Inaugural Meeting of the Council-The Reeve's Address-Caution

Urged.

The inaugural meeting of the London West Council for the present year was held last night in the old school room where the memorable battles of and Councilors Wm. C. Hamilton, W. proceedings were opened with prayer by Rev. B. Clement. A vote of last meeting there was a membership gentleman, who replied suitably. The reeve said he was well pleased with the result of the elections. He would be supported by able men. But during the year just inaugurated it would need careful sailing. There were heavy expenditures to be met-expenditures over which the council had no control. According to Councilor Duff's statement, the taxes would be 25 mills, for interest on debentures, sinking fund, electric light, and school board, over all of which the council had no control, without leaving one would not coincide on all things, but the majority should always rule.

The members of the Board of Health for the past year, Messrs. George Bartlett, John Chapman and Alex. Hamilton, were reappointed. Mrs. Perkins, the lady who sustained injuries through a fall caused by a defective sidewalk, refused to accept

The matter was referred to the reeve deputy reeve and Councilor Duff with A very strange state of affairs was then made known by the reeve. Mr. Samuel Glass, owner of certain properties which were sold on Feb. 12, 1896, for unpaid taxes for 1890, claimed they were wrongfully sold. Mr. Glass had shown Reeve Saumby receipts for the taxes, signed by Collector Lord. "They were bona fide receipts," said he; "I know Lord's signature." The properties were No. 17, east Woodward avenue, $14 28; No. 5 and 6, west Wharncliffe, $5 10; No. 33, 34 and 35, south Charles, $5 32; No. 53, 54 and 55, north Charles, $6 64, making the total maxes $31 34. The taxes were returned by Lord as Mail and Empire, as follows: unpaid. Evidently he had pocketed "Sir,—I read in an editorial publishment." the money and destroyed the stubs to cover up his thefts.

Councilor Hamilton asked when Lord had been appointed collector, and was informed that he was appointed in 1890. He may have given a receipt without collecting the monhonest so soon after entering the pub-

After some discussion, it was agreed that the village would not only have to stand the loss of the amount er bezzled by Lord, but also the costs of the sale and redemption. Councilor Hamilton suggested that they might again bring criminal action against Windsor, Ont., but the kind-hearted councilors decided that it would do no good to punish him again, and concluded to take their medicine with as few wry faces as possible and make the best of a bad job. The matter was left with the reeve. It is more than probable that many other cases of a similar nature, and involving greater or less sums, will yet come to
