POETRY.

GIT AWL YOU KIN.

I b'leeve it' each man's duty In gittin' through this life, Tu go er kinder easy like -Not have no sweat nor strife. Let things come out the best the' will -Course don't rush inter sin -But when yu're getting anything Git awl you kin.

If yu air goin to buy some shoes (Them's very needful things), Just ask the clerk if he won't plees Throw in some extra strings. It'll git the shoe fur just the same It won't take no more tin -If when yu're gettin anything

If it's a shirt yu're goin to buy, Yu want to make a holler-Just brace right up to him an say He must throw in a coller. Ther mite be times when this won't go, But she'll most allus win-So when yu're gettin anything

Git awl yu kin. The same holds good when goin tu church S'posin you git the "power" Git enough tu last yure life Instid of half an hour. I tell you boys, my idee is, An it has allus hin

That when yu're gettin anything SELECT STORY.

THE ORPHAN.

"Well, Juliet, what are you calculating to do?" said Mrs. Murdright. "It's time to make up your mind about Miss Juniata Jessup.

Juliet May lifted her heavy head and looked at them with vague surprise. "Do?" she repeated. "What's there to do? I don't know what you all mean." She was a dark, large-eyed girl with cheeks as pale as a calla leaf, a Spanish luxuriance of jet black hair, and a slight figure, which seemed to be bound by the weight of her mourning. Mrs. Murdright was a tall, masculine woman, with iron grey hair, and a square chin. Miss Jessup

"It's a week to-morrow since your pa was buried," added Mrs. Murdright. Juliet winced. "Yes," she said, "I know it. Oh! papa!

"There, there," said Miss Jessup, as the young orphan hid her face in her hands, "don't give way. It's un-christian and

"And it's high time," steadily observed living to earn --- '

"But I thought I was to live with you, said poor Juliet, who was as ignorant in the ways of the world as a six-month old baby; "you're my mother's sister, Aunt Murdright, and -"

"That is hardly a reason why I should undertake to support every relative I have got in the world," said Mrs. Murdright sourly. "You was eighteen last month and there's many a girl of your age earns her own living and lays up a handsome sum besides. And it's close on the first of June, and I need every room I have to let to summer boarders.

"And there is no reason," supplimented Miss Juniata, skillfully seizing the opportunity to strike it when Mrs. Murdright paused for lack of breath, "why you should sit with folded hands while your cousin Artemisia works in the skirt factory and Louisa Lacy goes out to tailor-

Juliet sat looking from one to the other while her heart seemed to stand still within her. At the Grange she had always lived in luxury. She had been the darling and idolized child of a doting father. She had never paused to con sider a question of mere money. All good and lovely things seemed to assemble around her by magic. Every one had spoken tenderly to her; and now --- and

"What am I to do, Aunt Murdright?" she faltered. "Is all my money spent?" "Your money!" hysterically echoed Miss Jessup. "Poor child! You ain't got none. It's all gone in rash speculations and mad inventions."

"Juniata speaks only the truth," said Mrs. Murdright stiffly, as Juliet's eyes sought hers, as if to ask corroboration of the little old maid's unfeeling words. "You are as good as a beggar, and you must begin to consider in serious earnest what you are to do for your bread. I can't undertake to support you." Juliet put her little cold hand in a right's. "Aunt," she said, " couldn't I make myself useful to you?" Mrs. Murdright shrugged her shoulders "I am very sorry," said she, "but I don't require anyone to play the piano and sit around the house in picturesqu positions and be waited on. You haven't been brought up as my girls are." Juliet recoiled as if a serpent had stung her; then she turned to Miss Jessup. "Cousin Juniata," she said, "you, too, are my relative! Aid me! Advise me You have age and experience - I am like a lost child in this great, cruel, grinding world." Verily, Juliet May was but a novice in all conventional wisdom, or she never would have alluded so unguardedly to the age and experience of the sprightly spinster. Miss Jessup bristled up. "I really don't know that I have anything to say," she said. As Mrs. Murdright remarks, people must expect to work in this world."

