Foundation-Stone of Cochrane St. Church Laid Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock the hearts of Thy servants to erect in this place a house for Thy worship. We thank Thee for Thy grace which has inclined them to contribute of their Corner Stone of the Cochrane Street Methodist Centennial Church was laid by the Rev. S. D. Chown, D.D., L.L.D., Ceneral Superintendent of the Methsubstance for the glory of Thy name; and we pray Thee to continue Thy odist Church, who was assisted by the Rev. T. A. Moore, D.D., General essing upon their pious undertak-S cretary, Department of Social Serng. Amen. Men may unite with them in their vice and Evangelism. The weather was somewhat un-favuorable for an outdoor function. holy work, until this habitation of Thy house shall be completed, and ready for dedication to Thy service, which necessitated the curtailment of free from debt or claim of men. the addresses delivered. The corner stone, on which was carved "Cochrane Street Methodist Centenial Church, 1915," was the gift May peace and harmony prevail in the counsels of Thy servants. May the work of this building be accomof Mr. James McIntyre, stone cutter, of this city. The trowel used for the plished without hart or accident to handle of ebony, and was presented by Hon. H. J. B. Woods on behalf of the Board of Trustees. It contained the following inscription suitably en-graved by Mr. R. H. Trapnell:— "Cochrane Street Methodist for "Cochrane Street Methodist Cen-tennial Church, Saint John's, Newfoundand, corner stone laid June 29th, 1915, by the Rev. S. D. Chown, D.D., General Superintendent of the Methodist Church." The glass bottle put with the stone right use of it, to the glory of Thy blessed name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Grant that all who shall hereafter worship Thee in the temple here to be builded, may so serve and please The glass bottle put with the stone contained the Church papers, parch-ment, the daily papers, a purse of Newfoundland coins, Discipline and Hymn Book, and Testament. The bot-tle taken out of the original building (which contained a copy of the Evening Telegram, of date Sept. 4th, 1880), was placed side by side with the new one. the new one. At the close of the Service the Benediction was pronounced by the Rev. George Paine, after which the Rev. C. A. Whitemarsh, pastor of Cochrane Street Church, addressed the large gathering present. The ceremony closed with the singing of the National Anthem. The following was the ORDER OF SERVICE For Laying the Corner Stone of the Cochrane Street Mehtodist Centen-nial Church St. John's, Nild, 29th the National Anthem.

and vowed unto the mighty God of Jacob;

ve are. Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let hin. become a wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He tak-eth the wise in his own craftiness. And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours; whe-ther Paul or Anollos or Carbas or ther Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; still are yours; and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

ADDRESSES BY REV. T. A. MOORE, D.D., General Secretary, Department of Social Service and Evangelism; and

REV. S. D. CHOWN, D.D., LL.D., General Superintendent of the Method-ist Church. The offertory was taken during the singing of HYMN 3. This stone to thee in faith we lay; To thee this temple, Lord, we build Thy power and goodness here display And be it with thy presence filicd.

Here, when thy people seek thy face, And dying sinners pray to live, Hear thou, in heaven, thy dwellingplace

And when thou hearest, Lord, for give!

Here, when thy messengers proclaim The blessed gospel of thy Son, Still, by the power of his great name, Be mighty signs and wonders done. Hosanna! to their heavenly King, When children's voices raise that song, Hosanna! let their angels sing,

Yet choose not, Lord, this house alone; Thy kingdom come to every heart;

In every bosom fix thy throne! Then shall the Minister, standing by the Stone, exhibit to the congre-gation two vessels to be placed in an excavation of the stone, one being that recovered from the corner-stone of the former church. The other
