Suclph Evening Mercury

TUESDAY EV'NG, MAY 28, 1871

THE BOCCAGH.

A Tale of Eighty Years Ago.

CHAPTER I

His wandering habits obtained for him the nickname of the Boccagh (a deformed beggar); but he never accepted food or shelter without repaying it douldy either in abor or, in timely help of some sort. His saturine humor obtained for him the additionat cognomen of the Bodagh (a carl); but both terms were used in whispers, and never in his presence, for—save by those who were placed too high above him to heed him, or who were too skeptical to credit the marvels which report and sommon belief associated with him—he was regarded as one of the south of the second respite. That suphulsite term includes the respective with which stadition invested the water as the with which stadition invested the water as the other, and which the lively ringination of the pesantry perpended and magnified.

His presence excited awe—his name was used to frighten fractaoloy children; the many kindly acts with which the poor outcast sought to win a tenderer regard were only acknowledged with the timorous abasement of those who leave to annot love a benefactor.

Under these conditions, the man's mood ment of those who lear but cannot love a benefactor.

Under these conditions, the man's mood became daily more deeply imbued with gloom, which sometimes flashed out in resentful cynicsus or contempt; and at length he seemed to resign himself to the miserable position of one who is superated by an insurmountable, barrier from all ordinary intercourse with mankind. The sense of his own deformity never ieth him, and there was always mingled with it soom for the ignorant cruckty which bannedhim from fellowship and sympathy.

There was one other reason which had latterly increased the terror he inspired; he was reputed to be the presiding genius of eril in one of the wildest gauge of outlaws who made rebellion against the Government a pretence for plundering friends and forealike.

It was with peculiar pain that Cormac ob-

It was with peculiar pain that Cormac ob-served the shudder of Ailleen, who more than anyons else should have, known him well enough to pity him and not to fear him.

served the shudder of Ailleen, who more than anyons elss should have known him well enough to pity him and not to fear him. Why should you be frightened at me you?

'No, Cormac, she replied frankly, and sincerely regretting the pain the unintentionally caused, 'nor ever thought of harming me.'

'No, Cormac, she replied frankly, and sincerely regretting the pain the unintentionally caused, 'nor ever thought of harming me.'

'No, 'he muttered, slowly repeating her words; 'nor ever thought of you'
'I am sure of it; for were we not playmates once?'

'Nox!' he said, echoing the lag word in a low hopeless tone.

'And we were very happy then, 'she added softly, seeing that he was troubled.

'Ay rises,' but times have changed, 'he muttered bitterly; 'times have said'y changed! 'Xou have been to Dublin, and learned to be a finellady, I have been here, growing in the midst of rude rough peasants—honest people, though they hate me, I have had no chance; the coarse mud and soil of my birth hang like fetters upon me, and drag me down so far, so very far below you, that now, when you return, he, who was your playmate oxes, dares barely speak with you. With your cultivated mind you see my poor ignorant deformity, and to great gulf which lies between education and squorance separates us!'

'You are gloomy, Cormac. Why, every one believes you to possess a wondrous knowledge!'

'You are gloomy, Cormac. Why, every one believes you to possess a wondrous knowledge!'

'You have goomy, Cormac. Why, every one believes you have not believe to the fine property must soon be very valiable, and will be sold without recepts. Terms medeknown at sale.

'I on on, for I am your friend i'

'With a strange wisful earnestness he gard in the sold my had been anyour friend i'

'I do not, for I am your friend i'

'I'd not, for I am your friend at gleaned in couled be not a couled be.

'One moment, Ailleen'.'

'Not now—another time ''

'For the sake of those old days of which we have been speaking, hear me!'

She hesitated.

'Well, speak!'

He leaned his slow against the havetack beside which they were standing, and passible did his hand over his how, as it trying to recollect some 'ing.

His hand drop, d by his side.

'You love Maurice O'More!' he said abruptly.

'Aban frowned.

rupity.
She started, then frowned.
'You are rude!'
'Am I?'
He saked the question in a [sad., mouruful.

roice. I cannot listen to you."
Yos, I cannot listen to you."
Yorgive me, he said, in the same said hope-lorn voice as before. 'Bear with me but a little! You will never know, Aileen O'Sullivan, how much this poor mis-shapen being would gladly suffer for your sake!"
You torture me!"
Heaven forbid it is to save you pain that I am here! Manrie O'More goes to the there is there days in the does to kilkenny to-day?'

