

HAMBURG SUITS

White and Cream Lace Flouncing

$3.25 Hamburg Suits Reduced to $2.45

3.50 " " " 2.65

2.75 " " " 2.20

5.75 " " " 3.95

Lace Flouncing, Full Width, 55c.

VICTORIA LAWNS, MUSLINS, PIQUES, &c.

Now is your chance to get a White Dress for Summer at a Bargain.

C. PICKARD.

Sackville Boot & Shoe Store

Ladies' French Kid Boots,
Ladies' F. Kid Oxford Shoes,
Ladies' F. Kid Waukenphast,
Ladies' Slippers,
Men's Low Shoes (A Good Variety & Cheap).

Men's Lace and Congress Waukenphast,
Misses' and Children's Spring Heel Button Boots,

TENNIS and BASE BALL SHOES.

may 22 A. G. SMITH.

To My Customers.

SINCE the opening of my Branch Store at Fort Lawrence Marine Railway Dock I have found it necessary to be absent from home more than I wish. In the future, with the exception of Tuesday and Thursday Afternoons and Saturday Evenings, I will generally be found at the Old Store, where I will be prepared to Sell Goods, and anxious to do so at Lowest Prices obtainable.

Yours truly, J. A. McQUEEN.

Point de Bute, June 4, 1889.

STUDIO,

Black's Stone Block, Opposite the Post Office,
AMHERST, N. S.

BRANCH STUDIO
John Bell's Building, Sackville, N. B.

ALL FINISHING done in the Newest Style by Master Workmen. We have every facility for doing Fine Work. Photo Printing and Finishing done for Amateurs from all parts of the Province. Lowest City Rates. Mr. R. S. Priddy will visit the Sackville Branch two days of the week—Wednesdays and Saturdays. Other days the Present Operators will be in Charge.

Newest Things in DRESS GOODS!

Our Dress Goods Department is now complete in all the Leading Fabrics and Colorings. The Latest Productions in French, German and English.

New and Stylish Combinations,
Embroidered Costumes,
Border Cloths, and Plain and Fancy Suitings,

IN ALL NEW SHADES,
Silk and Wool Warp Henriettas,
IN BLACK AND COLORED.

New All-Wool Cashmeres,
In Light Shades, as Pale Green, Pale Blue, Cream, White, Peacock, Pink, &c.

These Goods are Excellent Value, 48 inches wide, and only 50c. a Yard.

We will call Special Attention to our Silk Department this Spring. The Newest Styles in Dress Silks.

Including Faille, Francis, The Mascot, Beau de Soie, Marveaux, &c., in Colored and Black.

New Jetted Visites and Wraps, New Laces, Gloves, Parasols, Embroideries, &c.

F. A. WILSON, AMHERST, N. S.

ETTER & PUGSLEY

SPRING, 1889.

Announce a General Display of their Spring Importations, including a Large Collection of

Dress Goods, Rich Embroidered Robes, Bordered Costumes.

(NO TWO DRESSES ALIKE.)
Black Silks, Rhadames and Satins, Col'd Dress Silks,
French and Scotch Gingham,

BORDERED ZEPHYRS,
FRENCH SATEENS, FRENCH CAMBRIS.

Hosiery, Handkerchiefs and Gloves,
ALL THE LATEST NOVELTIES IN

DRESS TRIMMINGS, CONSISTING OF

Directoire Gimps, Artistic Persian Embroideries, Gold, Silver and Steel Passamonties, Black and Colored Silk Gimps, Black Silk Passamonties, Jet Passamonties, &c.

Samples Mailed on Application.

ETTER & PUGSLEY
mar 27 AMHERST, N. S.

Large Importations

PER ATLANTIC STEAMERS

Stockholm City, Ulunda and Vancouver,

—OF—
READY-MADE CLOTHING

For Men and Boys,
SCOTCH AND ENGLISH CLOTHS,

Rubber Coats and Gossamers.

We are showing the Best Lines of the Season in the above Goods. Styles, new; Quality, good; Prices, fair.

AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Polite and attentive Salesmen always in attendance.

CHAPMAN BROTHERS, AMHERST.

Bargains!

Bargains!

My Stock is now COMPLETE in Every Line of Goods

For this Season of the Year.

I bought my Stock better than ever before, and I will sell all Goods on the Smallest Profit.

Give me a call and I will give you the best possible value for your money.

W. J. MAHONEY.
Bale Verre, May 7th, 1889.

Special Locals.

25 cts. buys a choice pound Tea at Geo. E. Ford's. Try it.

A Registered Jersey Cow and Calf for Sale by B. A. Read.

Shorts and Bran at $1.10 per 100 from Car. Call at once. Flour very cheap.

Geo. E. Ford.

Don't forget to see G. E. Ford's stock of Room Paper and Carpets. Before you buy, be wise.

Plants for Sale—Cabbage, Cauliflower and Cucumbers, also a few Yellow Flaming Tomato Plants.—F. A. Dixon.

Call at Jos. W. Dobson's for your Nickel Driving Harness, Team Collar, Carriage, or a Set of Coaches. It will pay you to go to Geo. E. Ford's. Try it.

We are showing the best value in Clothing ever shown in Sackville. I bought 250 Suits at a sacrifice, and we will give Bargains—Geo. E. Ford.

I tell you, Ladies, we do the Millinery Trade. Just opened: 1 case new Hats, Bonnets and Flowers, newest styles made. Come and see them.

Plain and Striped Black Henrietta Cloths, Colored and Black Cashmeres, Gingham, Corsets, Gloves, Parasols, Buttons, &c., &c.—at J. V. Bourque's, opposite Baptist Church, Amherst.

