BERLIN, Aug. 6.
The prospects of a speedy settlement of the Moroccan question between Germany and France are welcomed on every hand, but the terms of the agreement, when they become known, will probably cause considerable dissatisfaction in various quarters, both in Germany and France.
Negotiations have been difficult, and the French people are not quite so optimistic as the Germans over the final outcome. Details still remain to be arranged, and it is recognized generally that these are most important.
Germany and France have both been compelled to concede a number of weighty points, because neither are prepared to press matters too far. The leading article in the Pan-German Post not only attacks the foreign Minister and Chancellor and demands their retirement from office, but makes a terrific onslaught on Emperor William, asking, "What has happened to the Hohenzollerns?" It also calls the Emperor the strongest supporter of the Anglo-French policy, and continues, "We will not yet believe what the English and French newspapers have said for weeks, namely, 'wait till your Emperor returns and then retreat will be sounded,' and Germany will recede from her position." The Pan-German Post concludes by calling the Emperor "William the Timid," and "A valorous patriot." Herr Harden, in Zukunft, also attacks His Majesty severely, naming him "William the Peaceful."

Over a thousand deaths have occurred from sunstroke during the ten days of Germany's heat-wave, as well as many more from heart failure, during bathing. Some five hundred have died from gastritis. A typhus fever epidemic, caused by lack of water, has broken out in the valley of the Moselle, caused, according to medical reports, by decaying fish which were netted in shoals.

Excursion to "Conception."

The people of Conception Harbor are already making preparations for the big excursion that will take place there on August the 23rd in aid of the fund for the building of St.
John's Conception Harbor. The Rev. Monsignor Vetch's Presbytery.
The Rev. pastor, who is doing great work there in the building of churches and schools, is being loyally assisted by his people in preparing for the excursion. All who have horses and carriages have volunteered to go to the station at Avondale on the morning of the 23rd and convey all the visitors from St. John's to Conception Harbor. An excellent programme is being arranged for the day. The visitors will be afforded an opportunity of seeing the beautiful scenery of this part of the bay on the drive from the station. All the carriages will go in procession and make a round which will take in Collier's —a charming spot—and all the vantage points such as Lewis' Hill, where one gets a Killarney-like view of the bay. The afternoon's programme will include sports on a fine field at the west end of the town and a dance in the hall at night. The committee in charge will have a liberal supply of vands for the 20 talents that will be out in the field near the Convent.
There will be boat races on the harbor also. In fact Rev. Monsignor Vetch and his energetic committee are determined to leave nothing undone that may help to give the visitors an enjoyable holiday. They are determined, if they can help it, none will come away dissatisfied. They will do their best. Monsignor Vetch has made wonderful progress in the building up of the parish since he assumed charge there. The crowning work is, of course, his beautiful church, which is a never failing source of surprise to all who visit it for the first time. There are nine flourishing schools in the parish, and a fine church also completed by the Monsignor at Collier's. Provided that the weather is fine on the 23rd, we hesitate an enjoyable excursion for all who go to Conception Harbor. For it must be remembered that Monsignor Vetch is equally as anxious to treat all visitors well and give them a favorable impression of his place and his people as he is to raise the necessary funds to complete his Presbytery.

Brien and P. E. Heeney.

Concert at Sea.

Mr. J. Outerbridge filled the chair at a concert on board the s.s. Mongolian last Friday night, when a collection was taken up in aid of the Sailors' Orphan Society. The programme given was as follows: Song, Mr. W.
Cross; son, Mr. W. R. Warren; recitation, Mr. C. D. Harvey; song, Miss Goldie; song, Dr. S. A. McPhee; dance, Bugler Robert Grewar; song, Mrs. Pippy; song, Mr. Hessler; recitation, Mrs. Bryce; song, Dr. J. T. C.
Laing; song, Miss Goldie; song, Mr.

Breach of the Fishery Rules.

Mr. J. H. Dee, inspector of lobster factories, telegraphed from Twilling-gate to the Marine and Fisheries Department Saturday that he had Jas.
Hodder brought before Magistrate Scott on a charge of breach of the Fishery Rules. He was convicted and fined and his factory closed down.

REQUIEM MASS.—The Annual Requiem Mass for the souls of the faithful departed will take place at Belvedere Mortuary Chapel at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Notes From Tilling.

We are very glad to have our esteemed pastor, Rev. W. P. Finn, formerly P.P. of this place, once more visiting us. He arrived here on July 28th and was accorded a grand reception. On his entering the harbor he was greeted with volleys of guns, and flags were flying in honour of our former beloved pastor.