'He does!'
'Haste to him, and stay him.'
'Is there—is there danger?'
'Ay, to his life!' So surely as he goes to the town to-day, so surely will he never return!'

the town to-day, so surely will be never return?

'Meroifal heavens! and you—you have detained me here, knowing that every mement he may be gone to meet his death! Oh, it was crue!—it was crue!—"

With a pale face and a beating heart, Ailleen hurried away out at the gate and down the green lane.

Cormac gazed blankly after her. He preseds his hot hand upon his brow, and leaned against the haystack, meaning.

'The sun has gone down for ever, he murmured, and henceforth there is nothing but darkness. He strong, be strong, my heart, and let me leave this piace. I cannot bear to look upon their happiness.

He paused. Then he looked up if ercely in the direction taken by Ailleen.

'Why—why should I pander to his bliss? But one word, and she night be mine. In time, perhaps, she would learn to—Pahaw! I am mad. On, how I hate that man—hate him because abe loves him!

All signs of grief had now disappeared from his countenance, and with gloony looks he still gazed down the green lane. Then, slowly he wiked towards the larvest fixed.

Our Young Folks for June is to hand from the publishers. Osgood & Co.

from the publishers, Osgood & Co., Boston, The contents are as usual various and interesting, and we know of no better periodical for the young. For better personnel sale at the bookstores.

'HARDYER'S MAGAZINE for June has been forwarded to us by W. E. Tunfe & dealers. The

Co., the popular rews dealers. The contents are: Goneral Average, The New York Custom House; Along the Florida Reef; Ton Hint of Dawn . Watkin's Glen; Anne Furness; A Boliemian

Household; The American Baron; The Horrors of San Domingo; Anteres; The Man in the Iron Mask; Under the Maple; That place under Government : Demolition of the Throne of Churles X; The Confessional : Enchantment : Short trice to Europe, &c, &c. & For sale at the bookstores.

The New York Sun has borrowed from Canada the beautiful original expression, "axes to grind," which was first given to the world by the distinguished Attorney-General of Onlario.

CATALOGUE

AUCTION SALE

John L. Lewis

Thursday, June 1st, 1871

Residence Stock Household Effects

Anglo-American Hotel, Mount Forest 100 acres of Land in Normanh SALE AT 10 O'CLOCK, SHARP

THOMAS H. TAYLOR, AUCTIONEER

A S.Mr. Lawis is leaving Guelph, the whole and overything in this Catalogue will be sold eviction treserve. Residence near the Great Western Rallway Station, comprising 4 acres of and planted with all sorts of fruit and ornamentatives; garden underdrained, and in a high state of cultivation; the house, stables, and there buildings are in excellent order. For a gentleman's home this is one of the most desirable places in town. A six feet side walk is in course of construction to the property, and will be place in town. A six feet side walk is in course of construction to the property, and will remark the property of the property, and will be placed in the property, and will remark the property of the property, and will remark the property of the property, and will remark the property of the property, and will be proved to the property of the proved to the property of the proved to the property of the proved to the provent to the proved to the proved

DINING ROOM.

OFFICE FURNITURE.

DRAWING ROOM.

-102 yards of Brussel Carpet -5 Striped Terry Draperios -5 Gilt cornices -5 Sets muslin curtains 14 Large engravings and paintings -7 Octave Piano Forte -2 Carved Top Sofas Green and Gold -6 Terry do -4 Round Seat Lady's do n-30 yards of Carpet

Marble top washstand

Marble top dressing bureau

Arched Bedstead, Wainut

Mattresses, Redding, etc., in one lotfrom Redstead and paintings

Easy whair

chair

BEDROOM 2

- 15 yaris of Carpet

- Walnut Bedsess

- Badding in one lot

do Washate

the Washate

Chair

Washate

Chair

Washate

Chair

Chairs BEDROOM S
45 yards of Carpet
-Walnut Wardrobe
Bedding
Iron Beddeau
Bedding
Jron Sederau

REDPOOM 4

BEDROOMS

KITCHEN I KITCHEN A

CELLAR.

himos. Plar the heat 1 of the windings of sole, without reserve immediately the side of the Hundrich of feets with feet with the subscriber can could be must the sole of the Hundrich of the subscriber of the could be subscribed by the sole of the

FIRST ARRIVAL

OF NEW

BRADFORD HOUSE

New Sewed Collars and Cuffs New Lace Collars and Cuffs New Muslin Chemisettes

Also a large assortment of

Real Thread, and Honiton Laces

JUST RECEIVED.