Prints! Dress Goods!—Over 200 pieces New Prints, at 6, 8, 10, 12 and 15c. Lovely Patterns. Be sure and see our New Stock Dress Goods. Newest Shades at Prices to suit everybody, at J. V. Bourque's, opposite Baptist Church, Amherst.

ap10-2m

New Goods! New Goods!—Just received a large assortment of English, Scotch and Canadian Tweeds; also a fine line of Black Worsted Coatings, Ready-Made Clothing, Gent's Furnishings, Shirts, Hats, &c., &c., at Prices which astonish everyone, at J. V. Bourque's, opposite Baptist Church, Amherst.

ap10-2m

AROUND TOWN.

—White frost on Tuesday morning did some damage to the crops in some parts of this parish.

—There will be horse-races and other sports on the Exhibition Grounds on Dominion Day. Particulars hereafter.

—The Sackville Cornet Band are preparing new music for their Monster Excursion on Dominion Day. They play at Crane's Corner next Saturday evening.

—The "Charter Oak" Base Ball Club has leased the grounds of the Agricultural Society. They intend expending considerable money, and will make it a good ball field.

—The ladies of Salem Sewing Circle intend holding a strawberry festival in Chignecto Hall on Thursday, the 4th of July. See advertisement next week.

—The Hys Sisters Comedy Co. gave a good entertainment in Music Hall last night. The sisters possess remarkably sweet and powerful voices, and they were excellently supported.

—Mr. Thomas J. Horner has secured the agency for Givins' Steam Laundry, Moncton, and solicits a share of patronage. Goods will be forwarded on Tuesdays and returned on Saturdays.

—The prize list of the Sackville and Westmorland Agricultural Society is now in the hands of the printer, but will be held open for one week to allow those who proposed last Spring to offer special prizes an opportunity of completing the list in the manner proposed.

—Rev. Dr. Pickard has gone to Middletown, Conn., to attend the 50th anniversary of his graduation at the Methodist University of that place. The class of '39, of which Dr. Pickard was a member, originally numbered twenty-four, but is now reduced to nine members. The jubilee anniversary of the class with which Mr. Thomas Pickard graduated will be held next year, he being a member of the class of '40.

LOCAL MATTERS.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.—Mr. J. L. Black has purchased eighteen acres of the Morris property, adjoining the school grounds, for the sum of $2,700.—The property at Upper Sackville owned by Mrs. John Berry, and known as the Brown Thompson place, has been sold to Mr. Albert Fawcett.

Public Works.—Hon. P. G. Ryan, Chief Commissioner, visited Sackville last Friday, and in company with Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P. inspected Westcott Abolition. Mr. Black has for some time past been urging upon the Government the importance of constructing a permanent bridge at that place, and it is thought that his suggestions will be adopted.

Mr. Black has obtained a special appropriation of $300 for the Cape Island road.

A HALIFAX SOCIETY NOVEL.—A novel written by a leading belle of Halifax society, the scene of which is laid in this city, is to be issued shortly, being now in the publisher's hands. It is said the story is destined to create a sensation, the plot being of a stirring character, and the tale written in brilliant style.

The leading characters introduced move in fashionable circles. The author gives evidence of possessing a rich talent for novel writing, her profusion being of rare order of excellence.—Chronicle.

COMMITTED FOR LARCENY.—Alfred Wry, or Roi, a French Canadian who has been employed by the New York Free Stone Quarrying Co., did not go to work on Monday morning, saying he was going to Amherst.

He was brought back by the Quebec express and taken before Magistrate Cahill. The theft of the money and of one watch was proved, and the prisoner was committed to the county goal for 60 days.

—Since your last issue, two events of more than ordinary importance have taken place in our town, viz.: The ordination at Christ Church on Sunday last and the opening of the new Court House on Tuesday. On Saturday last, amidst torrents of rain, clergy from their several parishes and students fresh from their collegiate studies, arrived in Amherst to take part in the events of the following day. Sunday the sun shone brightly and the flag from the church tower floated to the breeze intimating to the citizens that this was more than an ordinary Sabbath day for the Episcopalians, not only of this place, but of the whole diocese of Nova Scotia. Trinity Sunday, 1889, will long be remembered as a rare letter day in the Church of England at Amherst. At 8 o'clock a goodly number of the faithful wended their way to the sacred edifice to partake of the Holy Communion, and again at 9.30 a solemn morning service brought a fair congregation together, and we very solemnly throughout. Rev. W. E. Vroom, late Rector of Shediac, and now Professor of Divinity at King's College, Windsor, Bent, of Paragwah; Wiggins, of Sackville; Bliss, of Westmorland; Rev. Mr. Harris, Vicar, the Assistant Priest and the candidates for the priesthood and diaconate to the number of nine, all with the Church Warden and Vestry, met in the School House near the Church, and from thence in procession marched to the Church. The ordination services, which were particularly impressive, were attended by a large congregation, and were very solemn throughout. Rev. W. E. Vroom, late Rector of Shediac, and now Professor of Divinity at King's College, Windsor, preached the ordination sermon. Four candidates were advanced to the priesthood, and five to the diaconate. In the afternoon an open air service was held at Fort Lawrence, at which addresses were delivered by a number of clergy, the Bishop being unable to attend on account of indisposition. On Sunday evening the Bishop, who had been invited to deliver the address, and who delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr. After performing the ceremony, His Lordship called upon Judge Morse to deliver an address, which His Honor was pleased to do. He traced the early settlement of Fort Lawrence and the growth of the Church here and delivered an admirable discourse. There was a very large congregation present. On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, in the presence of the clergy and a fair congregation, laid the corner stone of the new Court House, and, as he was to be called after St. Alban, the martyr.