Address and Presentation.

To the Very Rev. J. V. Donnelly:

Very Rev. and Dear Father,—We,

the Roman Catholic people of the Parish of Bay de Verde have heard with feelings of the most profound regret that you are about to sever your connections with us, and that you are proceeding to Conception to spend your declining years there, still doing the work of your father.

When it was rumored a few days ago that you, dear Father, were about to leave us, it came as a terrible shock to one and all, as we can scarcely realize such a thing as Bay de Verde without Father Donnelly, and it needed only your confirmation of the report to fill our cup of sorrow to the brim, but God's Will must be done.

There are certain memorable events in the lives of all men which can never be forgotten. Sometimes these events are of a joyous nature, other times of a sad one. In the latter class shall June 1918 be borne in our memories.

We shall in days to come remember this date as the time when our revered Pastor took his departure from amongst us after thirty-six years of the most strenuous labour for the salvation of our souls.

In losing you dear Father, we might well say that our loss is irreparable, as not only have you been the zealous physician of our souls, but also our temporal physician as well.

Who is there amongst us that at some time has not gone to you with a tale of sorrow or affliction, and where could be found a more sympathetic friend and comforter?

At the bedside of sickness who was more assiduous than you in your attention, often unsolicited, and undermotingly given with your big and charitable heart, given alike to rich and poor even to those who differed from you in religion.

Your sympathetic nature was ever full of pity for the meanest sufferer amongst us and your bountiful hand was ever outstretched to God's own poor.

In all our troubles spiritual and temporal, we found you always a sincere friend and adviser.

Of late we have noticed with feelings of intense sorrow that age is laying its heavy hand on you and that although you are doing everything humanly possible for one of your years, you can no longer do your Master's work in this Parish satisfactory to one who is so sensitive of his duty as you are.

We are pleased to know that our good Bishop is giving you a curate to assist you in your new Parish.

This is something which we would have wished for, but could not expect, owing to our small population and the ever-increasing demands for of us will feel the severing of the ties which have bound us together for so many years, as keenly as you will, and on no one will the parting fall more heavily.

This beautiful church which you erected and which you loved so dearly will be a monument to your memory and will be known as Fr. Donnelly's

Church.

We ask you, dear Father, to accept the accompanying purse, not so much for its intrinsic value as it would be impossible for us to repay you the debt we owe, but as a slight token of our esteem and appreciation.

Rest assured, dear Father, that although separated from you in person, we shall always be with you in spirit, and your memory shall be ever green in our hearts.

That you may be long spared to continue your labor of love in God's vineyard and that your declining years may be peaceful and happy, is the sincere wish of your loving Parishioners.

Signed on behalf of the Committee:

J. F. O'NEIL, Secretary.

JOHN KEASE, Treasurer.

REPLY.

To the Roman Catholic People of the Parish of Bay de Verde.

My Dear People,—My feelings of sorrow to-day on this the eve of my departure from you are such as no words of mine can describe.

Truly I can say it is the greatest trial of my life, to say good-by, after spending thirty-six years among you.

I did not need your address to know your feelings towards my departure; as after spending the best years of my life as your spiritual adviser, I know you one and all, even better than you know yourselves.

My labors here have always been a joy to me, as I have been met more than half way by you, and I can say in all sincerity, that I am leaving a Parish whose people are the equal at least of the people of any parish in Newfoundland.

In your address, you say you cannot imagine Bay de Verde without

Fr. Donnelly, but I cannot imagine such a thing as Fr. Donnelly without Bay de Verde.

Your joys have ever been my joys, your sorrows my sorrows, and even when absent from my Parish, your welfare has always been my first consideration, and how could it be otherwise as you by your good and noble natures, have entwined yourselves around my heart, and I can assure you that if God in His wisdom shall be pleased to make the remainder of my life either of short or long duration, I will never forget the people of Bay de Verde Parish.

It would be a great sorrow to me to know in future years that you had grown lukewarm in your religious duties and I pray God that such shall never be.

I must now say good-by, as God has

DEFAULTERS ENLISTED.—Seven young men, sent here from the Southern Shore by Sergt. Gardiner, who promised to enlist on arrival here, were later found in the office of a legal firm, and so were arrested.

Since then they have all enlisted.

Two others, from Torbay, who were also found in the same place, were arrested.

The Scientific Way to End Corns

THE Blue-jay plaster is a scientist's invention. It is made by the makers of B&B surgical dressings, used by physicians and hospitals everywhere.

So you may be sure that this is the right way to treat a corn.

The corn is ended by a bit of wax, which is centered on the corn. It cannot spread.

While the wax is acting, a pad protects the corn. So all pain ceases when the plaster is applied.

A band wraps the toe snugly and fastens itself. With this comfortable dressing one forgets the corn, and the plaster can't become displaced.

The pain stops instantly. Then the bit of wax gently undermines the corn. In two days it lifts out. Only rare corns need a second application.

Let Blue-jay prove itself tonight. You will never again merely pare a corn, or treat it in the old crude ways.

Upon the recommendation of the Food Control Board, and under the Provisions of the Food Control Act, 1917, and the War Measures Act, His Excellency the Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following Regulations regarding the Importation, Sale and Consumption of Breadstuffs.

W. W. HALFYARD,
Colonial Secretary.

Dept. of the Colonial Secretary, July 9th, 1918.

(1) In these Regulations

(a) "breadstuffs" shall mean wheat flour, rolled oats, oatmeal, corn-meal of the quality known as granulated or bolton table meal, and corn-flour; and "substitutes" shall mean any or all of the foregoing, except wheat flour.

(b) "person" shall mean any individual, firm, partnership, or corporation.

(c) "importer" shall mean any person duly licensed by the Food Control Board under these Regulations.

(2) From and after this date no person shall import any "breadstuffs" into the Dominion unless he shall have first obtained a license so to do from the Food Control Board.

Such license shall be issued without charge.

(3) No importer shall import any such breadstuffs without previously obtaining a permit from the Food Control Board for each and every quantity of breadstuffs he may desire to import.

(4) Every permit so issued shall authorize him to import wheat flour and substitutes in the proportion of four-fifths of wheat flour, and one-fifth of substitutes.

(5) Any importer, who, prior to the issue of these Regulations, shall have granted abroad for import into this Dominion any wheat flour, may be granted by the Board a permit for the importation of the same on an undertaking by him that he will import