But Miss Jessup studiously banished from her recollection the fact that, when she had first set up dressmaking for herself, Squire May had lent her money for her lease, furniture, stock and fixtures. He had never claimed a cent of interest; he never so much as hinted at the repayment of the loan, and she had been equally silent. And it is to be presumed that she had forgotten the whole circumstances when she added with some little a deal wiser if your papa had looked a the far-famed Yellowstone Park. little more closely to his money, instead Graham to squander it."

"Cousin Chauncey was always good and kind!" cried Juliet coloring up. "He would have paid papa if he could. And "Hoity toity!" cried Miss Jessup. "Mean! Dishonorable! Well, if he ain't both let him put in an appearance and As Mr. Graham was at that moment supposed to be in Australia engaged in the management of a mammoth sheep farm, this was perhaps an unreasonable de- advt. mand. But to Miss Jessup's infinite amazement, and, perhaps, to her discombearded apparition, in a suit of some foreign style and cut, stalked in. said he. "Can anyone tell me if Miss Juliet May is here?"

Mrs. Murdright stared. Miss Jessur seemed equally amazed, but with a glad cry Juliet May sprang to her feet. "Chauncey!" she cried. "It is my cousin Chauncey!" "I am Chauncey Graham," said the young man. "I only arrived in the port of New York last evening. It all seems so strange to me to hear that my cousin, Squire May, is dead - that Juliet is with-

He stood in surprise, scarcely able to recognize in this tall Andalusian-faced girl, the chubby-cheeked little playfellow of former years. But when she flung herself so confidingly into his arms he held her in a tender and chivalric embrace. "Oh, Chauncey, I am so glad that you have come," she said. "Oh, I was so lonely and forsaken! No one has seemed to care for me since papa died - no one offered me a home!

"I will," said Chauncey, quietly. all smooth sailing now. The money which your father lent me has born fruit seventy times seven, and it is yours now." "Mrs. Murdright here recovered herself so far as to extend a fish-like hand to Mr. Graham. Miss Jessup pressed eagerly

"My dear Julie," she said with a little you see that your cousin is not at all the proper person to take charge of you." "Why not?" said Chauncey Graham. It seems to me I am the very one. And my mother is in New York waiting to extend a mother's tender care to Juliet." "At all events, my dear," said Miss Jessup, "don't cling to your cousin as if he were a floating spar and you a drowning mariner. Do sit down! Dear cousin Chauncey!" with a smile which displayed everyone of her false teeth to the very something, you know," briskly observed best advantage, "this is such an agreeable surprise. We have thought and talked of

While Mrs. Murdright hastened to prepare what she called "a little refreshment" for this relative who seemed so much nearer and dearer since he had come back home with plenty of money. "I wish now," she muttered, "that we hadn't been quite so sharp with Juliet. She was a silly child, no doubt, but if she is going to be rich again - eh? What?" wore spectacles and moved around in an with a crape-veiled hat and ink black to her niece who now presented herself active, jerky way, like an extra large- draperies folded across her slender shoulders. "You are not going away so soon,

Juliet, my darling." "Chauncey says that his mother expects us by the very next train," said Juliet, upon whose pale cheeks a new color had kindled. "And we have no

"And," simpered Miss Jessup, who had been hurriedly donning an extremely have volunteered to accompany dear in the face, Juliet May. You got your Juliet. Really, I have grown too fond of her to let her slip away from me like this."

Mrs. Murdright made a grimmace. "The scheming old cat," she said. "She actually thinks she is going to lure Chauncey Graham into marriage. Well, I never did see such idiotic folly." But she said nothing of this as she kissed Juliet good-bye with an effusiveness which astonished the young girl. "Farewell, my darling," she said, almost tragically. "And remember that if ever you need a home, my hearth and heart are equally open to you." "Why didn't you say so before?

