MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

The municipal elections this year are reduced to contests for the reeve, deputy-reeve and the council members for St. Patrick's and St. Andrew's wards.

A graceful act was done in allowing Mayor Butler to be elected for a second term by acclamation, and it would have been in good taste for the Reeve and Deputy-Reeve to have been similarly treated.

Mr Proudfoot has proved himself to be one of the best reeves who has ever sat at the town and county council, and we fail to see why he should be opposed on this occasion, and especially by one who, although in his own profession and citizenship will up to the average, has never shown that he possessed the qualities necessary to a public representative on any board.

In the matter of the deputy-reeve, the only complaint brought against Mr. Smith was that he was absent at some meetings during the latter part of the year; but when it is known that his absence was caused by his efforts to arrange his outside affairs so that he would be able to place new capital in his business and in future be able to devote more of his time and attention to the town, there is room for no carrying against him, and he is deserving of praise for his efforts.

Mr. Smith is an old resident of the town and largely interested in it. During his residence he has taken an interest in almost every enterprise for the development of Goderich, and is today helping to further the interests of the town to a much greater extent than many people of louder pretensions.

In St. Patrick's and St. Andrew's wards, there are plenty of men, but there ought to be no difficulty in picking out the best. Three new men, but with experience, are offering in the persons of Messrs. Strachan, Sloan and McKenzie, and their addition to the council board would certainly be in the interest of the town. The other candidates are all of last year's council, and their record is before the electors.

Let the best man win. Now that you've sworn off, stay sworn off. Did your hair pull Thursday morning after the surfeit of coffee and cake on New Year's.

The fight between Mr Meredith and Archbishop Cleary waxed warm, and it seems that the scientific sparring is now giving place to hard hitting. In this issue will be found His Grace's second letter, and next week we will publish other letters from the leader of the Loyal Opposition in Ontario, and His Grace.

There is much disappointment in Clinton over the fact that the Doherty organ factory is about to remove to London. This will be a sore blow to the ambitious town to the east, as it is one of the few industries possessed by that place. It is better with Goderich. An organ and furniture factory, a fruit barrel factory and other manufacturing enterprises are coming to our town, and while "Jobabod" is split between the lines of the corporate seat of Clinton, and "To Let" embellishes the windows of many of its places of residence, Goderich privileges are asked for right and left by employers of labor. A considerable number of Clinton families are about to remove to Goderich, and with the enlarged views gained by their acclimatizing they will make very good citizens.

TORONTO is going ahead in population, but "all is not gold that glitters." There are enough paupers, loafers and thieves in the capital of Ontario to command incorporation as a city if they were all bundled together on some of the vacant fields now staked out as suburban lots just without the city limits. The Toronto Society this year gave a Christmas dinner to 900 families in Toronto. Multiplied by five that makes 4,500 persons who received dole from one society. Other societies and religious and benevolent associations have supplied the wants of needy families by the hundred, and there are many still going hungry. Every Sunday morning hundreds of men are jostling each other for a cup of hot coffee and a few sandwiches given by the Cottage Church leader in Richmond Hall, and in the evening children with pinched faces and ragged and unseasonable clothing gather by hundreds to get a substantial meal in the same place. Toronto is booming. Its real estate is bounding up in price at an astounding rate, and it needs no factitious aids to make its census return a rapidly growing population; but never in the history of the metropolis of Ontario have more unemployed men walked the streets with heavy heart and light pockets, and never have there been such raids upon the free dinners so generously dealt out by some who have full pockets and a sympathy for the needy. A parade of Toronto's unemployed would take longer to pass a given point than any procession that ever tramped the block-paved streets of the Queen City; but what a dismal show it would be. The workmen who marched to the parliament buildings at Ottawa just before the defeat of the Mackenzie Government were but a corporal's guard compared with the host of idle men in Toronto. What is the reason for the immense number of idle men in Toronto? Our markets are "protected." The tall chimneys are all past due. Friends and countrymen, what is the matter?

THE NOMINATIONS.

The Mayor and the Council for 1890 were in progress. Returning officer Mitchell occupied the chair.

For the hour during which nominations were made there was a very quiet time. Formerly had been the style for a free and independent election to rise in his place, and say, "I beg leave to nominate John Doe or Richard Roe," as the case might be, and another intelligent voter would bob up and say, "I second that nomination, Mr. Returning-officer," and the returning-officer made a note of the nomination, and the audience at large became aware of the fact that John Doe and Richard Roe were in the municipal fight.

