The anxisty of bolders of money to place it shows that there is a large amount in the local market that cannot find investment. In New York there are some conditions which lead to the belief that there will shortly be a better feeling there. In the event of there being renewed activity there the surplus here will be steadily eleared off. Local rates continue about the same. Commercial paper is quoted at from 5 to 7 per cent: call loans at 34 and 4 per cent. Some large loans have been negotiated this week at 5 per cent.

The Bank of England rate remains at 23 per cent.

Call money in New York was quoted to-day at la per cent. ROBERT COCHRAN,

Sarah Bernhardt's Origin.
From The Patt Matt Gasette.
A "curious impertinent" has been raking out the acte de naissance of Mme. Sarah Bernhardt. the acte de naissance of Mme. Sarah Bernhardt. The great actress was born, it appears, at Havre, on Saturday, April 22, 1843, her mother being Julie Bernard, artiste musicienne, stated in the document to be the daughter of a Berlin oculist and to have been born in that city. Mme. Bernhardt was named not Sarah, but Rosalie, and her twin sister, Lucie. The father is said by The Journal du Havre to have been a Government official, known is le beau X——, who afterwards committed suicide under "dramatio" circumstances. If all this be true the legend of two young Dutch girls running away from their home in Amsterdam and finding themselves penniless one morning in the Tuileries Gardens must be dismissed to the limbo of biographical tantastics. Mme. Bernhardt, according to this statement, is five or six years older than Mrs. Kendal, and has probably by some years the advantage (or disadvantage) of Miss Ellen Terry.

Divorces and Boarding Houses. From The Chicago News. Gen. I. N. Stiles thinks that boarding uses are conducive to immorality. He said bouses are conducive to immoranty. He said so in a speech to a jury yesterday and repeated the assertion this morning. It was the divorce case of Williams vs. Williams that occupied the General's attention yesterday. The facts in the case were simple enough—a boarding-house match, a boarding-house honeymoon, a quiet divorce. In the course of his remarks to the Court Gen. Stiles took occasion to cauterize the average boarding-house with his usual sarcasm.

What have you got against boarding-houses? the General was asked this morning.

"They are simply hotbeds of immorality. Boarding-houses are rife with scandal and gossip. A womân who lives in one of them has nothing to occupy her time, and Satan always finds mischief for idle hands to do. Young married people should avoid boarding-houses as they would a pestilence. They should secure homes, even if they consist of a single room. Then the young wife will have something to occupy her mind, and will not be subjected to evit-influences. I haven't lived in a boarding-house myself since I was married, but I know what they are; they are conducive to immorality." so in a speech to a jury yesterday and re-

Photographing a Thunderbolt. From The New Orleans Times-Democra The Times-Democrat has received from Mr Rabira, photographer, 245 Ropal-street, in this city, a proof of a negative, by the instantaneous process, of a flash of lightning taken at night recently off Cat Island, Mussissippi Sound. The artist has succeeded perfectly in catching the peculiar zigzag lines of the fleeting flash, which can be likened to nothing so much as the white lines of a section of a river, with numerous tributaries, as depicted upon a man the beakground of which is black. The with numerous tributaries, as depicted upon a map, the background of which is black. The possibilities of the instantaneous process seem Pagged Out.—None but those who have become fagged out, know what a depressed feeling it is. All strength is gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there is nothing to live for. There, however, is a cure—one box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and dandellon are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's Pills.
