should be most welcome.

—Toe much license is given to tramp touters, who having an alleged gtievance against some sect to which they formerly belonged, seek to excite the bigotry of other denominations with a view to feathering their own nests and making an easy living. The Synod of Hamilton and London at its session here last year rightly condemned such methods. The local ciergy, if it has the proper spirit, is quite component to lead the way to the light without assistance from questionable outside sources.—[Stratford liencon.

Victoria Park band concerts have not decreased in popularity since last summer, to judge by the crowds that were present at the opening concert of the season last night. Their attraction has rather increased, if the vast crowd can be taken as a sign. Themusic given by the popular Seventh is almost invariably excellent in quality, and last night's was no exception to the rule. Some of last year's favorite airs were played, and they have evidently lost none of their charm by keeping. But the crowd that was present! It will not take many such tramps to give a "bald headed" and seared appearance to the grass. There was the usual lack of seats, and the few that were there were placed as usual, in a circle search appearance to the usual lack of seats, and the few that were there were placed as usual, in a circle around the band stand. For a couple of years now this scarcity of seats has prevailed, but nothing has yet been done to remedy the defect. The crowd was of the usual nature. Almost every Annie had her Joe, and the stout woman who does not see the wire boulevard until she falls over it still attends. The band waited more than an hour for the electric lights to shine and the people stayed right with them.

The Rambler from Clare," commenced a half week's engagement at H. R. Jacob's Grand Opera House last night, opening to a fine house. The production is a most enjoyable and pleasing one. The piece abounds in merriment and pathos, into mingled with songs and dances by Mr. McCarthy, Miss Pollie Holmes and Mr. Charles Saunders, and affords plenty of amusement for the audience. Mr. McCarthy as Tony Sullivan is good, and Miss Pollie "Holmes makes a capital Irish colleen. Mr. Charles Saunders, as Paddy McFadden, creates plenty of amusement. Mr. James Flanagan is good as Squire Malone. Miss Iva Donnette plays the part of Bessie Courtney, the wronged wife, as only she can play it. The rest of the cast is all excellent. The play was greeted with continued laughter and applause, and made a decided hit.
