

that the registrar might examine that firearm.

Sec. 106.2 (7) (b)

Amend to read:

"(b) is, or is deemed pursuant to paragraph 106.8 (1) (h) to be, an antique, curio or relic for the purpose of this Part, or is a firearm manufactured prior to the year 1896, or will form part of a gun collection of the applicant."

Comment:

Firearms manufactured prior to 1896 were designed to utilize black powder and this type of ammunition has not been manufactured for almost 50 years.

We object to the term "bona fide" in reference to collectors unless it is clearly defined. As we understand the normal interpretation of this term, its use in this section of the Bill would prohibit anyone who is not already a collector from ever becoming one. We can see no valid reason for this.

Sec. 106.3 (8).

Add:

"and providing the applicant meets the qualifications as outlined in Sec. 106.1.

Comment:

See our comments with reference to our statement number 10.

Sec. 106.3 (11) (12) (13).

-Delete entirely

Comment:

Made redundant by our proposed amendments to Sec. 106.1.

We would have no objection to setting the bottom age limit at 12 years for those under eighteen to obtain a licence. Provided however, that the present Section 101 (B) is retained.