Juliet asked herself, vaguely amazed at what seemed to her such a surprising inconsistency. "Why did she talk so disagreeably about my being a burden and earning my own living? And why is Juniata Jessup coming back with us without being invited, Poor little Juliet! She had yet much to earn of the ins and outs of this world. day, very ill satisfied with her journey. girl," said she. "There's Juliet engaged as engaged - a mere chit like that with no knowledge or experience of society! And Mrs. Graham taking on airs like the Queen, and telling me, up and down, that she didn't care for my company! Me! Her own cousin twice removed! And even kissing me nor telling me she hoped to see me again." "Humph!" replied Mrs. Murdright. That's generally the way rich people behave. But I almost wish, Juniata, we hadn't been quite so short with the child!" "Yes," said Miss Juniata, "but who was to suppose that she was to be an heiress, after all?" Abraham Lincoln

When leaving his home at Springfield, Ill., pathetically pleading way on Mrs. Murd- to be inaugurated president of the United States, made a farewell address to his old friends and neighbors, in which he said, NEIGHBORS GIVE YOUR BOYS A CHANCE." These words come with as much force today as they did thirty years ago.

How give them this chance? Up in the Northwest is a great empire waiting for young, and sturdy fellows to come and develop it and "grow up with the country." All over this broad land are the young fellows, the boys that Lincoln referred to, seeking to better their condition and get on in life. Here is their chance! The country referred to lies along the Northern Pacific R. R. Here you can find pretty much anything you want. In Minnesota, and in the Red River Valley, or North Dakota, the finest of prairie lands fitted for wheat and grain, or as well for diversified farming. In Western North Dakota, and Montana, are stock ranges limittious of grasses. If a fruit farming region is wanted there is the whole state of Washington to select less in extent, clothed with the most nutri

As for scenic delights the Northern Pacific Railroad passes through a country unparalled. In crossing the Rocky, Bitter Root and Cascade mountains, the greatest mountain scenery to be seen in the United States from the car window is found. The wonderful bad lands, wonderful in graceful form and glowing color, are a poem. Lakes Pend d' Oreille and Cœur d' Alene, are alone worthy of a trans-continental trip, while they are the fisherman's Ultima Thule. The ride along Clark's Fork of the Columbia river is a daylight dream. To "And, to my mind, it would have been cap the climax this is the only way to reach

To reach and see all this the Northern of lending to ne'er-do-well's like Chauncey Pacific railroad furnish trains and service scarlet rash having broken out among the this place lately. of unsurpassed excellence. The most approved and comfortable Palace Sleeping cars; the best Dining cars that can be made; it is mean and dishonorable in you to say Day coaches, with Baggage, Express, and Day coaches, and Day coaches, with Baggage, Express, and Day coaches, and Postal cars all drawn by powerful Baldwin Locemotives, make a train fit for royalty Those seeking for new homes should take say what he has done with that money." this train and go and spy out the land. To be prepared, write to

CHAS. S. FEE. G. P. & T. A.,

ARE YOU DEAF

fiture as well, the front door was pushed | Or do you suffer from noises in the head. open at that juncture, and a bronzed, Then send your address and I will send a at 10.30 o'clock. valuable treatise containing full particulars for home cure which cost compara-"Is this Mrs. Moses Murdright's house?" | tively nothing. A splendid work on deaf- | kind, on human or animals, cured in 30 | him? Lulu — Yes. Milly (bursting into ness and the ear. Address: Prof. G. Chase, Orillia, Ont.—13 w.

SHE VISITED THREE

An English Girl's Journey to the Bounds of the Mysterious City.

