Sermons On Catholic Worship

The appended is the 12th of a series of Sermons on Catholic Worship. This sermon was prepared by the Rev. A. R. Coopman, Pastor of St. Paul's Church, Annapolis, N.S. It treats of the Epistle, Gradual, Tract and Sequence of the Mass.

THE EPISTLE.

In our explanation of the prayers and ceremonies of the Mass we have come to the Epistle. The Epistle is a reading or lesson from Scripture. It is called Epistle, or letter, because generally it is taken from the letters written by the Apostles to various congregations they had formerly converted and organized in order to answer their questions, confirm them in the faith, refute heresies, uproot abuses which had crept in, or to give them counsel. Hence it may be stated that the reading of the Epistle at Mass dates back to the time of the Apostles, and was introduced by them. "I charge you by the Lord that this Epistle be read to all the holy brethren." (Thess. V. 7.)

FROM OTHER BOOKS OF THE BIBLE.

The Epistle is sometimes taken, from other books of the Old and New Testaments. That many of the Epistles should be taken from the Old Testament is most appropriate, since the Old Testament foreshadows and foretells the great events and personages of the new dispensation, Christ and the Church, through which and in which His spirit was to work. Therefore, whenever the Church found in the Old Testament a telling type, a striking prophecy of an event celebrated on certain days, she used them as the Epistle of the Mass, as an introduction to the Gospel of the day. Thus several of the Epistles of Advent, a time of preparation for Christmas, are taken from the prophetic books of the Old Testament, expressing a longing for the coming of the Redeemer. Thus, again, the Epistle of the Epiphany, or manifestation of the Saviour to the Gentiles, gives that grand prophecy of Isaiah foretelling the coming of the heathens from afar to Jerusalem, bringing gold and frankincense and shouting forth praise to the Lord, whilst the Gospel of the same feast shows the fulfilment of Isaiah's wonderful prophecy.

FOR INSTRUCTION.

The Epistle and the Gospel are given for the instruction not only of the priest but of the people as well. Hence, when not sung, they are read in a loud tone of voice. In the Epistle we are instructed by the Apostles and the prophets, whilst in the Gospel we are taught by the Son of God Himself. For this reason, in the Solemn Mass, the Epistle is sung by the subdeacon, whilst the Gospel is chanted by the higher minister, or the deacon of the Mass. And again, the Epistle is always read or sung before the Gospel.

SHOULD INSPIRE GRATITUDE.

We can imagine how happy the early Christians felt when at their gatherings they listened to the reading of an Epistle sent them by the Apostle who had brought them to the faith of

HEARTBURN.

This is a very common trouble, especially with those who are hearty eaters. It is a burning and burning pain in the stomach, attended by distended appetite, caused by great acidity. Whenever too much food is taken it is liable to ferment and become extremely sour and vomiting often occurs, and what is thrown up is sour and sometimes bitter. Keep your liver active by using and you will have no liver trouble. Miss Agnes Cottling, Shallow Lake, Ont., writes:—"I have had heartburn for a long time. There was a growing and burning pain in my stomach, and when I vomited there was a sour and bitter taste. I used two vials of Milburn's Laxative Pills, and they have cleared me of my heartburn."

Price, 25c. a vial at all dealers, or sent on receipt of order by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Prayers Of Our Church

Wishing non-Catholics comprehend that they do not understand congregational prayers, says the Monitor. Are we not to suppose that the beautiful prayer, the Rosary, is said, does it not often happen that it rather represents a mumble than a prayer? The prayers overlap. The answer is taken up before the preceding is concluded. Are the prayers after Mass always said distinctly, or is it simply the roaring of the wind? Let us say our congregational prayers distinctly; this will edify ourselves and non-visiting Catholics. Let us be polite when we converse with God. If you visit a friend you are attentive and careful about your speech. The friend is a poor human being. At least thank God as well as a poor mortal.

Did You Ever Think?

That a kind word put out at interest brings back an enormous percentage of love and appreciation? That though a loving thought may not seem to be appreciated, it has yet made you better and braver because of it? That the little acts of kindness and thoughtfulness day by day are really greater than one immense act of goodness once a year?

That to be always polite to the people at home is not only more ladylike but more refined than having "company manners"? That to learn to talk pleasantly about nothing in particular is a great art, and prevents you saying things that you may regret? That to judge anybody by his personal appearance stamps you as not only ignorant but vulgar? That to talk, and talk, and talk about yourself and your belongings is very tiresome for the people who listen? That to be witty at the expense of somebody else is positive cruelty many times?

That the ability to keep a friend is very much greater than that required to gain one?—The Tablet.

Watch Your Stomach.

DON'T GET DYSPEPSIA.

Dyspepsia is one of the most difficult diseases of the stomach there is to cure. You eat too much. Drink too much. Use too much tobacco. You make the stomach work overtime. You make it perform more than it should be called on to do. The natural result is that it is going to rebel against the amount of work put on it. It is only a matter of a short time before dyspepsia follows.

Burdock Blood Bitters

is the remedy you require to restore the stomach to a normal, healthy condition so that the food no longer causes distress, but is thoroughly digested and assimilated, and goes on its way making rich blood and bones, nerves and muscle. Price, $1.25 a bottle. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
