Now, as heretofore. The Taibune strives to be first of all and precommently a news paper.

France a Republica-Lingland and Germany gradually permated with Aepublican ideas—Spain swaving in the nerveless grap of a ruler loogood for a Ring and too weak for a Republican, who is unable to govern the great island that blocks the entrince to our Gulf of Mexico, and equally unable to give it up—the German-speaking peoples agitated by a new Protestantism separ ling from the See of Romo on the d gma of Papal Infalliability and assuming to recognize the "Ould 'enthelies"—the whole Continent pervaded by the intellectual ferment that comes of the conflict between old ideas, philosophical, theological, material, and the advance of phasical Science—Russia and Great Britain tunning a race'on the male gains that shall determine Aslatic copremacy—China seeming ready to altandon her advances and reclose her half opened gates—Japau sholishing feudalism and in ting Western civilization to tradiate Wester nonumeres to entich her long hidden empire—such are phases of the news from abroad which the mails over all Continents and the wires under all Seas are daily hearing to us. With able and trusted correspondents in the leading capital', and wherever great changes are in progress, Tru Tubu ye aims, at whatever cost to la before its readers the most prompt, complete, and popular presentment of these diverse and craffleting niovements, turugh all of which, as it fondly trust-the toiling masses, are everywhere struggling up toward larger recognition and a brighter future.

At home the struggle for freedom scens over. The last slave has long been a citizen, the last opposition to emancipation, enfran hisement, equal civil rights, has formall been abandoned. No party, North or South longer deputes the recoult of the War for the Union; all declare that these results must never be undone, and, with a whole people thus unled on the grand platform of All Richits for All, whereto our bloody struggle, and the prolonged civil contests that follo an honest statement of the lacts; and this they savays g.t.

THE WEEKLY TRIBURE, now more than thirty years old, has endeavored to keep up with the progress of the age in improvement and enterprise. It devot a a large share of its enhums to Aericulture as the in stessential and general of human pursuits. It employs the ablest and most successful chilityators, i.e. set, forth in brief clear essays their practical views of the Farmer's work It reports public discussions which o'nchia's that work tathers from yeary source agricultural news, the reports of the latest experiments the stories of the latest successes and failures, and whatever may tend at once so better Agriculture and to commend it as the first and most important of progressive Art, based on natura sections.

most important of progressive Art, based on natura schree.

The Werkly, Tainung appeals also to Teachers, Students, and hersohic of inquiring minds, by the character of its lite-rry contents, which include reviews of all the works proceeding from the master minds of the old or of the New World, with libral extracts from those of especial interest. Imaginative I literature also claim attertion but in a subordinate degree. If one Interests "are discussed weekly be a lady specially qualified to instruct and interest her own sex, and the younger portion of the other. No column is more eagely sought on resamed with greater average profit than hers. The News of the Day, while daded by brief comments, is so condensed that no reader can deem it diffuse, while given sufficiently in denail to, satisfy the wants of the nextensive correspondence of Tur Daily Thinuys from every country, and its editorials of more permanent value are here reproduced. In short, Thin Werkly Training commends fixelf to Millions, by ministering to their intellectual wants nore fully than they are met by any other fournal, while its regular reports of the Cattle, Country Produce, and other Markets, will, of themselves, save the farmer who regularly motes them far more than his journals price.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1873---SIXTH YEAR.

"THE ALDINE,"

An illustrated Monthly Journ I, universally admitted to be the hands-mest Periodical in the world. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or News Stores.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant mosculare of pure, light and graceful literature, and a collection of pure, light and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding Lumber refords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and ocasity of THE AD. INE will be mot appreciated after it has been bound at the close of the year. While o her publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivints of a similar class, THE ALDINE is an unique and and original conception—slone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The piecesson of a complete volume cannot dupocate the quantity of fine paper and engraings in any other shape or number of volumes for the times its cost; and then there are the chromes, besides i THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity,

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription ast fall, when IIIE ADDINS assumed its present moble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than doubled during the past year, proving that the American public appreciate, and will support a sincere on the the cause of Art. The publisher, anxious to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utimes to develope and improve the work, and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly since, will astonis; and delight even the most canculor friends of THE ALDINE. The publishers are authorized to amounted designs from many of the most eminent a tists of America. In addition, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best-foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artisate success, and greatest general interest; avoiding such as have become familiar, through photographs, or copies of any kind. The quartery thated plates, for 1873, will reproduce four of John Davis' infinitable childs-ketches, appropriate to the flour seasons. The seplaces, appearing in the issue for January, pril July and Oct-ber, would be alone worth the price of a pear's subscription. The popular features of a coplously illustrated "Christinas" number will be continued.

To possess such a valuable epitiome of the art world at a cost so trifling, will command the subscriptions of a the usefulness and attraction of THE ALDINE can be remained, in proportion to the noncreal increase of its supporters, the publisher proposes to make "assurance and attraction of the noncreal increase of any propers.

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873.

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive, without additional charge, a pair of beautiful chrimes, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English paloter. The pictures, entitled, "The Village Belle," and "Crossing the Moor," are 14 x 20 inches—are printed with 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and thus to perfect each picture. The same chromos are said for $30 per pair in the art stores. As it is the determination of its conductors to keep THE ALDINE out. of the reach of competition in every department, the chrone's will be found corress and rely alread or angituding that can be offered by other period cals. Every subserbee will receive a certificate over the signature or the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samp es furioshed the agent of the money will be refunded. The distribution of phetures of the grade free to the subscribers to a five deliar periodical, will mark an opech in the history of Ar., and, considering the unprecedented cheapness of the piles of THE ALDINE itself, the marvel falls little short of a miracle, even to those best acquanted with the achievements of miracle, even to those best vel falls little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive geome and improved mechanical appliances (Fr illusir trons of these chromos, see November issue of THE ALDINE.
