

January 28, 1931.

Miss Mary M. Nicolls,
Research Assistant,
College of Agriculture,
University of Wisconsin,
Madison, Wisconsin.

Dear Madam,

In the absence of the Principal may I acknowledge your letter of the 26th J anuary, in which you apply for a position in connection with our programme of Social Science Research at McGill.
I am sorry to say that there are no vacancies at present where your services could be utilized.

Yours faithfully,

Assistaht to the Principal