Forbes,

Debate was resumed on the motion proposed by Messrs. Byrne, Nugent, Scott (Danforth) and Stanbury,—That it is expedient to introduce a measure to amend the Criminal Code for the purposes of

(a) abolishing the death penalty in respect of all offences under that Act;

(b) substituting a mandatory sentence of life imprisonment in those cases where the death penalty is now mandatory; and

(c) providing that no person upon whom a mandatory sentence of life imprisonment is imposed shall be released from imprisonment without the prior approval of the Governor in Council;

And debate continuing;

Mr. Klein, seconded by Mr. Laflamme, moved in amendment thereto,—
That the motion be amended

(1) by adding to paragraph (a) of the motion the words “except the capital murder of a police officer, prison guard or other person as
