

me asking for the privilege of exhibiting his bust of Sir William. — The Committee declined it. — When placing order I expected a very much smaller bust. — Mr.
M^{rs} Corthay had never met Sir William, and modelled from a very good full face photograph, and a profile photo of 40/50 years ago. — If I have been misinformed, I must apologize for having troubled you in this matter. —

With kind regards
and best wishes for 1922, remain. —

Yours truly,
Walter M. Stewart.
