

Whooping Cough.

Dr. Chase's Syrup
Linseed and Turpentine

All Dealers or G. S. Doyle, St. John's, Nfld.

Mr. Robert Wilks, 8374-103rd Ave., Edmonton, Alta., writes:—"I really believe we would have lost our two-year-old baby with whooping cough had it not been for Dr. Chase's Linseed and Turpentine. He would cough and cough until he would fall back in my arms white as death. We had a doctor for him, but his medicine did not do him any good. We got a bottle of Linseed and Turpentine and to our surprise it did wonders for him. After the second dose there was a difference in his condition, and we kept giving it to him until he was entirely well."

Something Like a Surplus.

Britain Has £46,000,000, Actual--Belfast's Death Toll For March Was 64--Fatal Week End in Ulster Capital--Serious Split in Irish Republican Army.

BRITAIN'S SURPLUS.

LONDON, April 1. With the close of the financial year the British Treasury, the Chancellor of the Exchequer indicates, not only balanced its budget but secured a surplus of nearly 45,000,000 pounds for reduction of the national debt. The actual revenue amounted to 1,124,000,000 pounds and expenditure to 1,079,000,000 pounds. The taxpayers created a new record of 398,000,000 pounds for the year, a most conspicuous and satisfactory feature of revenue.

BELFAST'S BLACKEST MONTH.

BELFAST, April 2. The roll of fatalities from faction fighting here during March was 64, the blackest month in the city's history. The train from Belfast to Dublin was held up Saturday by forty armed men, who removed all letters and parcels from Belfast. On Friday afternoon publicans and police attacked the police station at Enniscorthy, Donegal, with machine guns, but the police garrison escaped injury. An armoured car which went to the assistance of the beleaguered was subjected to a determined attack.

ANOTHER BELFAST HORROR.

BELFAST, April 2. Another grim week end for Belfast. Four men were shot and killed and three children wounded in the Sinn Féin area last night. Shooting is believed to have been in reprisal for the killing on Saturday of George Turner, a regular policeman for fourteen years. The assassin fired on Turner from a vacant house and escaped. Later there was heavy rifle fire punctuated by shrieks of women and children. Afterwards the bodies of four dead men were found and also three wounded children. The father and children, Joseph Walsh, was one of the men killed. Walsh was lying in bed with the two children, one two years and the other seven years. The bullet which killed him wounded the two children. At Waterford, Protestant Bishop Butler, speaking on the terrible events in North Ireland declared "the names of Catholics and Protestants are being used in connection with some of the foulest deeds that ever disgraced a country."

A SERIOUS SPLIT IN IRISH ARMY.

DUBLIN, April 2. The serious extent of the split in the Irish Republican Army was revealed to-day when the five Dublin battalions were ordered out to take the new oath of allegiance to free themselves from responsibility to Dail Eireann and over 2,000 men responded. Extremists to-night expressed entire satisfaction. De Valera to-day, addressing a demonstration at Dundalk said the new peace pact between Craig and Collins was already regarded as a scrap of paper in Ulster. Collins, speaking at Castlebar, said the peace pact had added immensely to the prospect of a new union between the North and South.

A FRENCH THREAT.

PARIS, April 2. Premier Poincaré, told the Chamber on Saturday that if Germany remained recalcitrant regarding payment of reparations, France would reassert her entire liberty of action and that the Allies were in accord with her on this point. Three-fourths of the Deputies applauded.

BIG FIRE IN CHARLOTTETOWN.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I., April 2. Fire in a warehouse of the Imperial Oil Company, which broke out Saturday, was only extinguished to-day. Owning to a strong wind it threatened for hours to ignite the tanks containing over a million gallons of kerosene and gasoline. It also menaced the city.

MINARD'S LINIMENT FOR THE GRIP AND FLU.

"Windsor Patent" Competition.

RAY ROBERTS, Friday. Special to Evening Telegram.

A profusion of big loaves, small loaves, square loaves and round, was the sight which greeted one when entering the Cable Hall here last night to witness the judging of the "Windsor Patent" Bread-baking Competition. The spacious hall had been tastefully decorated, and on tables forming a hollow square the whole length of the hall, were the splendid loaves two and three tiers deep.