Rev. Fr. O'Brien is at present visiting Labrador. We hope that his visit will be a pleasant one to him; we hope also that his stay with us will be as long as the above mentioned pastor's—Rev. Fr. Finn.

There passed peacefully away on August 1st, Mr. Edward Dwyer, a native of this place, at the age of 77 years. The many friends of Mrs.
Dwyer (his daughter-in-law) deeply sympathize with her in losing one who was so industrious and kind-hearted.
It was but a few months ago since her husband died and left behind him besides his wife, three children all too young to know or regret the loss of a father.

Mrs. Michael Sexton has been very ill the past six weeks, suffering from a rather serious complaint; she has had medical treatment during all this time, but was at one time attended by two doctors, viz. Drs. McLean and Eccratt. There is not much improvement in her at present and she will likely have to undergo an operation.

Miss Alice Walsh who went to spend a few months in the city, returned this morning by the S. S. Po-gota. She has a sister a nurse in the Insane Asylum in St. John's, and would have liked to stay, but owing to ill health she had to return home.

It appears that the fishing season with cod traps is all over here now, and a great many traps have been taken out of the water. On an average the fishery with cod traps this season has been extra good compared with last year's voyage. The people of this place have always been kind to the fishermen of other places, this can be clearly understood from the fact that so many of them from other places come here in the summer season fishing; well, this is all right, but it seems that some of these people do not think of the favours that have been shown to them when they are so importunate as to come round and interfere with the fishermen of the place by trawling, splitting, etc., on the fishing grounds inside the limited line. There seems to be some injustice shown to the fishermen of Tilling.

Uncle Walt

THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

When I was young I loved a maid who left all others in the shade. Her eyes were of an azure tint, her charms too numerous to print. I hoped to make that girl my bride, but fate to me that boon denied.
THE DREAM I left my native town to stray in towns and cities far away. The years passed on, and youth was fled, and silver hairs grew on my head, and hope became an aching void, and I wore teeth of celluloid. And all the time and everywhere I dreamed about that maiden fair. No other damsels had her grace, her sunny locks, her gentle face. Ah me! I loved her from afar, as one may love a shining star. Last month I journeyed home once more, to see the friends I loved of yore, to see the shack where I was born, and blow my father's dinner horn. There was a suffragette parade, and at the head of it the maid of whom I'd dreamed so many years; I saw her through a mist of tears. Ah, she had whiskers on her chin, and bore the sign: "We Women Win!" Her nose was red, her person flat, she wore the most outrageous hat! I siped about a million weeps, and uttered some despairing cheeps, and sought a drug store, there to drink a gallon of refreshing ink.

St. Bon's Association

Hold Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of St. Bonaventure's ex-pupils Association took place in the Aula Maxima yesterday. Rt.
Hon. Sir E. P. Morris, President of the Association, filled the chair.

The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were submitted showing that the Association is in a good financial condition.
The President delivered a long address of great interest. He referred to the aims and objects of the Society and the duty that all owed to their Aima Mater. He encouraged all the members to continue their efforts on behalf of St. Bonaventura's College.
The new college had cost $70,000; it was pleasing to know $2,000 of this was already paid off chiefly through the efforts of the friends of the College, the Men's and Women's Associations. Rev. Bro. Culhane being moved to the chair the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

Pres.—Rt. Hon. Sir E. P. Morris.
Vice-Pres.—M. W. Furlong, K.C., Asst. V. P.—F. J. Morris, K.C., Treasurer—W. J. Carroll, Esq., Secretary—J. J. McGrath, Esq.
The following were also appointed as Councillors: Capt. E. English, Sr., F. J. Doyle, W. S. Dunphy, E. J. Rawlins, M. J. Kelly, M. F. Lawlor, Hon.
J. Harris, E. J. Devoreux, M.H.A., P.

Indigestion & Dyspepsia

In all its Forms Can be Cured.

It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache, I feel too tired to do anything, I have no heart to exert myself, and at times I care for nothing.
I often have a pain in the pit of the stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion. I feel just as tired when rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sense of suffocation and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden.

Now, it seems a shame and a pity for persons to be suffering like that when it is in their power to get cured by taking a bottle of Dr. Stafford's Prescription A. A sure cure for persons afflicted with stomach troubles.
It can be obtained at

DR. F. STAFFORD & SON,
Duckworth St. and Theatre Hill.
Small size, 25 cents; postage 5c. extra; large size, 50 cents; postage, 10c. extra. Mail orders must be accompanied by remittance.—aug3
