Flowers of the Wayside," to be published at Columbus, Ohio. The work is to be finely printed and illustrated and will contain contributions from some of the foremost American authors. We congratulate Mr. Lockhart (Pastor Felix) on this further recognition of his literary ability.

Last Friday evening was one of the worst of the season, and in consequence a small audience greeted Prof. Connelly at the recital in College Hall. Those who did attend however, enjoyed a rich treat. The following programme was presented: Readings: "Bealmed," Vagabond," Prof. Connelly.

Double Quartette: "Annie Laurie." Readings: "Newsboy's Debt," "Hunting a Mouse," Prof. Connelly; Solo: "Oves the Harbour Bar." Mr. H. N. Shaw. Readings: Selected, "Tipperary Policeman." Prof. Connelly.

Double Quartette: "Sailor's Chorus;" Reading: "Charles Edward's Vision," "Irish Emigrant." Prof. Connelly.

"God Save the Queen!" Prof. Connelly is an eloquentist of rare ability, and would receive a hearty welcome should he again visit Wolfville.

Cambridge. Mr. John Caldwell has commenced to build quite a large store.

Mr. Omer Woodman's new house is nearly completed, and he will move into it in a few days. The new lumber mill built by Caldwell & Woodman last spring has sawed about four hundred thousand feet of lumber, beside some rhingles and barrel heads, and staves; and a large share has been shipped to Wolfville to D. E. Woodman, who has found ready sale for it. The Cambridge glee club intends to have an entertainment soon.

Sonnets.

EVENING RAIN IN MAY.

Sodden the fields, with hollows rankly green; Great drops still linger on the darkened pane; And strenuous robins, prophesying rain, Pipe from the trees that towards my window lean:

Hoarse rolls the swollen river, dimly seen Mottled with frothy patches; while its breast, Filled, like my own, with musical unrest,

Is thinly covered with a misty screen: Crouched 'neath umbrellas go the passers-by. In gloom lone vanishing; the wheelmen fly Swift as a shadow of approaching fate; Low swamps are vocal with a carping cry,

And various notes of Springtide minstrelsy; Lamb's bleat aloof; the village clock strikes eight.

MY SYLVAN STUDY.

This is my oratory: studious, oft I come, at morn, at eve, to this retreat; Wild is the bower, and ancient is the seat;

My chair, a rock, with grass and mosses soft Fringed and enamelled. In a neighboring croft My children sport—not far from my own door,

Or come with leaves and flowers, in beautiful store: The blackbirds chatter sociably aloft, Round the silvery birch, the thorn, full-blushed;

With milky blossom; on my open page Leaf shadows lie, jewelled in golden light; And, lo! a voice, whose music straight is hushed;

Quick-pattering steps my partial ear engage, And tiny Golden hair has come in sight.

—ARTHUR JOHN LOCKHART. (Pastor Felix.)

Some Names.

EDITOR ACADIAN.—In your last issue I notice that a committee has been appointed to select names for the streets of Wolfville; and also that residents are requested to aid in the work by offering suggestions of appropriate names. I am glad to see that some one has taken hold of the matter and that our streets, are at last to be properly named. The following is a list of names that I have made up, which may seem at least appropriate: For the street that has been generally known as Main street I would suggest the name, "The Slough of Despond"; the street leading by the store of Messrs Prat & Collins might be called "The Gorge"; and as it continues up the hill past the Methodist church it might be designated "Washout street"; the street leading to the railway station, "Dark street"; the street leading to the College, "Nigmet street"; the street sometimes called Keen street, "Folly Road"; the street running parallel with Main street, "Mad avenue. These are a few names that suggest themselves to me, and I offer them to the community for what they may be worth, trusting they may be fully appreciated. Thanking you for space, I am yours truly,
