QUITE a few farmers and business men would like to have a personal interview with the erstwhile Maple Grove cheese and butter makers. These men seem to have worked their way into the confidence of quite a few people who now suffer financial loss as a result. The amounts owing are large and small and premeditated dishonesty is manifested in some of the transactions. Probably some of the good money has now gone to help the Huns. No need to say that the swindlers skipped leaving nothing behind but a bad taste in the mouths of their victims.

THE first literary meetings of the spring term were held in the High School Friday p. m. from 3 to 4 o'clock and proved a great success. The program of the girls literary opened by all present singing "The National Anthem." The treadings given by Miss Katie much appreciated, as were also the instrumentals by Miss Bertha King and Miss Kathleen Kingston, and the instrumental duet by Miss Kingston and Mrs. Kingstom I girls then sang the chorus "Good Luck to the Boys of the Allies" and Miss. singing "The National Anthem." The torm I girls then sang the chorus "Good Luck to the Boys of the Allies" and Miss Margaret Cameron, also of form I, ably filled the position of pianist. After the chorus Miss Mitchell gave an interesting and profitable address on the "Aims of a Literary Society" which was followed by an instrumental duet by Misses Fortune and Spackman. We have met here tonight to show our appreciation of the way you have so nobly responded to the call for volunteers to save the soul of our Empire. You have come forward bravely and have set a noble example of self-sacrifice and devotion to duty, to those of us who have to stay behind. Of course, we cannot shoulder our guns and go and fight, but we can help with money and work, and both are needed in abundance, and to doboth are needed in abundance, and to do-all we can is a privilege, as well as our bounden duty. We can also remember you in our prayers, and this we do at our meetings, and in token, (lest we forget) we ask you to accept these wrist-watches, trusting they may be useful to you.
