and Dog Train, With Justice as Object.

Ottawa. Feb. 13.-A journey of 1.750 miles, partly by canoe and partly by dog train, to investigate a supposed achievement. Members of the Mounted Police recently made this trip, and regard it as nothing unusual. The party. which only returned last month, consisted of Inspector Genereux and Constable Walker, of the Mounted Police The inspector and his companions left Prince Albert on Aug. 27, 1904, and reached home again on Jan. 1, 1905. so that they were absent altogether 184 days. The route pursued was:

Prince Albert to Cumberland ... 290 Cumberland to Pelican Narrows. 160 Pelican Narrows to the south end of Reindeer Lake 175 Across the lake 250

Duplicating the above it gives a total mileage covered, as already told, of 1,750 miles. The object of the long and arduous journey was to investigate the alleged murder of Roderick | Q Hatchet Lake, which is over 500 miles from the south end of Reindeer Lake. Athabasca, where the investigation took place. Thomas was in the employ of a trader named Macauley, and on the morning of Sept. 25, 1903, went to look after some nets. He was never seen again alive. Six weeks later his employer found Thomas' dead body under the ice. Op April 9, 1904, the remains were brought to the Hudson Bay post at Lac du Brochet and held there for investigation. Inspector Genereux was given commission as justice of the peace and corquiry.

With Constable Walker and Dr. Bour geault, he left Prince Albert on Aug. 27, 1904, and proceeded down the Saskatchewan to Cumberland. three men went north by canoe, and had Kingston, and not arriving here until to pass 26 portages. Great difficulty was ast evening at 5:05—nine hours and experienced in getting boatmen, all the last evening at 5:05—nine hours and experienced in getting boatmen, an discrety minutes late. All the passengers Indians being away at their hunting-were thoroughly tired of their journey grounds, and much delay was caused. It was not until Sept. 26 that the investigating party arrived at Lac du Brochet ing party arrived at Lac du Brochet. There a jury was empaneled on Sept. 30, consisting of two white men and four half-breeds. The inquest had to be adjourned, owing to the absence of the necessary witnesses, and could not be re-sumed until Dec. 9. The witnesses were nearly all half-breeds or Indians, and interpreters were necessary. Rev. Father Turquetil was Chippewayan interpreter, and Mr. A. M. McDermott, of the Hud son's Bay Company, Cree interpreter.
Dr. Bourgeault conducted a post-mor tem examination, but there w to support the theory of foul play, and a verdict of accidental drowning was returned. The journey in had occupied 3: days. The return trip, by dog train, was made in 25 days. The weather was intensely cold, and the journey very dis-

Ducal Party Realized That Something Must Be Done to Calm the People.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 11.-The peace movement is progressing. Those in authority are becoming more agreeable to the idea of ending the war with each passing day. The ducal party recognizes that something must be done to calm the Russian people and they feel, not unwarrantably, that an ending of the war would accom-
