War Summary

It is reported that 5,700 men, or more than a fourth of the 21,000 men in the division, were put out of action in the three days' fighting. It is stated that 700 officers and men were killed, 2,000 missing and 3,000 wounded.

missing and 3,000 wounded.

The 2,000 missing men are the 13th and 14th battalions of Montreal Highlanders, each a thousand strong, which the Canadian official eye-witness reported left behind near the village of St. Julien.

"The German line," the eye-witness says, "rolled over the deserted villages, but for several hours after the enemy had become master of the village sullen and persistent rifle fire showed they were not yet master of the Canadian rearguard."

As Berlin reported a thousand Canadian prisoners it is feared that a thousand of the rearguard were wiped out before

London, May 4.—A Mytiline dispatch to the Daily Herald savs:—"The bombardment of the Dardanelles continued Saturday. Refugees say that the Queen Elizabeth's guus did tremendous damage to the Turkish, trenches. The town of Dardanelles was totally destroyed. The forts in the narrows were considerably damaged, but the action of the fleet was orts in the narrows were considerably amaged, but the action of the fleet was hampered by mines, the clearing away of which has been made difficult by the mobile Turkish batteries above. The possession of Gaba Tepch' is expected to enable the Allies to place guns which will silence these batteries."

London, May 2—The British admiral-ty stated this evening that two German torpedo boats had been sunk in the North Sea. The British torpedo boat destroyer Recruit also was sunk.

Recruit also was sunk.

London, May 4.—The rumors concerning the operations against the Dardanelles were confirmed to-night when the British war office and admiralty issued reports stating that after beating off Turkish attacks the Allied forces had taken the offensive on the Gallipoli Penjusula and now were advanced. nsula and now were advancing into the

The Turks, on their side, continue to report the defeat of landing parties and damage done to Allied warships, which are keeping up a lively bombardment of the Turkish forts, both in the Dardanelles and at Smyrna. It was reported to-day that the Vali of Smyrna was negotiating with the Allies for the surrender of his territory. No contransion of this

London, Eng., May 4—Reports received from Dunkirk, via Amsterdam, state that the Canadians have again been in action, and that on Friday last they had to surrender their trenches.

"On Friday norming" the message of the confirmation of this report has been received.

"On Friday morning," the message says, "the Germans began an attack aided by a north-easterly gale and the use of gas clouds. Although the Canadians gallantly fought with bayonets the Germans finally took possession of the trenches, but only at the price of very heavy losses. "Six German airmen supported their artillery. Two of them were brought down early in the morning, and Lieut. Weber and a soldier-aviator named Kreuz were made prisoners

London, May 6.—An official statement issued to-night says:—"The general situation remains unchanged. Fighting is in progress on Hill 60, southeast of Ypres, on which the Germans obtained a footing this morning under cover of pois-onous gases, which were excessively used and were tavored by weather con-

A deliberate attempt to burn the A deliberate attempt to burn the Western Hotel, Sarnia, in which 40 guests were slumbering, was made Thursday morning. Someone had taken a candy pail, filled it with kindling saturated with oil, and, after the casings and woodwork in the far end of the hotel had been also saturated, the pail was ignited and thrust inside. So well was the outrage planned that if the flames ignited and thrust inside. So well was the outrage planned that if the flames had once eaten through the door into the hallway there would have been no escape for the guests save by the windows. After a lie has preyailed some men call it the truth.

Matrimonially speaking, a baseball catcher isn't always a catch.

An Example

Just by way of showing what can be done by persistent application and good use of time, we quote the following: "Charles Roman, who for some years has been a diningcar porter running on the fast G. T: R. train from Port Huron to Toron to, has passed medical examinations, and is now a full-fledged doctor. While an employee of the G.T.R. he spent his spare moments well, and at each run's end would take himself away in seclusion and there pore over medical works, whose knowledge he eventually imbibed, with the result that he is Doctor Roman. It was through hard work he achieved success.

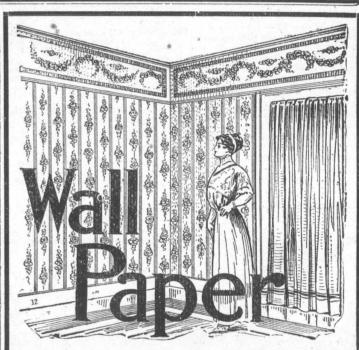

Old Time English Recruiting

Recruiting in the great war which ended in the fall of Napoleon was a vastly different matter from that which prevails to-day. Take the militia act of 1803, for instance. each subdivision of a county a list was made of all men between the ages of 18 and 45, classified into (a) those under 30 and without children, (b) over that age, (c) men with no children under 14, (d) men with only one child under 14 and (e) all others.
