

said it was a spirit who wrote, he said the thing which was not, for I can write with one hand; and generally it is too absurd to suppose that a room full of ghosts should be able to write. Let them tell me how to make my fortune honestly, and I will try to believe. Table-turning did little harm, and promoted flirtation. Mesmerism breaks no bones. If a man when biographized thinks himself a pump, and assumes the attitude, that is his lookout; but spirit-rapping is different. In the first place, it is obtaining money under false pretences; and in the second, it has driven hundreds of Americans as mad as March hares.

I appeal to you, Sir, to use your pen to save our wits, to stir up the police, who are ready enough to pounce upon the poor gipsy who tells fortunes, and so earns a few pence, but who let slip those larger fish who make fortunes out of human weakness.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,
A DENYER OF THIS WORLD.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Marquis of Northampton, who is now so special an object of attack by the Revolutionary partisans of Piedmont, in this country, including Lords Russell and Palmerston, and the Times, has most kindly undertaken to present a petition to the House of Lords from the Catholics of Edinburgh, praying that a law may be passed to secure their orphan pauper children from being proselytised under the Scotch Guardians. The petition will be presented after Easter. But it is the most desirable that Edinburgh should not stand alone in the battle for the poor Catholics in Scotland. Besides Mr. Campbell in Edinburgh, they will surely find other champions of their cause in other parts of that Puritan-rudden country, though it may be difficult to find one who will give himself, heart and soul, and body, as Mr. Campbell of Skerheart has done for the last few years, to the noble work to which he has, to his eternal honor, devoted himself. While there is the least bar remaining to Catholic paupers and prisoners having all their religious rights and privileges secured to them by the law, there is, it will not be denied, an evident obligation resting upon all Catholics, who possess either social or political influence, to make use of it.—London Tablet.

THE INCREASE OF INFANTICIDE IN LONDON.—The crime of infanticide in the metropolis has attained to fearful dimensions. There is scarcely a week passes in which five or six inquests are not held upon newly born children; and, although the verdicts generally are the same—viz, wilful murder—not one in a hundred of the culprits are brought to justice. The reasons for this impunity are obvious. To trace the mother of a child found dead in one of the parks or elsewhere is almost always a fruitless task. Identification in the majority of instances is impossible; and since the introduction of crinolines the difficulty of detection is increased.—Observer.

The number of ships of war building is fifty-three, of 1,329 guns, 23,950 horse-power, and 115,585 tons. The schooner "Sappho" had run the blockade at Charleston, and arrived at Liverpool with 200 bales of cotton.

LAST GREAT WORK.

Just Published, uniform with FATHER FABER'S other Works, Price in Cloth 75 cts.; Cl. Gt. Edges, $1.25.—By Mail, on receipt of the price in Gold, or P. O. Stamps.

BETHLEHEM.

By Frederick William Faber, D.D.

CONTENTS.

Chap. I.—The Bosom of the Eternal Father.—Chap. II.—The Bosom of Mary.—Chap. III.—The Midnight Cave.—Chap. IV.—The first Worshipers.—Chap. V.—The Infant God.—Chap. VI.—Soul and body.—Chap. VII.—Calvary before its Time.—Chap. VIII.—Heaven Already.—Chap. IX.—The feet of the Eternal Father.

The Title and Table of Contents suggests the character of this work, which the Rev. Author designates in the following Dedication: "This Treatise on the Sacred Infancy of our Most Dear and Blessed Redeemer, is laid with the most Tender Devotion, the most Humble Confidence, and the most Reverent Worship, at the Feet of Saint Joseph, the Spouse of Mary, and the Great Foster-Father of our Lord."

The name of the distinguished Author, whose Works have already become so popular in England and this country, as well as on the Continent, where they have been translated, and met with an immense sale, is sufficient to invite attention to this past production of his genius, learning and piety.

Like Father Faber's other Works, it abounds in passages of rare learning, exquisite beauty, graceful imagery and most tender piety. To at least many of the 50,000 who have read his other Works, particularly his "All for Jesus" this last production of his genius, and still more of his deep, active love for that same ever blessed Saviour of men, will be a more than welcome visitor; an offering better than treasures of gold and silver. If any were at this moment, when throes are crumpling, and nations are falling to pieces or being humbled to the dust, it is in the stable, and by the crib of the Babe of Bethlehem, that the proud and the wise of the world may learn the worth of the saying: "Vanity of vanities, and all is vanity; except to love God, and to serve Him alone."

