

friends to make donations, bequests and liberal grants to increase their resources, and their efficiency.

It is enjoined upon every preacher to secure public collections throughout our congregations, in the months of October and November of each year, and forward the amounts to the Treasurer of Albert College, not later than the 15th of December.

SECTION IX—OF THE PRINTING AND CIRCULATION OF BOOKS AND THE PROFITS THEREFROM.

1. There shall be a book room in such place as the General Conference shall appoint.

2. There shall be an agent who shall be chosen from among the travelling preachers, and shall be a member of the Annual Conference within the bounds of which the book room is located.

3. The agent shall have authority to regulate the publications and all other parts of the business of the concern as the state of the finances will admit, and the demands may require. It shall be his duty to send an exhibit of the state of the book room to each session of the Annual Conferences, and report quadrennially to the General Conference. He shall also inform the conferences of any within their respective bounds who neglect to make payment, that measures may be taken to collect and secure such debt, and he shall not allow any claim to run beyond
