

WORKING HARD IN THE COUNTY.

Liberal Candidates Are Assured of Success.

Reed at Crown Point—Thompson In Dundas To-night.

Liberal Candidates Will Speak In the Wards.

Mr. Daniel Reed, the Liberal candidate for South Wentworth, is meeting with great success in his canvass and his meetings, which have just begun, promise well.

Mr. Reed had invited Mr. Regan, the Conservative candidate, to attend or send a representative, and Messrs. John Hoodless and Ald. Farrar were there in his interest.

Mr. Hoodless was then called upon, and gave a synopsis of Premier Whitney's Hamilton speech.

Mr. Reed, the Liberal candidate, was then called upon. He was well received and given a good hearing. Mr. Reed made one of the most effective speeches he has ever delivered.

Mr. Reed made one of the most effective speeches he has ever delivered. He took up each point dealt with by Mr. Hoodless, and showed the many ways in which Premier Whitney and his Tory Government had utterly failed to keep the pledges which he made before the last election.

R. A. Thompson's campaign in North Wentworth has been most satisfactory. Wherever he goes he meets with men who formerly opposed him, but who now speak in the highest terms of his course in the Legislature.

Sheffield, Friday, May 29. Clyde, Tuesday, June 2. Valens, Wednesday, June 3. Kirkwall, Thursday, June 4. Orkney, Friday, June 5.

The workers at the headquarters of the Labor candidate, Allan Studholme, are having a good laugh at the expense of an unknown Conservative. The rooms of Mr. Scott and Mr. Studholme are close to each other, on King street east, and last night the young Tory dropped into the Studholme rooms by mistake, and offered his services for Mr. Scott.

Mr. W. M. McClelland will address No. 6 Ward electors to-morrow (Friday) evening, at the corner of John and Ferris streets. Mr. Wardrope will hold a meeting in No. 3 Ward next week.

McKay's Hurry-Out Sale.
