

Work Programme

11. Participants are invited to advance by December 1989 detailed proposals for the achievement of the long-term objective, including the following:

- the terms and use of an aggregate measurement of support;
- strengthened and more operationally effective GATT rules and disciplines;
- the modalities of special and differential treatment for developing countries;
- sanitary and phytosanitary regulations and the work programme foreshadowed in (C) below;
- tariffication, decoupled income support, and other ways to adapt support and protection;
- ways to take account of the possible negative effects of the reform process on net food-importing developing countries.

12. Not later than the end of 1990, participants will agree on the long-term reform programme and the period of time for its implementation. Soon thereafter, taking into account the different national procedures for implementation of international agreements, participants will notify their plans for meeting the obligations and commitments agreed upon.

Surveillance

13. The reform programme will be subject to multilateral surveillance and other procedures necessary to ensure full compliance with commitments made in the negotiations.
