IAP.		PAGE	CHAP.		PAG
	Abolitionists Classified by Mr. Clay-Ul- tras Denounced Slavery Agitators		TXAT	The Bankrupt Act—What it was—and show it was Passed	22
	North and South Equally denounced		LXVII	Bankrupt Bill-Mr. Benton's Speech- Extracts	*
XXVIII.	as Dangerous to the Union		LXVIII	Distribution of the Public Land Reve- nue, and Assumption of the State	_
XXXIX.	First Session Twenty-sixth Congress— Members—Organization—Political Map		LXIX.	Debts	94
XI.	of the House	158		in the House of Representatives—Ita Attempt, and Repulse in the Senate	94
	gress—President's Message Divorce of Bank and State—Divorce de-	162	LXX	Bill for the Relief of Mrs. Harrison, Widow of the late President of the
XLIL	Florida Armed Occupation Bill-Mr.	164	LXXI.	Mrs. Harrison's Bill—Speech of Mr.
XIIII.		167 171	LXXII.	Benton—Extracts . Abuse of the Naval Pension System—	26
XLIV	Assumption of the State Debts—Mr. Ben- ton's Speech—Extracts	179	LXXIIL	Vain attempt to Correct it Home Squadron, and Aid to Private Steam Lines	26
XLV.	Death of General Samuel Smith, of Mary- land; and Notice of his Life and Char- acter	176	LXXIV.	Becharter of the District Banks—Mr. Benton's Speech—Extracts
XLVI.	Salt—the Universality of its Supply— Mystery and Indispensability of its Use —Tyranny and Implety of its Taxation		LXXV.	Firmness of Mr. Van Buren—Public Peace Endangered—and Preserved—
	-Speech of Mr. Benton-Extracts .	176		Case of McLeod	97
XLVIII.	Pairing off . Tax on Bank Notes—Mr. Benton's Speech	178	LXXVI	Destruction of the Caroline—Arrest and Trial of McLeod — Mr. Benton's Speech—Extracts	1
XLIX.	-Extracts . Liberation of Slaves belonging to American Citizens in British Colonial Ports .		LXXVII.	Befusal of the House to allow Recess Committees	. 26
I.	Resignation of Senator Hugh Lawson White of Tennessee—His Death—Some		LXXVIII.	Reduction of the Expense of Foreign Missions by reducing the Number
LI.	Notice of his Life and Character . Death of Ex-Senstor Hayne of South Car-	184	LXXIX.	Infringement of the Tariff Compromise Act of 1888—Correction of Abuses in olina—Notice of his Life and Character	186		Drawbacks	80
LIL	Abolition of Specific Duties by the Com- promise Act of 1832—Its Error, and Loss to the Revenue, shown by Expe-			National Bank—First Bill	81
	rience	189		dent	81
LIII.	Refined Sugar and Rum Drawbacks— their Abuse under the Compromise Act of 1888—Mr. Benton's Speech .	19 0	LXXXII	Secret History of the Second Bill for a Fiscal Agent, called Fiscal Corpora- tion—Its Origin with Mr. Tyler—Its
LIV.	Fishing Bounties and Allowances, and their Abuse—Mr. Benton's Speech—		-	Progress through Congress under his Lead—Its Rejection under his Veto
F 77	Extracts	194 198	LXXXIII	The Veto Message hissed in the Senate Galleries	. 82
	Expenses of the Government, Compara-		LXXXIV.	Resignation of Mr. Tyler's Cabinet .	85
	tive and Progressive, and Separated from Extraordinaries		LXXXV.	Ropudiation of Mr. Tyler by the Whig Party — their Manifesto — Counter
LVIL	Death of Mr. Justice Barbour of the Su- preme Court, and Appointment of Pe-		LXXXVI		84
LVIIL	ter V. Daniel, Esq., in his place Presidential Election	909	LXXXVII.	Last Notice of the Bank of the United	81
LIX.	Conclusion of Mr. Van Buron's Adminis- tration			End and Results of the Extra Session First Annual Message of President Tyler	81
LX.	Inauguration of President Harrison—His Cabinet—Call of Congress—and Death		XC.	Third Plan for a Fiscal Agent, called Exchequer Board — Mr. Benton's	1
LXI.	Accession of the Vice-President to the Presidency	911	XCI.	Speech against it—Extracts The Third Fiscal Agent, entitled a	81
LXII.	Twenty-seventh Congress—First Session —List of Members, and Organization of		XCII.	Board of Exchequer	. 85
LXIIL	the House	918	XCIII.	Death of Lewis Williams, of North Carolina, and Notice of his Life and
LVIV	and Mr. Clay's Programme of Business	915	-	Character
	Repeal of the Independent Treasury Act		ACIV.	gent Expenses of Congress—and the
	Repeal of the Independent Treasury Act	219	XOIV.	The Civil List Expenses—the Co

MOVII. Paper M the Fed Benton XCVIII Case of Slaves 40 tiny in 47 erated XCIX. Distress of and Tw C. Mr. Tyler Separati OL Lord Ashb Treaty CII. British Tr CIII. British Tr m Article tracts . CIV. British Tre Mr. Bent OV. British Tre Benton's CVL British Tree 91 Suppressi Benton's CVIL Expense of 104 Necessity 105 ment, and CVIII Expenses of -Extracts CIX. Message of 107 of the Regu 817 CX. Repeal of the Speech—Ex CXI. Military Acad OXIL Emigration t Foundation cen Citizen tion . S49 CXIII. Lieutenant F OXIV. Oregon Color Prech . OXV. Navy Pay and tion—Speed gia—Extract OXVI. Eulogy on Sen Benton and I its Expense, tion by restor EVIII. Death of Community his Life and C ONIX. Refunding of Go CXX. Repeal of the Mr. Cushing Mr. Cushing of Naval Expendit Attempts at I stil. Chinese Mission ment and Neg The Alleged M (as they were a States man-of-

MOV. Resignati MOVI. Military