A complete Catalogue and Guide to the Fair is now being prepared under the supervision of the officers of the New York State Agricultural Society at Albany, and published by the undersigned, which will embrace, under appropriate headings, a description of the articles on exhibition, thus making a book valuable and permanently interesting to every exhibitor, and to the 100,000 Merchants, Mechanics, Storekeepers, Tradesmen, Inventors, Manufacturers, Farmers, and Ladies and Gentlemen, who will come to the Fair, from the West, and from the New England and Middle States, as well as from all parts of New York State.

The Country Gentleman, June 8, 1871, says:—"There is every reason, therefore, to anticipate an exhibition this year at Albany, with location and other circumstances, so far as can now be foreseen, greatly in its favor, of unusual magnitude and importance. We need say little to those who understand the advantage of securing publicity, in a business point of view."
