

CONTENTS.

- CHAPTER VI.—Prince Edward's Island.—Geographical Position and Area; History; Physical aspect; Geology, Soil and Climate; Population and Territorial Divisions; Government; Finance and Commerce; Natural Produce and value of Property; Religion, Education and the Press; Proprietorship; Social State, &c. - - p. 423
- CHAPTER VII.—Newfoundland and the Labrador Coast.—Geographical Position and Area; General History; Physical Aspect; Geology; Climate; Population and Territorial Divisions; Government; Institutions; Finances; Commerce; Shipping; Fishery; Natural Productions; Value of Property; Religion, Education and the Press; Social State, &c.; the Labrador Coast Moravian Settlements, &c. - p. 455
- CHAPTER VIII.—Hudson's Bay Territory to the Pacific Ocean.—Area; Physical Aspect; Mountains, Lakes and Rivers; Geology; Climate; Inhabitants; Animals; Commerce; Hudson's Bay Company, &c. p. 510
- CHAPTER IX.—Commerce and Shipping of the British North American Colonies; Timber and Grain Trade; United States' Commerce, &c. p. 537
- CHAPTER X.—Emigration; Numbers arriving in the Canadas for a series of years; Rates of Wages; prices of Provisions; proportion of Inhabitants to the square mile in England, Ireland and China; questionable propriety of selling all Lands; or making no Free Grants; hard treatment of many Naval and Military Officers; Advantage of Colonies in providing for meritorious Servants of the State; further proceedings necessary with regard to Emigration, &c. - - p. 541
- APPENDIX A.—British American Land Company, and a description of the Eastern Townships; B. Upper Canada Company; C. New Brunswick Company; D. Nova Scotia and Cape Breton Mining Company; E. Statement of Canadian Grievances by the Hon. D. B. Viger; F. Population of British America at different periods; Land occupied and ungranted; G. Lands granted and reserved, &c. in Lower Canada from 1795 to 1814; H. do. in Nova Scotia; I. Births, Marriages and Deaths in Lower Canada; K. Latitude and Longitude of Headlands, &c. in British America; Sailing directions,—nautical instructions for the Gulf of St. Lawrence; Lighthouses in do. and Bay of Fundy; L. Commerce of Quebec and Montreal district, with duties received at each port; M. Fisheries of Newfoundland for 1832. - - p. 555