Indian Crafts & Arts Manitoba Inc. is a non-profit, member-owned corporation. It's members are of native Canadian Indian or Aboriginal ancestry. They are producers of both fine art paintings and high quality hand made crafts. Our membership presently exceeds 450, including approximately 150 full time producers.

Indian Crafts & Arts Manitoba Inc. was established in 1976 to develop and promote Indian arts and crafts production in Manitoba. We provide training and expertise to our membership thereby ensuring quantity and quality control standards clearly matching those of any other Indian made products across Canada.

Indian Crafts & Arts Manitoba Inc. acts as a wholesale/retail clearing house for it's customers and members. Prompt delivery and attention is thus ensured.

Our product designs include those of the Ojibway, Sioux, Cree (Plains, Woodland and Swampy) and Chippewyan Tribes.

Italglass Corporation, in business since 1974, offers a wide range of innovative glassware and tableware products that have been recognized throughout the North American market for their attractiveness and practicality.

Italglass has it's own design and decoration departments which are dedicated to incorporating the latest creative designs in Canada. The results are products which stand out on the shelves of better giftware and specialty stores.

Product appeal is also enhanced by the broad range of specially designed gift boxes which we create for our glassware, the latest addition to which is our exclusive and stunning "Leonardo da Vinci" collection.

Fashion and function are skillfully blended in a comprehensive glassware and tableware line.

J-Craft Wood Products prides itself on the high quality giftware which it manufactures. Canadian craftsmanship, experience and care go into all of our goods. We use selected Canadian hardwoods in every knife block, cutting board and bread box we fabricate. Each piece is individually crafted and hand finished, resulting in very functional pieces which are also highly attractive.

J-Craft is extremely well known within the Canadian kitchenware industry. Operating from a modern plant, our knowledge of the manufacturing of wooden kitchen giftware is apparent in every gift we produce. J-Craft is the company with the fresh ideas and quality products that fit every home-maker's budget.