Miss Taylor, of London, Eng., the only woman who ever penetrated the interior of Thibet, has arrived at Vancouver on the steamer Empress of Japan. She is small in stature. Her hands and wrists are small, her features fine, and her manner gentle and pleasant. In spite of this fact Miss Taylor has travelled where a man could not have gone and lived. She was connected indirectly with a China mission, but having sufficient means of her own travelled about as fancy dictated. The trade of Thibet is held by China, and China is jealous of having any one of any other nation enter the country, because they know well that if "foreign devils' ever get into the land of the Thibetans There, there, little one, don't fret. It is the Chinese trade monopoly is gone. The Chinese have guards all around the territory and far in the interior their spies are

Miss Taylor started out first with four servants, and among them was a Mongolian Mohammedan, who coveted her pelongings, and thought it would be a meritorious thing to kill her any way. acidity, "you are such a mere baby! Don't | This man gave her a lot of trouble, and his treachery at the end nearly cost her her life and prevented her entry into Lassa, the sacred city of the interior of Thibet, of which so many strange stories are told. Miss Taylor's party was twice stopped by bandits. Once they took all her things away, but after discovering that her party were not members of the faction for which they had been mis taken, some of her goods were restored to her. After many vicissitudes she reached the Lassa district and got to within a few miles of Lassa city. Here she found that her treacherous servant had gone ahead and told the head men that if they al lowed her to enter the city their lives would be forfeited to the Chinese government; so the authorities, when she came up, told her they were sorry, and would willingly let her enter the city, but they > back in sight of her goal. The Thibetans are a nomadic people, but have one or two permanent towns. Lassa, the capital, being the largest. The people are governed principally by the lamas or native priest. They practice polyandry to a great extent, many women having as many as three or four husbands who in many cases are brothers. The country is all very much above the sea level, some 11,000 feet in the valleys. and she suffered greatly from shortness of dared not. She was thus forced to turn and has a peculiar grunt like a pig. Thibet is wet in summer and cold in winter. Miss Taylor has a Thibitan man servant with her, whom she says has been faithful. When she finally reached the border exit was refused this servant, but she said in the Thibetan language, which she understands perfectly: "He goes or I do not. You may kill me if you wish but my man must go. See you this?' and she drew from her breast a small silken union jack that she carried through all her vicissitudes. "Stain this flag with my blood and the great mother, whose sign this flag is, will avenge my death." This obtained her not only exit, but a

HARVEY STATION.

June 26 .- The parish Sunday school convention met in the church on Friday afternoon and was largely attended. S. J. Parsons and Rev. A. Lucas, of the N. B. S. S. association, were present and addressed the meeting. Prof. Robertson of Miss Jessup's stay in New York was the dominion dairy farm was also present not prolonged. She came back the next and gave a very stirring address on the benefits of Sunday school work. Mr. "Things are quite changed since I was a Robertson showed that he can speak quite as well upon religious subjects as he can to Chauncey Graham already — or as good upon dairying. The following executive was elected: A. W. Coburn, pres.; Mrs. W. G. Chamberlain, sec.-treas.; T. R.

Speedy, John Rutherford and John Brockway. There was also a large meeting in the church in the evening which was addressed by Messrs. Robertson, Parsons, Juliet parting from me like a clam, never Lucas and A. W. Coburn. At the close of the meeting Mr. Robertson briefly spoke to the patrons of the butter factory upon the advantages of co-operative dairy-

Mr. Lister has got his butter factory completed and will have it in operation in a day or two. The sacrament of the Lord's supper was dispensed on the 11th in the church. Mr. McLean was assisted in the services by the Rev. Mr. Ross of Prince William who preached a powerful sermon from Matt. 16-18. Mr. Ross also preached to a large audience in Taylor's hall in the Rev. Mr. McLean has gone to Brantford, where he goes to attend the general assembly of the Presbyterian church of Canada. He expects to be gone two weeks.

The sympathy of the neighborhood is wharf. extended to Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Burrell whose little boy died on the 11th inst. Its death was caused by cholera morbus. John Courtney, who has resided here for the past year, has removed with his family to Boston.

