P. G. McGURSON, Treasurer.

With gladness and with sadness we welcome home our missionaries. With joy because they can tell of such good work done in Etremange and Trinidad; with sorrow because Mr. Christie's ill health has compelled him to sever his connection with the mission, while Mr. Merton has been obliged from the same cause to leave the field for a time at least. It is hoped that by a season of rest he may be restored to health and mission. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson are pretty well worn down but ascension of change, if not of rest will no doubt restore to wonted vigor.

ANNUAL MEETINGS.

Spring seems to be the time for the Annual meetings of nearly all religious Societies. In the Old world and the New, Churches, Missionary Societies, and the great benevolent and philanthropic association have been holding their anniversaries, the meetings of their Supreme Courts, &c, reviewing the work of the past year and laying plans for the future. The year on the whole has been of great progress. The meeting of our own General Assembly was held in Hamilton. It was a pleasant one filled with earnest work. There were no burning questions. The warmth was a desire to advance the Master's kingdom. A full account of its proceedings is already in the hands of the Church in the Record.

The Great Assemblies of the American Presbyterian Church, North and South, have been in Session. The former in Saratoga, the latter in Lexington. The subject which most deeply moved all hearts in these was the interchange of fraternal relations between them. For the first time since the Church was rent in sunder by the Civil war, delegates from each Assembly were sent to the other; and the Church at large take it as an earnest of the time not far distant when the two great bodies shall again be one.

The General Assembly of the U. P. Church in the United States met in Pitts-