UNIFORM SERIES OF FATHER FABER'S WORKS.

Upwards of 50,000 copies of Father Faber's Works have already been sold in this country, and the demand is constantly increasing?

Universally esteemed as the Most Popular Devotional Works Published during the present Century. One of the most eloquent and distinguished clergymen in the United States, in writing an Introduction to one of Father Faber's Works, says:

"We turn to this last work of the Rev. Dr. Faber with sentiments of gratitude to heaven, and hope for its abundant blessing on the teachings of such a guide, which our most earnest language would but faintly express. If the power to conceive and convey to others the sublime, and at the same time, the most practical truths that can interest the human mind, be a title to the homage of men, then has Father Faber established for himself a claim, which no length of years nor change of circumstances can efface. Few writers since the days of St. Francis de Sales, have made more Christian hearts bow in loving adoration before our tabernacles than the author of 'All for Jesus,' 'The Blessed Sacrament,' 'Growth in Holiness,' &c."

Feb. 6, 1862.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond anything which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor, health courses anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to all diseases of the bowels, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint; see him get up, looking form straight with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return; see his clammy features blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the scales fall from his body; see the new fair skin that has grown under them; see the late pimple that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted rheumatism in his joints and bones; move him, and he screeches with pain; he too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for, alas! there are cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark how he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face and every merriment from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering away; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood.

Now look again—the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat, joy looks from every feature. See the sweet infant, wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and ears, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it nothing to do these things? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are done around you every day.

Have you the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are the easier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sideache, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints all arise from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the distressing, dangerous diseases they cure, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old—they must burrow in the brutes and in the men. Price 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Through a trial of many years, and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyment of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat. Here a cold had settled on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him Consumption. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the Cherry Pectoral, now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns; and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious power which carries off the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick everywhere may have before them the information it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

THEOLOGY;

THEOLOGIA MORALIS,
quam continuavit Franciscus Patricius Kenrick, Archiepiscopus Baltimoreensis, Secundus Curis Auctoris.

We are happy in being able to announce, that we are now ready to furnish the complete body of MORAL THEOLOGY, prepared by our Most Rev. Archbishop. The second edition from the press of Mr. H. Dessin, Bladines, is comprised in two volumes. It contains the matter of the former edition, which was in three volumes, and is considerably improved and enlarged. Constant reference is made to the laws and usages of our country, which must necessarily direct and modify the application of moral principles laid down by European divines. The relations of master and servant, which are scarcely touched on in foreign treatises, are here developed and defined. The various contracts in use among us are explained, and the respective obligations of the parties are discussed. In many other matters of practice, direction is afforded to the Missionary and Confessor, which is particularly adapted to local circumstances, inasmuch as the general discipline of the Church is mitigated by special concessions, or prevailing custom.

Recently published, Uniform with the above, 2 Vols. 8vo. Roman, $6; Half Calf, $2.

THEOLOGIA DOGMATICA,
quam continuavit Franciscus Patricius Kenrick, Archiepiscopus Baltimoreensis, Secundus Curis Auctoris.

The first edition of the Theologia Dogmatica being exhausted, a revised edition has been published, in the famous establishment of Hanley, (now Mr. Dessin,) at Malines, Belgium, in conjunction with Messrs. Murphy & Co. The whole work, formerly consisting of four volumes, is now reduced to three, although considerable additions have been made to it; including an Elaborate Defence of the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception, and a Catalogue of the Fathers, and Ecclesiastical Writers, with an accurate discrimination of their genuine works, from others that have passed under their names. This work appears under the special sanction of the Cardinal Archbishop of Malines, who has been pleased to signify a very high estimate of its merits. It is issued in a very neat style, in three volumes, of about 500 pages double column, 8vo., at the very low price of $2 per volume. This edition, though much enlarged, is reduced to $6 instead of $10—a little more than half the price of the former edition, so as to place it within the reach of Theological Seminaries, Students, &c., to whom a liberal discount will be made when purchased in quantities.

Early orders respectfully solicited.