Miss Helen Mowatt, of Montreal, has tives. Miss Beverly, of Fredericton, was also here, the guest of Rev. Mr. McLean. Provincial deputy A. P. Sherwood organized a court of I. O. Foresters here on the evening of the 12th with fifteen charter members. It is to be known as Court Harvey Glen. The following officers were chosen: C. R., D. Glendenning; V. C. R., S. B. Hunter: P. C. R., R. H. Robinson; fin. sec., A. E. Saunders; rec sec., D. G. Taylor; chap., Wm. T. Coburn: S. B., C. Robinson; J. B., S. A. Robinson; court physician, Dr. B. N. Keith.

PENNIAC.

June 26.—The crops in this section are looking well but show a need of rain. Forest fires are raging on every hand. Road work is going on and all the men are busy (?) Jas. R. Gilmore is surveyor of roads for this district.

'he trustees of school district No. 5 scholars.

We are glad to be able to state that Mrs. Jas. Dennison is so far improved as Pullman Tourist cars good for both first to admit of her taking a short drive, which she has done on different occasions

Mrs. Frederick Estabrooks was called to Gibson on Tuesday on account of the firm elastic step of vigorous womanhood. sudden illness of her daughter. The Ladies who suffer from nervousness, sleeplatter is able to be about again, however. Miss Jessie Hooper addressed the members of the Union S. school on Sunday afternoon and gave a lecture in the eve-St. Paul, Minn. | ning. Miss Hooper's remarks were much Rev. Douglas Manzer held a service in

Itch, mange and scratches of every Warranted by Davis, Staples & Co.

CANADIAN HAY FOR ENGLAND.

Large Shipments Being Sent Across and Handsome Profits Made.

(Montreal Star.) The city has been struck with the hay fever. It is not, however, of the maligant type, but it has affected a great many citizens. The fact is, Canadian hay is having a tremendous boom, and the aforesaid citizens see millions in it. England has had a drought on her hands and conequently Canada is endeavoring to sell her hay while the sun shines. Since navigation opened large cargoes have been going out of Montreal weekly and the shippers of it have been realizing handsome profits. Those shippers were mostly to be found around the offices of the live stock exchange. Now, however, the circle has grown. It was too good a thing to be in the hands of a few. Within the past day or so grain men, steamship owners and agents, stockbreeders, shirt and collar manufacturers, dry goods and grocery men have applied for steamship space for the shipment of hay, and to-day a tonsorial artist applied at the offices of a steamship company for space. The original shippers of this precious article do not for a wonder complain of the trespass on their preserves. They have succeeded in making a good thing out of it and are not anxious to prevent the barber and the stockbroker from turning an honest dollar. A number of English buyers have been through the country buying up all the hay they could find. They were in Montreal today and reeived the welcome news by cable that it was raining in London. They immediately turned up their trousers and went to their hotel to pack their gripsack, for

VALUES AMONG CHEWSURES.

there was the end of the drought.

perial Geographical society of Russia is or feather beds. The oily quality of the the surprising announcement that the feathers is acted upon by exposure to a Chewsures—a race of seven thousand hot sun, producing a strong, offensive and people — in the department of Troust, unhealthy odor — in direct opposition to government of Tiflis, know nothing of the | the result which it is intended to obtain. use of money as a medium of exchange. But there should be frequent exposure to The unit of valuation among the primitive | the air, and the more persistently this is people is the cow. A horse is valued at carried out, the more healthful will be the three cows and a stallion at six. If a bed. Chewsure becomes enraged and cracks his neighbor's skull he is obliged to pay sixteen cows. If he breaks a bone of his neighbor's arm five cows will rehabilitate him in the eyes of society. A wound in the forehead calls for three calves. If one cuts another in the part of the face usually covered by the beard the punishment is and she suffered greatly from shortness of breath. The Thibetans are herders, and many of them are splendid horsemen.

They use a number of horses, and the ox in this country corresponds to the yak in comparatively severe. The "doctor" in this country corresponds to the yak in Weunds in the beardless part of the face youthful Gainsborough hat with rosebuds youthful Gainsborough hat with rosebuds Thibet. The yak is larger than the ox, calll for one-third as many cows only. The man who injures a neighbor's hand surrenders sixteen cows. Thirty cows even will pay for the loss of an eye. The people are said to be happy and contented. No misers exist among them!

