Just Folks.

By EDGAR A. GUEST.

FRIENDSHIP.

How shall we place a value on a friend, Or say one smile is fairer than its kin?

Must love be jeweled ere we let it in, And white and soft the hand which comes to lend?

Should we for joy on pride alone depend? Is friendship fashioned from the outer skin?

Or something warm and rich which glows within? And is there that in love which should offend?

No, I would take the friendly hand in mine Though it be black with toil and rough and coarse

And proudly count that proffered friendship fine And hold it dear, regardless of its source.

Who would be friend to me has welcome here No matter in what garb he may appear, clogs—though sweetly—tho' the air of the Given Farewell Party.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Star of the Sea, together with several gentlemen members of the Society, gave a farewell party last night to Miss Nance Farrell, who is leaving by the Silvia to-day for New York. Mr. M. F. Rolis, on behalf of the Ladies' Auxiliary expressed the regret of all at her departure, and extended best wishes for her future success from the many friends. The singing of "Auld Lang Syne," brought the pleasing function to a close.
