Minister of Railways Will Addre s West Middlesex Electors at Strathroy and Glencoe.

MISREPRESENTATION

People Are Taking No Stock in the Campaign About the Farmers -Liberals Working Hard.

The West Middlesex campaign goes on merrily. Both candidates are making a strong canvass of the riding, and if the weather is fine a large vote will be polled. Great interest is being taken in the meetings of Hon. Geo. P. Graham, minister of railways, at Strathroy on Saturday evening, and in Glencoe on Monaay evening. Both will likely be largely attended is Mr. Graham is popular in that rid

Every day's canvass adds to the popularity of Mr. Ross, and as the party is united and enthusiatic, a large Liberal vote will be polled. The speech of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie-King created a splendid impression in the riding, and its influence is being felt far and wide. The attempt to make it appear that CRONYN & BETTS & COLERIDGE, Mr. King made an attack upon far-barristers, etc.. Huron and Erie buildmers as a class is falling flat, as no erson who listened to him in Mount Brydges on nomination day interpreted his remarks in that manner, save party organ in London and Mr. Blain. Mr. Mackenzie-King's was manly, straightforward speech, ar will be productive of good results. King also made a good speech in Strathroy on Wednesday evening. While confident of the result doubt Duncan C. Ross will be returned by a handsome vote

Recommendation to Board of Governors Was Made By Library Board.

At the meeting of the public library beard held in the library building last While confident of the result the evening, a motion was presented by liberals are working hard, as they Dr. Jenrey recommending that the nearly lost the riding last November board of governors of the Western through over-confidence. As large a University establish a library school in majority as possible will be rolled up connection with the university, and assuring them of the assistance of the hbrary board in such an undertaking. The motion was seconded by Mr. Thomas Gillean, and met with instant approval, and was finally passed unanimously. In discussing the matter it was pointed out that there was a need for just such an institution in the province, and it was the general opinion that London would show its wisdom in being the first to inaugurate such movement. It was considered likely that such an institution would in all likeliheed receive a substantial grant from the Government, and the possibility of it being the recipient of one of the large endowments which moneyed men of the States were giving to ch institutions was also suggested. The librarian, Mr. Carson, he had spoken to Justice R. M. Meredith, the chairman of the board of governors of the university, and had expressed himself as greatly in favor of the project. As yet, however, the matter has not bee nbrought deand the action of the library board last night will have that effect.