June 26.- Farmers have had an exceptionally fine season for putting in the crops, some of which have got a fine start. but are already beginning to show the need of rain. The present outlook is that the hay crop on the highlands will be exceedingly light.

This place can boast of one of the most progressive courts of Foresters in the province, as many new recruits are added to their ranks at nearly every meeting. On Sunday afternoon last the members of this order assembled at the hall, and arraved in their handsome sashes, marched n procession to the church, where a very appropriate sermon was preached by their chaplain, Rev. A. G. Downey. The church was packed to overflowing, many being obliged to remain outside.

William Hagerman and bride have returned from Houlton. Both bride and groom are deservedly popular and have the best wishes of their many friends. Inspector Bridges has visited the school

WHITE'S COVE.

June 26.-L. P. Ferris, M. P. P., has gone to Ottawa to attend the liberal convention, and thence to the world's fair. Wallace Ferris, who has been attending school at St. Martins, is home for vacation.

G. W. Gunter and Miss May_Douglas, who have been attending Normal school. are with us again. The many friends of Mrs. Wm. Taylor will regret to learn of her sudden death which took place on Friday, 16th. Her son and daughter, who reside in Boston, were telegraphed for and arrived on Saturday. The funeral took place on Sunday and was largely attended. Joshua Colwell has his new tug running and is engaged in towing rafts from no sore spots hard to heal, acts quickly French Lake. She is the first steamer ever built in Queens county.

Quite extensive repairs have been made on the road here with the road machine, under the supervision of C. W. White. Extensive repairs have been made on the

DURHAM.

to welcome home again our very popular | splints, ring bone, sweeney, stifles, sprains well of our place, to see our best young Warranted by Davies, Staples & Co. men coming back to stay. The crops are rather backward and rain

21st. A good time is reported, and enough | world's fair and cut it up in sandwiches. was cleared to finish paying for their

Miss Chat. Estey has returned from Marysville to stay the summer at her old

SCOTCH SETTLEMENT.

JUNE 26 .- The farmers of this vicinity have about all finished putting in their crops, and are now daily watching for Mr. Cliff of the Kingsclear creamery, is again making his tri-weekly visits to this place, and quite a number of the farmers are disposing of their cream to him. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Edmondson, of have closed the school on account of Lowell, Mass, has been visiting friends in FASHION NOTES.

Ladies continually scan the fashion plates for some new and becoming design in dress to enhance their beauty and charms. There is nothing more becoming than the healthy glow, bright eye, and the lessness, weakness, anaemia, tired feelings, pallor, loss of appetite, hysteria, weak heart, weak stomach, or any nervous disorder, will find in Hawker's Nerve and Stomach Tonic a certain cure for all these troubles, and a perfect health restorer and invigorator to nerves, stomach and blood. the church at Mount Hope on Sunday, Price 50 cents a bottle, 6 bottes $2.50. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

Woman. - Milly - Have you accepted minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. | tears) — If I had only known you would I I should not have rejected him.

HINTS TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

All traces of mud can easily be removed from black clothes, by rubbing the spot with a raw potato, cut in half. If a bill must be sent through the mail inregistered, fold it neatly around a rather long visiting card, and it will escape

it is said, the most careful search of a Strawberry forks are a dainty novelty for the table. They are small, usually three tined, although they may be two, and seem with their short handles, to be more bowl than handle, the slender tines being quite two inches long. The chimney of a lamp should never be touched with water. A few drops of alcohol, or even parafine oil, will remove the dimmed smoky effect and makes the chimney as bright as possible when it is polished with a soft flannel or chamois Thirst in the infant is nearly always mistaken for hunger. Give your child a little cool, preferably boiled water, using cup or spoon, or try tiny pieces of ice tied in a scrap of lawn, and see if it does not prove the very thing needed. Six or seven times every day the babies should be offered drink; it regulates the bowels, cleanses the mouth and stomach, and pre- pet Sweepers. For sale low vents in a measure overfeeding.

