NOTES ON WINDOW DRESSING.

A window shou'd be like a kaleidoscope -a constant succession of novelties with the same class of goods.

To accomplish this, requires only a change in matter of arrangement; and the details of arrangement must necessarlly depend on the ingenuity and taste of the dresser.

To spend labor and time on a poorly dressed window is that much thrown away. To spend more time and more labor and to have as a result a really attractive window is an investment surpassed only by a good advertisement in a live paper. It will give a great profit.

Geo. Tate Blackstock will oppose M. C. Cameron in West Huron.

Sir Adolphe Caron has been confirmed in his seat, the appeal being dismissed.

The Dominion Parliament has been prorogued, pro forma, until January 1st.

Ira Morgan, ex-Warden of Russell, fell under an electric car on Friday night and died next morning.

F. F. Forbes, of Moose river, N. W.T., has been tendered the Liberal nomination for Assinaboia, as Mr. Dewdney will accept the governorship of British Columbia. Mr. Forbes has not yet decided whether he will accept nomination.

The Tacoma Ledger claims that the lumbermen in Minnesota and Wisconsin have been using their influence to prevent the Northern Pacific from giving the Puget Sound lumbermen freight rates low enough to enable them to get into the