PHILIP BISH.

THE GOLDEN LION

NEW ADVERTISEMENT

No Deception, Bantering, or Second Price!

Great Success—Business Ahead of all Anticipations! THE PROPERTY THANK THEIR PATRONS, AND PERL PROUD OF THE R G

AHEAD OF ALL COMPETITION

Fancy Dress and Silk Department

PRINTS, PARASOLS, SKIRTS, GLOVES, HOSIERY, Collars and Crafs, and every article that can be procured in a first-class Dry Goods Store.

Cases up on Cases of New Goods being opened out daily

Chance & Williamson,

C. & A. SHARPE.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL Seed and Grain Merchants $120 Lots 25 26 27 28 29 and 30 on Strange-street GUELPH, ONTARIO.

THEST-CLASS SEEDS OF ALL KINDS. CLOVERS. TIMOTHY

TURNIP, CARROT, MANGEL IN VARIETIES, FOR FIELD CULTURE.

GARDEN AND FLOWER SEEDS

BREEZEE'S CHOICE POTATOES GENUINE ARTIFICIAL MANURES

Superphosphate of Lime and Bone Dust.

Dealers supplied on favourable terms. Send for Catalogues. C. & A. SHARPE.

JACKSON & HALLETT

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

Grocers & Liquor Dealers

WYNDHAM STREET, GUELPH.

150 BARRELS States. Canadian, and English Estude Segara 200 bags Pure Lanquayra and Javo Coffses & Car lots Matches, Brooms and Palls.

ALWAYS IN STOCK

Barrels Pure Windsor Eve Whiskeys Borres Caledonian Mai Whisa Barrels Superior Windsor Whiskeys 100 CASES Brandy, Rura, Gins and Wines 200 PACKAGES pu Brandies, Rumy, Gins and Wines.

JACKSON & HALLETT,

Grecers, Wyndham-et, Guetph.

HAVING made arrangements for a trip to the Old Country (leaving in a few days,) DAVIDSON & CHADWICK

1st day of June

After that date all accounts will be put in suit FOR SALE on the River Speed, fronting on the Edinburg-Road, well adapted for a null or factor. The factor of the Grand Trunk and Great Western Railways from upon the minestreet. All ways from upon the minestreet. 23, 24, 40 and 41.

Mr F J CHADWICK intends leaving Canada upon Mr Davidson's return, and still wishes to

ALL HIS REAL ESTATE

HIS RESIDENCE

or three years. 27 Insures against loss by stree rooms, man's room, and six bedinouss, woodhouse, cellar and cistern. Three are barns, woodhouse, cellar and cistern. Three are barns, ample stabling for horses and cattle, sheet, ice house, root house, and granary lined throughout with rine. Also, a good orchard on the property.

This is to certify that the Agriculturel functionally with rine. Also, a good orchard on the property.

The three recommendations are represented by the Act of United Street Boads, as required by the Act of Canada, 31 Vic., cap. 45, see ion 22, as hereby it leads to the City of Ottawa the 2nd day of June, 1871.

The street Boads are represented by the Act of Canada, 31 Vic., cap. 45, see ion 22, as hereby it leads to the City of Ottawa the 2nd day of June, 1871.

JOHN WALKER,
District Agent, Guelph,

BALSARROCH -- Two story story house on the York Koad, with 19 or 27 acres of land—at present occupied by 5. C. Chadwick Eq.

Lot 16. Canada Co's. Survey, with double frontage on Market Place and Macdonnedistreet, or which is creeted.

