

Every Bone

Any body ached with the dreadful Rheumatism which followed a severe cold. My sufferings were awful. I could not dress myself or comb my hair. My husband had to carry me up and down stairs. I was scarcely able to nurse my little one. Within two weeks after I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, I felt better. Shortly I was able to walk up and down stairs without help and finally I was cured. My friends thought I was going to be a cripple, but thanks to God for his blessing on Hood's Sarsaparilla, I now enjoy good health. Mrs. JOHN BLACKBURN, Lower Five Islands, Nova Scotia.

WESTERN CANADIAN LEAGUE.
(United Press dispatch.) Guelph, Ont., June 22.—The Western League game between the Alerts of London and the Maple Leafs of Guelph was an easy thing for the latter club. London only hit woods safely three times. Attendance over 1,000. The following is the full score:

PASTIMES VS. STARS.
The Pastimes added another victory to their list on Saturday by defeating the Stars. The game took place on Erie flats, and for the first four innings both sides played rather loose ball, but the Pastimes stepped down in the fifth and after that not a Star player crossed the plate. The

BALMORALS VS. ORIENTS.
The Balmorals and Orients played the fourth game of the championship series on Saturday afternoon at the Star Park and a very one-sided exhibition of ball it was.
Turner of the Balmorals pitched a fine game and got good support. Graham of the Orientals did good in the box, but was accused of loose support. Heavy batting was done by Barron and Grey, both scoring home runs in the fourth. A feature was the all-round playing of the Balmorals who played good ball from start to finish. The score:

BYRON VS. F. C. B. C. NINE.
The F. C. B. C. team went to Springfield on Saturday to play with the Byron nine, and were defeated by a score of 14 to 13.
The game was humorous and exciting, but the college boys took their defeat good-naturedly and gracefully gave the Byron lads three cheers before leaving. A bevy of village beauties cheered their heroes on to victory, while a small army of school boys

GALT DEFEATS HAMILTON.
Hamilton, June 22.—About 500 people witnessed the Canadian championship baseball match between the Galt and Hamilton teams this afternoon. The game was closely contested until the sixth inning, when Galt bounced their hits and assisted by the errors of the home team succeeded in scoring four runs. Moore, for Hamilton, pitched a good game, but received very indifferent support from the field. Lenas, at third base, played a ragged game for Hamilton, and by his poor throwing to first was responsible for two runs scored by Galt. The Hamiltons were unable to hit Lyons safely and their few hits were scattered. Score:

TORONTO VS. WILKESBARRE.
Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 22.—Wilkesbarre and Toronto played two games today. In the first game Campbell was effective for five innings. He weakened in the eighth and the visitors scored four runs and tied the score. A timely hit in the ninth inning gave the Torontos the winning run. Crane was hit freely in the first part of the game, but after the fifth inning steadied down and did good work. Attendance 1,500.

The second game was not as interesting as the first. Shaw, who occupied the box for the visitors, was very wild with the exception of the last inning. Meekin pitched a strong game for the home team. Had he received any kind of support in the field Toronto would have been unable to score more than half a dozen runs. In the last inning, owing to Meekin's letup, together with poor fielding, the Canadians were able to get six men across the home plate. Attendance 1,600.

NO SUNDAY BALL FOR TOLEDO.
Toledo, O., June 22.—The Circuit Court yesterday unanimously sustained Judge Pratt, of the Common Pleas, and refused to dissolve the injunction which had been granted against Sunday baseball. This is the end of Sunday baseball in Toledo for this season.
A friendly, though hotly-contested, game of ball was played on Ward's grounds on Saturday afternoon between the Echo boys and D. S. Perrin & Co.'s nine, resulting in favor of the latter by the following score: Echo..... 4 0 0 5 2 0 10—12 D. S. Perrin's..... 8 0 1 5 0 0 0—14 Butleries—Echo, McKay and Humphrey; D. S. Perrin's, Summers and Fisher. Umpire—Griffith.
As the Perrin team stand with two victories to their credit and no defeats this season, they would like to try consistently with any shop team in the city for a proof of superiority on the diamond. Address all challenges to T.
Keller, secretary-treasurer.
A close and interesting game of baseball took place on the asylum grounds on Saturday between the asylum club and the Active baseball club, of London.
The latter, though composed of young players, put up a splendid game, and through good pitching and excellent fielding won a well-deserved victory from their older opponents by 9 to 8. Mr. George Thurling's umpir-

ZIM BROKE A WORLD'S RECORD.
Pittsburg, Pa., June 23.—Arthur Zim-

C. Park yesterday by covering a mile in two minutes on a quarter-mile track. The quarter was made in 28 2/5 seconds, the half in 57 and the three-quarter pole was passed in 1:28 2/5. On the last quarter Zimmerman and the tandem men worked like beavers. Coming into the stretch Zimmerman struck one of his wonderful spurts and passed to the right and ahead of the tandem.

Got an Ovation.

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman in the House of Commons.

Sir Wm. Harcourt Announces the Government's Resignation

And Explains the Reasons—The Boring Sea Bill to Pass.

London, June 24.—The House of Commons was crowded with members and visitors at the opening of today's sitting. Upon the appearance of H.
Campbell-Bannerman, Secretary of State for War, the Liberals gave him an ovation, rising to their feet and cheering, waving their hats, etc. The Irish members remained silent.
The peers' gallery was filled with members of the Upper House. Sir Wm.
Harcourt made a brief statement, saying that as the adverse vote on Friday was in effect only a vote of want of confidence in the Secretary of State for War, with whom the Government had associated themselves, they had therefore placed their resignations in the hands of the Queen, who had accepted them.

