The Government Emphasizes the Former Statement that No Responsibility Whatever Has Been Assumed—Fairenza Complains that Kingston Twice is Sold to the Law—A New Senator Appointed—Bill to Economize by Making Post-Office Salaries Taxable.

Ottawa, June 21.—There is little new to report in connection with the school question. Matters are simmering until the receipt of the official reply of Manitoba. The majority of members incline to the belief that a Remedial Law will be introduced this session.

Ex-Premier De Boucherville and ex-Governor Masson, both members of the Senate, stated to-day that they had assured a Remedial Law will be introduced this session.

In view of the interest which is being taken in the school question, it may be well to give a synopsis of the draft measure which has been submitted to the Governor-in-Council by Mr. Ewart, &c., as embodying the wishes of the Roman Catholic minority of Manitoba for the restoring of the status quo.

The powers of the Provincial Department of Education are limited to: (a) Making from time to time such regulations as it may think fit for the general organization of separate schools.

(b) Making regulations for the registering and reporting of daily attendance at all separate schools in the Province, subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council.

(c) To select all the books, maps and globes to be used in the schools under the establishment and operation of departments in such of the schools as it may deem suitable for the preparation of candidates for the annual examination.

(d) To appoint inspectors, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the board.

(e) To make regulations regarding the selection of school sites, the zoning of school grounds and the formation and alteration of all school districts under its care.

WHAT QUEBEC M.P.'S DESIRE.

THEIR SCHOOL POLICE OUTLINED BY MR. JONCAS. Separate Schools for Manitoba Was Prior to 1890, But With Certified Teachers and Under Government Control—Dancer in Demanding Too Much—Sketch of Bishop Gravel's Career.

Montreal, June 21.—Mr. Joncas, M.P., was seen here to-day and talked quite freely regarding the situation at Ottawa. "There is no doubt as has been alleged, and being asked if the Manitoba school question would be brought up this session the member for Gaspé said: 'Yes, after the Remedial Order and Hon. Mr. Greenway's refusal we are bound to give Remedial Legislation, and I believe the Government is anxious to carry it out.'

"It will be carried by a good majority, and Hon. Mr. Laurier will be obliged to vote for the Government measure. No doubt, a few Government supporters will vote against us, but I have a great apprehension for the Ultra-Catholics of Manitoba from the other side."

Continuing the Government's inspection, "Will you kindly explain?" "It is this way. Senator Bernier and others want a Catholic Council of Public Instruction, the same as in Quebec, and in other matters of detail they go too far. This cannot be if the Manitoba school question is ever to be settled. My position is this: Let the Roman Catholics of Manitoba have their separate schools, but let them be under Government control, and let every Catholic, be obliged to undergo an examination and be provided with a diploma or certificate of competency. Why asked the editor of L'Evenement, should a Catholic teacher object to a Government test of ability, education or efficiency any more than a Protestant? Hon. Mr. Greenway's chief point has been the alleged inefficiency of the Catholic schools, and it is the duty of all good Catholics to see that their teachers are equally as well equipped for the work as those of another faith."

Continuing, the member for Gaspé said that he had stoutly maintained that the friends of the Catholic minority in Manitoba must strictly adhere to the constitution, and when the principle had been gained they must not be too rigid in their demands regarding details.

Bishop Gravel's Grand Mistake. "What is your opinion regarding the action of the Canadian clergy?" "They are all talking too much; Mgr. Langevin, the Protestant Synod and Conferences and Mgr. Gravel have all had too much to say in the matter, and this paper adds, with the only exception of the company, that I have said so very plainly in my paper. I had no objection to the article, but I am most responsible for its publication, and I hope this may be true. It is said he showed the documents to the station master at Potrero."

Sketch of the Career of the New Prelimate Ecclesiastic. Montreal, June 21.—Monsieur Elphège Gravel, whose document to the Roman Propaganda has caused no little stir in Canada, was born in St. Antoine, on the River Richelieu, on October 12, 1838. It was in this rich parish that Sir George Cartier first saw the light. It was comparatively late in life that the future bishop was ordained to the priesthood, as his first vocation was to study medicine, and the rev. gentleman was 32 years of age before he reached the sacerdotal dignity.

