NERVOUS HEADACHE.
A Trouble that Renders the Life of Many Women Miserable.

A Sufferer for Twelve Years Whose Trouble was Aggravated by Kidney Disease—Tells How to Regain Health and Happiness.

From the Smith's Falls Record.

Since the Record began to publish accounts of the cures by the use of Dr Williams' Pink Pills, its representatives have found that half the wonderful cures effected by this medicine have not yet been given to the public. Women as well as men who have found relief are eager to let the facts be known for the benefit of other sufferers. Among them is Miss James Cotnam, of the township of Wolford.

SUFFERED FROM SEVERE HEADACHE.

The lady referred to was for twelve years a constant sufferer from nervous headache and kidney trouble. Having read so much about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills she determined to give them a trial. Their use for a short time brought a great improvement, and after taking them for about a month the nervous headache and kidney trouble left her. The degree of thankfulness felt by one who receives such benefits as the above can better be imagined than described. Here are Mrs. Cotnam's words: "If you could only know or if I could tell of the intense suffering which I have endured and the many sleepless nights I have spent in mental and physical agony, you would not wonder at the degree of thankfulness I feel for my restoration to health." Her trouble was a continual dread to her, and for a long time prevented her from doing any work. Since using the pills she is as well as ever—or to use her own words—"fully restored." In this household Pink Pills are now looked upon as one of the necessities.

As is the case with every good cause Pink Pills have much to contend with; spurious articles have been placed on the market, and though in appearance and color they may resemble the genuine, they have an altogether different effect on the system. The writer was once in a store when Pink Pills were asked for by a customer. The dealer hadn't them but said that he had something "just as good." The public are warned against this "just as good" scheme which is too often resorted to by some store keepers. It should be borne in mind that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a specific for all diseases arising from an impoverished condition of the blood or a shattered condition of the nervous forces, such as St. Vitus' dance, locomotor ataxia, rheumatism, paralysis, sciatica, the after effects of la grippe, loss of appetite, headache, dizziness, chronic coryza, rheumatism, etc. They are also a certain cure for the troubles peculiar to the female system, correcting irregularities, suppressions and all forms of female weakness, building anew the blood and restoring the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of any nature. Sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper (printed in red ink), and may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brantford, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y., at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50.

Spring Military Styles.

Green will be very fashionably during the coming season. May will also be very much in vogue, and the trimming this year is to be full to the brim. Sienna trimmings are much used, and it will be the fashion to have a vast amount of foliage in the bonnets, Rhinestone and a combination of bell-linters and jet will be used in the ornaments. There will be a good demand for shaded ribbon, and the coming season will be a great time for fancy ribbons, and very little plain ribbon will be used. Hats will be worn forward over the face, instead of back wards, as has been the case as they were last season. The smaller top hats will be very fashionable and gaily girted will be much worn.

Crespo, the Venezuelan President, was born on a ranch in the Orinoco Valley, of Spanish and Indian parents. His name is also of mixed blood, and of humble parentage. Crespo has been in the service of the Venezuelan nation since his boyhood, when he entered the army. By the time he was thirty he had distinguished himself sufficiently to be put in command of a division.

Willie—I know sister would be glad to go skating with you. Ringway—What makes you think so? She says she has been dying to have you break the ice.

The juggle of sophistry consists, for the most part, in using a word in one sense in the premises, and in another sense in the conclusion.—Coleridge.

Every mother should keep Ayer's Ovary Pectoral in case of croup and sudden colds.

Traveller—May I take this seat? Maid (from Boston, likely) Where do you wish to go first?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla will remove that bad feeling, and give new life and energy.

Am so glad you had the doctor; did he relieve you? Yes?—Union Signal.

Minard's Liniment cures Distemper.

Clippings from the Press.

A loyal W. C. T. U. woman is somewhat puzzled and worried over these words which appeared in an editorial paragraph some weeks since: "If the one thing to be accomplished (by our organization) is the annihilation of the liquor traffic—though white ribbons are coming to see that end is only a means to a greater end—the W. C. T. U. has every encouragement to stick to its present (do everything) policy." Our sister says: "I had supposed that the annihilation of the liquor traffic was the chief end of the W. C. T. U., and that those other things which it has taken up were but as means to that end. I should be much relieved to know what is meant by a 'greater end.'"

How is Miss Strongmind coming on? I don't hear her advertising woman's rights any more. She has given woman's rights business and taken up women's lefts. She has married a widower.

Remittent fever, probably.

Minard's Liniment Cures Colds, etc.

Tommy—What does the paper mean by practical Christianity? Practical Christianity is the kind that does not interfere with a man's business.

The best place to put an advertisement in the paper that enjoys the confidence of the community. The standing of the paper reflects on the advertisements it carries.

Mrs. Upon Green (who has been watching an Italian collecting cigar stamps)—Dear me, I've heard of the mania for collecting things, but that's carrying a far too far.
