

Working Conditions. Participants will enjoy the same treatment as nationals of the host country in all matters concerning the application of laws, regulations and practices governing working conditions (unless otherwise specified). Wages paid by employers will correspond to the going rates for paid workers in the occupation and region concerned.

The terms of employment, once accepted, must be honoured by the participant. If employment problems arise, contact Canadian government officials in the host country or appropriate authorities there.

Travel Arrangements. Participants are responsible for their own travel arrangements and for the cost of transportation. The latter may be borne by the employer if included in the offer of employment. Participants must possess a valid Canadian passport and secure comprehensive travel insurance coverage at their own expense.