On July 10, 1886, Rev. Father Gravel was appointed Bishop of Nicolet, after the death of French-Canada, Cardinal Taschereau asked Rome to cut the diocese of Three Rivers in two and constitute the parishes on the south side of the St. Lawrence into a new diocese, to be called Nicolet. Bishop Lefebvre combatted the proposition to dismember his diocese with all the vigor at his command, and for years the two prelates did not "speak as they passed by." One of the documents which emanated from Three Rivers, and was submitted to Rome, accused the Archbishop of Quebec of perjury, and declared His Grace had deceived the Court of Rome. The Cardinal Archbishop, however, triumphed, and the appointment of Monsignor Gravel as bishop of the new diocese of Nicolet was made.

The Bishop had been educated at the College of St. Hyacinthe, and his friends believed that at last a liberal bishop, politically speaking, had been appointed in the province. La Patrie rejoiced over the fact at the time, but his joy was of short duration, as they expected His Lordship of extreme partiality to the Conservative cause during the campaign of 1887.

Mgr. Gravel, although looked upon as a good man, has never been regarded as a great bishop, and a leading French-Canadian journalist and politician remarked to-day that his letter merits in no way the attention that has been given to it.

Martin Justifies His Speech. Winnipeg, Man., June 21.—Mr. Martin, in the Legislature, again rose to a question of privilege, and stated that he had received a telegram from a President of the A.P.A., demanding that he give his authority for his statement regarding the immorality of public schools in the United States, or else apologise for his statement. He proceeded to read from the published reports the extracts which he had said were unfit to be published.

ROSEBERRY MEETS DEFEAT.

THE DUKES OF CAMBRIDGE REIGNS HIS COMMAND. An Army Council to be Appointed and the Functions of the New Commander to be Changed—Majority Government to be Reinstated—Bannerman May Resign.

London, June 21.—The Commons this evening by a vote of 123 to 225 on a division on the motion of Mr. Broderick, Conservative, to reduce the estimates in order to enquire into the matter of supply of small arms and ammunition.

In announcing the coming retirement of the Duke of Cambridge as Commander-in-Chief, Mr. Bannerman said: "As the close of the financial year His Royal Highness, the Duke of Cambridge will relinquish the position of Chief in command of the British forces which he has held so long. He has devoted his whole life to the service and has identified himself with the army. It is hardly possible that any one engaged in the civil administration of the army can make this announcement without feelings of emotion. We can look back with admiration and gratitude upon his long career which has been distinguished by consistent zeal and marked by successful achievement in the field. His resignation has imposed upon the Government a serious task. The Duke of Cambridge cannot be succeeded by any other officer. My object is to suggest and varied powers and abilities."

The Government, he said, would accept and proceed in the premises upon the principle of the Duke of Devonshire's scheme of an Army Commission embracing a plan whereby the Secretary of State for War would be advised by a deliberative council composed of experienced officers. (Cheers or applause.)

Mr. Balfour said the House must feel that the severance of the Duke of Cambridge's connection with the army was an event which must mark a country for the moment, but they must exclude this feeling from their consideration of the question, as the Duke could not be long deferred. It was certain, however, that they would never find any man who would inspire greater affection in the army or who would be animated by any higher sense of his public duty as well as his duty to the Queen and to Parliament.

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman further said that the appointment of Commander-in-Chief was a matter which would be greatly modified. He would be subject to the ordinary rules affecting staff officers, and his office would be tenable for a period of 10 years, which would be capable of extension if desirable. The Commander-in-Chief would be the principal military authority in the selection of State for War, whose council would consist of five general officers.

During the debate on the war estimates, the Hon. William St. John Broderick, Conservative member for the Division of Salisbury, asked the Secretary of State for War, whose council would consist of five general officers.

Mr. Campbell-Bannerman said that the estimates comprehended enough to meet the current needs.

Mr. Broderick was not satisfied with this answer, and moves reduction of the vote for such supply.

A short and sharp discussion of the estimate, after which the division was taken, and the Government was defeated by a vote of 123 to 225.

The defeat of the Government on the question of the estimates was received with a deafening volume of Conservative cheers.
