

THE
CANADIAN CRAFTSMAN,
AND
MASONIC RECORD.

VOL. XXX.

TORONTO, APRIL, 1896.

No. 10.

THE
Canadian Craftsman,
PUBLISHED MONTHLY BY
THE CANADIAN CRAFTSMAN PUB. CO. (LTD.)
AT 78 BAY STREET, TORONTO.

SUBSCRIPTIONS—$1.50 per annum, or $1.00 if paid in advance.

ADVERTISING RATES.—Lodge or Business Cards of five lines, $5.00 per year. Contract rates will be furnished on application.

All Correspondence to be addressed to DANIEL ROSE, Editor and Manager.

IN another column will be found an answer to the letter written by "W" from Charlottetown, P.E.I., published in the February CRAFTSMAN regarding the organization of the Preceptory of Knights Templar in that City, which we trust will be satisfactory to all concerned.

BIRTHDAYS and Anniversaries are periods of interest to the individual as well as to Associations. The coming of age of Zetland Lodge, No. 326, in this City, was an event that called together a large number of the friends of this, one of our foremost lodges, a gathering long to be remembered. The full particulars we print on another page. We present our readers with a photo engraving of one of our formost citizens, Bro. Robert Jaffray, President of the Toronto Globe Printing Company, he being the first candidate initiated into Freemasonry in Zetland Lodge. We also give a short sketch of his life.

The Worshipful Masters, officers and members of Ashlar, St. George and Doric Lodges intend paying a fraternal visit to St. Andrew's Lodge, No. 16, at its next regular meeting, Tuesday, 14th day of April.

St. Paul's Royal Arch Chapter, No. 65, G.R.C., intends celebrating its 21st Anniversary on Wednesday, 9th inst.

A GOOD number of our Lodges, annually remember the suffering little ones in the Victoria Hospital for Sick Children of Toronto, by subscribing various sums to aid in the support of this excellent Charity. This Institution, by the munificence of M.W. Bro. J. Ross Robertson, has its doors open to the children and orphans of Freemason's perpetually. We would suggest that our Grand Lodge sustain annually a few beds out of its benevolent funds.

THE Prince of Wales has been re-elected the M.W. Grand Master of the