The best flavor to add to chocolate is by vanilla, next to that, cinnamon. Beyond these two things one should use great caution, as it is very easy to spoil the fine natural flavor of the bean. Chocolate absorbs odors readily, therefore it should be kept in a pure, sweet atmosphere. As about eleven percent. of the chocolate bean is starch, chocolate and cocoa are of much finer flavor, if boiled for a few minutes. Long boiling, however, ruins their flavor and texture.

The more freely bedding can be exposed to the sun and air the better, but exposure In the present publication of the Im- to the sun should not include the pillows

> FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been dren while teething. If disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth, send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for hildren teething. It will relieve the gives tone and energy to the whole system.
> "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething, is pleasant to the ta and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing

MISS LIZZIE BORDEN'S SUNDAY A special from Fall River say: Miss Lizzie Borden did not go to church Sunday, nor did her sister Emma leave the house. During Miss Borden's imprisonment it was stated that she was anxious to go to church and face her old friends and acquaintances, if she had any such desire she did not gratify it. Many curious persons stood between the Borden home and the church only to be disappointed. The church was well filled, but the Rev. Mr. Jubb made no reference to the Borden case in his sermon. Miss Borden's letters continue to accumulate. She has received many offers of marriage and suggestions as to how she may best pursue the murderes of her parent.

She has not formulated definate plans for the future and is willing to receive only her intimate friends.

RHEUMATISM CURED IN A DAY. - South American Rheumatic Cure for rheumatism and neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkabe and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits, 75 cents. Warranted by Davies, Staples & Co.

Sally Mander (sentimentally) - Did vou ever feel that strange, unaccountable unrest? Jerry Mander - Yes, once, in a New Jersey hotel. But I found em' when I lit the lamp and searched.

DON'T FORGET

That to remove corns, warts, bunions in a few days, all that is required is to apply the old and well-tested corn-cure - Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Sure, safe, Painless. Putnam's Corn Extractor makes Daily and Sunday, by and painlessly on hard and soft corns.

pliments, Mr. Squears, are in very bad taste. He (scared out of trying to be gallant) - Er - I didn't mean a word of them, truly I didn't.

English Spavin liniment removes all hard, soft or calloused lumps and blem-June 27.—We were very much pleased ishes from horses, blood spavin, curbs, young friend, Ed. Pond, who has been in | sore and swollen throat, coughs, etc. Save the west for the last three years. He has $50 by use of one bottle. Warranted the been here visiting her friends and rela- purchased a farm in Durham. It speaks most wonderful blemish cure ever known.

> In Chicago, a year hence.—Stranger -Who is the owner of that palatial house? The members of our council, R. T. of Chicagoan - Pete Lariat, the millionaire. T., held a basket social on Wednesday the He brought a quarter of beef to the

A PUNY AND FRETFUL BABY. This is now quite unnecessary! Like many others, you may have your baby fat, laughing and happy, if you give it Scott's Emulsion. Baby's take it like Needed More Than One .- Billy Bicycle (enthusiastically) - I tell you what, old man, you'll have to get you a wheel! Pooremanne Nupoppe-A wheel! I've got to get four of 'em. Four? Yes, four. On my way now to buy a baby carriage.

Of Pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites. It will STRENGTHEN WEAK LUNGS. STOP THE COUGH, AND CHECK all WASTING DISEASES. A remarkabl flesh producer and it is almost as Palat-able as Milk. Be sure to get the genuine put up in salmon-colored wrappers.

Prepared only by Scott & Bowne, Belleville

Just Received.

Two dozen Grand Rapid Car.

WHELPLEY,

Has now on hand, a Large Stock - OF-Timothy Seed,

Clover Seed.

Seed Oats. ___ALSO___

In Large and Small quantities.