This year the free and independent elector worked on the quiet. He besought to his recorder to follow him to the returning officer's desk, and there whispered confidentially to that functionary the name of his candidate; the returning officer took down the name of the candidate, and asked for the assessor; then that individual gave a "me-too" bob of his head, and the nomination was made, while the large audience remained in blissful ignorance of what was being done by the whisperers at the returning officer's desk.

This is a capital scheme to work when nominations are cut and dried at a caucus meeting, but is not as satisfactory to the general public as when the proceedings are run in the open, old-fashioned, light-of-day manner.

Following are the nominations: FOR MAYOR. John Butler, by Thos. C. Nafiel seconded by Jas Breckenridge.

FOR REEVE. Wm Proudfoot, by C. A. Humber and John Acheson. Dr. Whitely, by David Reid and A. Elliott.

FOR DEPUTY REEVE. A. Smith, by Daniel Gordon and Jas Breckenridge. Robert McLean, by R. Radcliffe and John S. Platt.

FOR COUNCILLORS. St. Andrew's Ward.—D. Cantelon, Jas A. Reid and Thos Nafiel were nominated by J. Robertson, seconded by Gordon Condit. D. C. Strachan was nominated by A. Saunders and J. O'Neil.

St. David's Ward.—W. H. Murney, by A. Elliott and George McMahon; Robt Thompson, by A. Saunders and J. Breckenridge; C. A. Humber, by C. Crabb and John Sprunt.

St. George's Ward.—M. Nicholson, by A. Saunders and J. Robertson; E. Campion, by A. Saunders and J. Robertson; Hugh Dunlop, by D. Gordon and A. Saunders.

St. Patrick's Ward.—R. W. McKenzie, by J. H. Colborne and John Acheson; F. J. Fridham, by A. M. McGregor and S. Platt; Philip Holt, by A. M. McGregor and J. S. Platt; W. J. Dowling, by John Platt and E. O. Belcher; Samuel Sloan, by D. McGillivuddy and John Aikenhead.

FOR SCHOOL TRUSTEES. St. Andrew's Ward.—H. W. Ball, by Alex Saunders and S. J. Reid. St. David's Ward.—C. Crabb, by C. A. Humber and Robt Thompson.

St. George's Ward.—M. Nicholson, by Johnston McBrien and Colin Campbell. St. Patrick's Ward.—Wm Acheson, by John Bates and John Aikenhead.

At the close of the hour allowed for receiving nominations the returning officer declared Mayor Butler elected by acclamation, also councillors Humber, Robertson and Thompson for St. David's ward; councillors Dunlop, Campion and Nicholson for St. George's; and school trustees Acheson, Ball, Crabb and Nicholson. He delayed the meeting adjourned until Monday at 9 a.m., when the roll would be opened for the other candidates.

The returning officer was elected chairman of the public meeting, and addresses were made by Mayor Butler, Reeve Proudfoot, Deputy-Reeve Smith, Mr. Robert McLean, and councillor Philip Holt, and J. H. Colborne, the latter as chairman of the finance committee, entering into full explanations of the receipts and expenditures of the past year. Trustees H. W. Ball and C. Crabb also spoke. Want of space hinders us from giving a report of the speeches on the occasion.

All the candidates for the contested positions will go to the poll except Mr. Dowling, who has retired in St. Patrick's ward.

Outside Municipalities. ASHLEY TOWNSHIP.—J. Griffin, reeve; H. Girvin, first deputy; W. Storey, second deputy; H. Chambers and J. McKenzie, councillors, all by acclamation.

GODERICH TOWNSHIP.—John Cox and Gabriel Elliott, for reeve; John Beasom, for deputy-reeve, elected by acclamation; Thomas Churchill, Samuel Sturdy, Robt. Elliott, (3rd con.), Jas H. Elliott, Wm Wakefield, Geo. A. Cooper, for councillors.

COLBORNE.—Reeve, Jos. Beck, by acclamation; deputy-reeve, Joseph Hetherington and Arch. Malloy; councillor, Thomas Good, Nathan Johns, Jas. Stewart, J. Taylor, John Varcoe and Alex Young.

WEST WAWANOSH. From our own correspondent. COUNCIL MEETING.—Council met according to statute on Monday, 16th ult. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. The treasurer's report for Oct. and November showed receipts $2,514.90, and expenditure $1,688.72 on hand. St. George's ward complained that the parties to a drain on Con 12 had not done their work as engineer had directed, and that his portion of drain was being destroyed thereupon. A communication from the engineer on the same subject was read, stating that he had examined the premises and had extended the line for completion of E. Gaunt's portion until 20th.
