OILS HOLD WELL DESPITE CUTS

Industrials Show Good Degree of Activity on Wall Street.

Associated Press Despatch.

New York, Wall Street, 1:30 p.m., Aug. 21. — The market had to contend with heavy selling of the St. Paul shares in the afternoon, the preferred losing 2 points. Nash Motors climbed 1½ points to 126½, a new high and American Waterworks and Electric, and the 6 per cent. preferred and the American foreign power issue, improved ½ to 3¾. Substantial advances were also registered in Nickel Plate, Davison Chemical, International Harvester, Guyamel Fruit, Corn Products and Stromberg Carbureter.

Associated Press Despatch.

New York, Aug. 21—Wall Street, noon.—Uneven price movements characterized the morning market, which was featured by bullish demonstrations in a few industrials. United States Cast Iron Pipe was in brisk demand, moving up 3 points to a record top of 106½. Dupont climbed 2½ points on buying influenced by the recent strength of General Motors, in which Dupont owns a large interest. Baldwin advanced 1⅝ and Southern Railway crossed 70 for the first time. Oils held fairly steady in the face of another cut in Pennsylvania crude prices. Swift reactions in the coppers and other recent strong spots were the logical sequence of the recent rapid upswing of these issues. General Electric broke 4½ points and R. H. Macy 3. Call money opened at 2 per cent.

INVITES GLADIOLUS SOCIETY FOR 1925

American Organization May Hold Convention in St. Thomas.

Special to The Advertiser.

St. Thomas, Aug. 20.—At the same time as E. H. Caughell asks the executive of the Canadian Gladiolus Society to hold the 1925 annual exhibition in St. Thomas, Mayor Sloggett will invite the members of the American Gladiolus Society to hold their 1925 convention in this city. The 1924 convention is being held in New York City, and Mayor Sloggett left on Wednesday evening with an official invitation from the council, asking them to hold their 1925 convention in this city. Dr. F. E. Bennet, president of the local Horticultural Society, is also president of the American Gladiolus Society, and it is thought that with the combined efforts of these two citizens, the convention might be brought to St. Thomas. It may be possible to have the two shows, the American and the Canadian exhibits, held here at the same time next summer.

Local Market

The scarcity of hay took on a more serious aspect this morning when only two loads were brought to the local market. One load was sold before it was hauled in, for $11 a ton. The other load was held for a price higher than $12, offers at this figure being refused. Only six loads have been offered in the last three days.

Ten dollars a ton was asked for a load of new straw, but the demand was not forthcoming.

Oats are scarce at $1.70 a cwt., while wheat is steady at $1.20.

One load of new rye sold yesterday afternoon at $1.65 a cwt.

Little change was registered in the prices of vegetables today. Potatoes are in good demand at from 75c to 90c a bushel and the supply seems adequate.

Good quality tomatoes are new being sold at 50c to 75c for the 11-quart basket.

Apples still abound and are rather slow at 75c to $1 a bushel.

Raspberries are lingering, but the quality in most cases has fallen below average. The prevailing wholesale price is from 22c to 25c a box, while the retail figure hovers between 25c and 30c.

Live hogs are firm at $10.50 a cwt.

Granulated	$8.59
No. 1 yellow	8.19
No. 2 yellow	8.09
No. 3 yellow	7.99

Associated Press Despatch.

New York, Aug. 20.—A better inquiry developed in the raw sugar market today, at unchanged price, or $5.53 for Cuban, duty paid. Sales included about 60,000 bags Cuban to local and outport refiners for August and September shipment.

Reflecting the increased demand in raws and the firmness abroad, raw sugar futures advanced 4 to 6 points on covering and buying by houses with Cuban connections. Realizing checked the upward movement, with final prices 1 to 5 points net higher, September $3.69, December $3.76, March $3.35, May $3.41.

Although new business in refined sugar was light, there were good withdrawals on old orders. Prices were unchanged, at $6.75 to $6.90 for fine granulated.

Refined futures were nominal.

Grain Markets

WINNIPEG

Associated Press Despatch.

Winnipeg, Aug. 20—The wheat market was extremely dull and featureless today with the trade volume the lightest for some days, the operations being more or less of a scalping nature with a little buying on the dips and further liquidation by "Longs" on the bulges. Liverpool cables were 1-8 to 5-8 lower.

Shortly after the opening considerable selling pressure came out and the October future was forced down to 134 3-8, a new low level on th this movement. Reports of rain, together a lessening of pressure, sent prices up again and the market held steady the close being 3-4 lower for October, and December, and ¼ down for May.

The local trade were not active on either side of the market today, being inclined to mark time awaiting developments with sentiment somewhat divided.

The future coarse grains were quite firm on a small trade with the undertone to oats and barley strong. At the close prices were fractionally higher. Flax lost about 2c on a light and featureless market.

Beyond a light inquiry from the seaboard, near the close the cash wheat market was practically at a standstill, with prices unchanged to 2c lower. The cash coarse grains and flax continue to be a carlot proposition.

CHEESE

Associated Press Despatch.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Influenced by an unexpected advance at Liverpool, the wheat market here today took a decided upward swing during the early dealings. Opening prices, which ranged from ½c to 1c higher, were followed by material further gains.

Corn prices showed a downward tendency as a result of a heat wave over parts of the corn belt. After opening ¼c to 1⅜c lower, the market underwent a moderate further setback, and then rallied, but later sagged again.

Oats were easy, owing to corn weakness. Starting unchanged to ⅜c off, the market hardened a little and then steadied at a trifle below yesterday's finish.

Futures opened:

Wheat—Sept., $1.28; Dec., $1.33⅛.

Corn—Sept., $1.19½; Dec., $1.15.