Miss Furneaux, D.S.T., arrived on the afternoon train and immediately began work, as the task before her was not only tedious but one requiring great science and skill, for the loaves had a similarity of appearance and quality very baffling to the untrained eye. However, by a process of elimination the various loaves in each grade were worked down until it was apparent that the much coveted honours would be confined to some thirty loaves. On these Miss Furneaux laboured most assiduously, and in the Coal and Wood section Nos. 227, 109 and 64 received first, second, and third places respectively; and in the Gas and Electric bakings, Nos. 33, 37, and 267 got the awards. Even then it was impossible to tell who the fortunate winners were, for as each loaf was received the names and addresses were removed and a number assigned to each so that it was impossible to identify any particular entry. Amid much excitement it was announced to the large audience present that the winners were as follows:—

COAL AND WOOD.

1st.—Mrs. W. J. M. Pike, Carbonear.
2nd.—Mrs. W. H. Butt, Carbonear.
3rd.—Miss Rita Snow, Staff House, Bay Roberts.

GAS AND ELECTRIC.

1st.—Miss Ada Osmond, care Dr. Stentford, Carbonear.
2nd.—Mrs. Robert Duff, Carbonear.
3rd.—Miss Marion Soper, Cook St. St. John's.

SPECIAL AWARDS.

Not in order of merit:—Mrs. Hugh Carter, 5 Colonial St.; Mrs. Robert Dawe, Bay Roberts; Mrs. S. R. Dawe, Bay Roberts; Bert Chubb, Carbonear; Isabel Thomas, Allendale Rd.; Mrs. Philip Saunders, Carbonear; Mrs. William Cameron, Carbonear; Mrs. Walter Brennan, Bay Roberts; Mrs. J. Barter, 265 Southside; Miss Elizabeth V. Ivany, 43 Brazil's Sq.; Mrs. Thos. Bennett, 29 Cuddihy St.; Mrs. Jack Bradbury, Bay Roberts; Miss Annie Barnes, Topsail; Mrs. G. Hierlihy, Bay Roberts; Mrs. James Norman, Coley's Point; Miss Winifred Brennan, Bay Roberts.

The prizes are $10 each for first place; $5 each for second, $2 each for third, while the Special Mentions are awarded $1 each. After the judging, Mr. Frank Howell (the genial resident agent for this popular grade of flour) announced that Miss Furneaux, who by the way is the teacher of Domestic Sciences at St. John's, had very kindly consented to deliver a short treatise on the qualities and characteristics which combine to make prize winning bread. From her clever and altogether too brief remarks we learned that in recent and authoritative score of judging bread, lately revised and published in the U.S. Govt. bulletins:—

1. General Appearance—Shape and size, well rounded, not cracked at sides, evenly baked 20
2. Baking—Crust an even brown, not more than one-eighth inch thick, centre of loaf well done 10
3. Flavour and Odour—Sweet and nutty, not sour, musty or salty 40
4. Texture—Cut surface should be fine and silky, and evenly honey-combed with small holes; must not be elastic when pressed, springing back into place leaving no mark. The colour should be creamy white not snowy white 30

Miss Furneaux's splendid information lecture was greeted with vociferous applause. Mr. P. Grace, who was present on behalf of Harvey & Co., Ltd., thanked the audience for their presence and for the interest which they evinced in the remarks of the lecturer. He availed of the opportunity to state that "Windsor Patent" is so called because it is exactly the

It is interesting to note the excellent preservation of some old family residences. So well do they "fit into the picture" that except for their architecture one might almost imagine them the product of the present age, yet in reality they stand as silent tributes to the wise precaution against decay and deterioration on the part of a former generation.

Any house that is worth building should also be worthy of preservation by means of paint. The maximum of protection is found in

A Big Attraction at the Nickel.

"TWIN BEDS," A GENUINE COMEDY

The Nickel Theatre opens the week by offering a special gesture of real laughs, entitled, "Twin Beds." This is the sort of comedy that is sure to tickle the fancy of those who enjoy real fun. The leading fun-makers in are Mr. and Mrs. Carter De Haven. Although the title of the picture may sound a little peculiar, nevertheless there is nothing in it out of the way. Mr. and Mrs. Carter De Haven are well known for producing pictures that besides being fascinating are clean in every respect. There is a mix-up in the story that will make one's ears tingle, but so naive, so delicate, it will tickle the most fastidious. And what a bunch of laughs. Never have there been so many such humorous situations into one picture before. "Twin Beds" is taken from the famous play by Margaret Mayo and Salisbury Field and is directed by Lloyd Ingraham.