Mr. Balfour expressed regret that the Government had not dissolved Parliament instead of resigning.
The Opposition, led by Mr. Campbell-Bannerman, said he would take it upon himself to say that no older, more respected, or popular Minister—cheers from both sides—had ever filled the office. The course of the Opposition, he declared, was to enable the War Minister from proceeding with the army estimates, and had made it impossible for the Government to obtain votes of supply absolutely necessary to the service of the country. The Government, he said, would hold office only until their successors had been appointed, and he therefore moved that the House adjourn, but it was decided by a vote of 116 to 101 that the Boring Sea Bill be passed in order that it might receive the royal assent.

Warton, Ont., June 24.—Mrs. Huff, the woman who took poison on Saturday morning, is likely to recover. Warton has been considered a law-abiding town, but there appears to be a limit to its residents' forbearance. About midnight on Saturday 30 masked men armed with horsewhips, went to Huff's house, and dragging Huff out in the road, administered a genuine horse-whipping, and then ordered him to leave town by midnight Sunday, under threat of the whipping being repeated.
Huff is a worthless character.

WONDERFUL BRIDAL VEIL.
London, June 24.—The marriage of the Duke of Aosta, nephew of the King of Italy, and the Princess Helene of Orleans, is to take place tomorrow.
Four hotels, in addition to the Bristol Hotel, which is occupied by the Countess of Paris and friends, have been engaged for the guests. The wedding breakfast will be given at Orleans House, Twickenham, but there will be several dinners at the Bristol Hotel.
Twickenham is looking lovely, and the road from Orleans House to the chapel, about half a mile distant, where the ceremony is to take place, will be lined by many thousands of visitors. Princess Helene's bridal veil is a splendid specimen of Chantilly lace, about fourteen feet long. It has a broad border enriched with a floral pattern which diminishes in elaboration as it reaches the head. Two branches spring from the train, forming in the middle a sort of medallion, inclosing the arms of a bridgework surmounted by the cross of Favoy, and the arms of France with the fleurs de lis. The crown of the Princess of Savoy stands above the two escutcheons.

SEVERE DROUGHT IN ENGLAND.
London, June 24.—The drought is serious to the provincial towns, as well as to farmers. Birmingham, Coventry and many other places have placed severe restrictions on the use of water.
The flushing of sewers at night has been stopped. At Stratford-on-Avon the river is quite dry below the mill-race and the people are working along its bed. There is much distress among the live stock in Sussex.

A LADY IN BLACK BLOOMERS.
London, June 24.—Lady Colin Cam-pell, who is in a position to know, says in her newspaper that Lady Randolph Churchill is to be seen in Paris in the smartest cycling costume of mourning.
She wears a black alpaca suit, edged with black leather, knickerbockers concealed by a short skirt, and a black straw hat.

DRESSES AT ASCOT.
London, June 24.—Tuesday and Thursday, the two principal days at the Ascot races, the weather was bright and pleasant. White predominated in the fashionable throng, while hats of enormous size, covered with long-stemmed, shaking flowers, made the royal inclosures resplendent. In the garden, all the people were in black box ties. The smartest men with reputations as dressers to uphold wore black frock coats with silk hats and small bow ties. The ladies of the Ascot fashion, by the way, in a white stovetop hat, and he had evidently persuaded Earl Cadogan, who was included in the Prince of Wales's party, to follow his example.
There is much speculation as to whether the Prince of Wales' lead will have any effect on the fashions; but it is not likely, as in spite of all that has been said to the contrary, the Prince of Wales does not lead the fashions.

AN ECCENTRIC DUKE.
London, June 24.—The forthcoming marriage of the Duke of Argyll to Miss McNeill, one of the ladies of the bedchamber to the Queen, is severely commented on here, as it was only the other day that his state of health was so bad that he had a fainting fit while delivering his speech. He was 72 on the 30th of April, and bears the unique result of being the youngest-looking duke in the peerage of the United Kingdom and the worst tailored man in England. He once saw some shepherd plaid cloth in a shop window, took a fancy to it and went into the place and ordered a pair of trousers from it. He then absently said: "You can send the rest of the piece, as I might want another pair or two some day." The piece was 4 1/2 yards long, and as a pair of trousers requires only 2 1/2 yards, the Duke of Argyll, who is typically Scotch and careful, has worn nothing but shepherd's check trousers since 1877, the year of the unfortunate and heedless purchase. His whilom daughter-in-law, Lady Colin Campbell, is responsible for the premature announcement of his wedding. She did it to annoy the old gentleman, who took so pronounced a part against her on her action for divorce.

PUNISHMENT FITS THE CRIME.
It is a curious fact that all three co-respondents in the celebrated Colin Campbell case were unfortunate afterwards.

The Duke of Marlborough took refuge in chemistry and alchemy; Captain Shaw, the head of the London fire brigade, was compelled by the action of the newly created county council to retire, and Major-General Butler, who bolted to France to avoid the witness box, has been ostracised ever since, has never been received at a levee, has been passed over by the Horse Guards, and is said to live upon most wretched terms with his wife, Miss Elizabeth Thompson, the famous military painter, whose "Roll Call" is probably the best-known picture in the world.