Fredericton. The

During 1893 THE SUN will be of ure than ever before in its history > mall. - - - - - $8 a year Address THE SUN, New York.

JUST RECEIVED: 4 DOZ. Enterprise Meat Choppers, Tinned iron, best Meat Choppers in the country — well established fact. The tinned is much better than the Galvinized Iron. These Choppers are simple, easily taken apart and cleaned, and will last a life time. Every family should have one.

WILEY'S DRUG STORE.

196 Queen Street. 5 Gross HIRES' ROOT BEER Daily expected.

Just Received;

DIAMOND DYES. JOHN M. WILEY.

IVERPOOL AND LONDON AND

INSURANCE COMPANY.

GLOBE

ASSETS, 1ST JANUARY, 1889, - $39,722,809.59

Fire Insurance of Every Descrip-

LOWEST CURRENT RATES

JOHN G. ADAMS,

FURNISHING - UNDERTAKER,

FUNERAL

White and Black OPP. QUEEN HOTEL,

Bradley's Superphosphate. Caskets, Coffins,

310 Queen Street,

Sun Orders in the City or Country attended to with surpassing excellence and will print more news and more pure literat-

The Sunday Sun

s the greatest Sunday Newspaper in the world. Price 5c. a copy. By mail, $2 a year

R. C. MACREDIE

TINSMITH.

Assets in Canada, " - 870,525.67

he is prepared to fill all orders in above lines, including

ELECTRICAL AND MECHANICAL

WM. WILSON.

PatternS

---IN--

1:(0)(5)2

— AT —

BOOK STORE

REFRIGERATORS. JUST RECEIVED;

R. CHESTNUT & SONS. GLASS! GLASS!

JAMES S. NEILL.

Per. Woodboat Templar. 30 Barels Common Whiting, 30 bbls Raw Linseed Oil, 40 bbls Bolled Linseed Oil, 6 bbls Machine Oil, 4 bbls Pure Wool Oil, 1 barrel each of Pure Laft Fine Cylinder, Pure Olive, Castor and Needsfoot Oils, 100 keas Steel Cut Nails, 1 cask Miners Shovels, 1 doz. Long Handled Irish Spades, 5 boxes Common Tin, 2 casks Sheet Zinc, 2 casks Mixed Putty, 5ton assorted Bar Iron, 3 bozes Cut Tacks, 3 cases Common Pickaxes, 1 bbl T Hinges, 2 boxes Strap Hinges, 1 case Augers and Auger Bitts, 1 bale Salmon Twine, 1 bale Gilling Thread. For sale low, by

R. CHESTNUT & SONS. McMURRAY & Co.

Farm for Sale.

Meat Choppers

Have Just Received

A CAR LOAD

____OF ____

WALL PAPERS, And are now prepared to show the largest stock of Wall Paper in the city, in

Canadian

American Makes.

GOODS.

CALL and SEE the

Also a lot of REMNANTS.

Which will be sold Low, to make room for New Goods.

P. S. Expected daily a Large Stock of Ingrain paper with Borders to match.

Variety at the Lowest Prices. No Agents.

McMurray & Co.

LACTATED FOOD, MELLIN'S FOOD,

Plumber, Gas Fitter,

BELL HANGING. Speaking Tubes, &c.

New and Elegant

PAPERS. FREDERICTON.

> HALL'S Robes, Mountings, &c.

Business kept in stock M Special Prices for Country Orders.

Refrigerators, the best value of any in our market, in several styles and sizes, and Well Finished. Experience has taught us after handling many other kinds, that This Make are away ahead of anything yet. Please send in your orders.

400 BOXES Window Glass; 6 cases Murlin Glass; 6 cases Coloured Glass; 2 cases Febbled Plate Glass. For sale low by

THE subscriber's Farm at 8t. Mary's, near the Railway Station, containing 500 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation.

There are two houses, barns and outbuildings of the premises, all in good repair.

For further particulars apply to

JOHN A. EDWARDS,