1st. THAR QIEEN'S HOTEL, being a three story stone building, having a frontage of 70 feet on the Market Place, and running back with two wings of 80 and 70 feet deep, with ceilar undermeath the whole building. The hotel contains a magnificent BILLIARD HALL, bar room, duing room, of drawing rooms and parlors, sample room, 26 bed rooms, kitchen, &c. ec. 2nd : A STONE STABLE, 60 x 50, onnection with the hotel. 3rd : A frame store, known as DORAN

BUILDING LOTS

CO- NO MONEY REQUIRED DOWN

each

These lots will be sold, and no payment required for five years—a deed given and mortgage taken—the purchaser to pay interest half-yearly at 8 per cent, and to fence and put up a building at once.

ABERFOYLE

AMARANTH Lot 18 in the 3rd con., 200 acres.

Park Let No 4, south of St. George street and cast of Bridge street, containing 5; acres. Lot Ne 8, on corner of Wellington and Wool-wich streets.

Part of the south east quarter of lot No. 31, in ind. cencession, marked "Stephens" on dry Lestic's map of the County of Wellington—containing 28 acres.

Lot and buildings known as David Callaway's store on the west side of Main street.

ICT HERE.

10. 2, in the 7th con., 200 acres, max 1 of to lordon's steam saw mill. There was considerable fall in the stream which crosses this let, theh might be used to advantage.

Lot 4, in the 8th con., 200 acres, a very excellent for and well timbered.

Lot 1, in 10th eye, 200 acres, con of the best with the transfer.

East half or Lot 5, in the 18th concession, 100 cress a valuable lot.

MORRISTON Let on North side of Bodenach &

FURTHER PARTICULARS on application Davidson & Chadwick TOWN HALL BUILDINGS GUELPH.

THE PARTNERSHIP now existing between L Davidson & Chadwick, Notate Agents, being shout to expire by effusion of time, it is a quested that all parties indebted to the far will pay up at once.

DAVIDSON & CHADWICK will attend the business in all its branches at their offic-usual until the term of partnership expla when further notice will be given. Guelph, May 23 1871.

Wall Paper Mr. Charles Davidson Wall Paper Wall Paper

IN GREAT VARIETY

CHEAP

THORNTON'S

Bookstore and Bindery.

Agricultural Insurance Go'y

Total

In Mr Palmer's old office, Day's Block, foculor,

SPRING IMPORTATIONS No. 8, Wynaham w.

JAMES CORMACK

Marquis of Lorne Tweed Particular attention is raid to the Ordered Rothing Department in having them rando up in the latest and most approved styles. The high Ready-made Clothing Department I need only say that the stock is larger, bette assorted, and cheaper than ever. Also, a larg and beautiful assortment of DOYS SUITS!!MI-PONTED DIRECT.

As Gent's Furnishing Goods in great variety. Call and see them at

JAMES CORMACK'S. Guelph, May 4

RCRAWFORD AVING made every arrangement for the prompt repairing of all descriptions of WATCHES, CLOCKS, JEWELLERY

&c. &c. &c.

Now offers unusual inducements to parties quiring anything in his live, coundent affording entire satisfaction. A Complete Stock of Goods

DENTITIETY

Dentilst work done in gold and silver plate without the extraction of old stamps.

In wonlor and manufacturer of the Patent Shu ten Bol : price Teo. each.

Torms cash. Observe the address—
Torms cash. Observe the address—
R. CRAWFORD

Practical Watch and Clock Maker, &a., Wyndham Street, next door to the Post Office.

Graiph, 25th February, 1571

W M FOSTER, L D S, SURGEON DENTIST

OFFICE. Over E Harvey & Cos Drug Store, erner of Wandham and Marchamellests. 375 ALTPOUS ONTHE Glaughting past administered for the extraction of testia WITHOUT ANN, which is profectly see and railable. References kindly permitted that the collaboration of the control of the Guelph Dec 20, 1310 dw

PRIZE DENTISTRY DR. R. CAMPSELL.

an & Philips, Toronte, Prs. Billet and doyers Denists, Toronte, Prs. Billet and doyers Denists, Toronte, Te d extracte without rain Guelor, 18th and 19th BILLIARDS

O'CONNOR'S NEW BILLIARD HALL A7 776

QUEEN'S ECTEL Opposite he fown Ha GUELPH, ONT.