

Dorche, Belgian Commandant of Ruzizi-Kivu territory, arrives at Kissenji to greet us, 140; our reception by, at Beni, 199
 Devastation of forests, deplorable, 68
 Discipline, need for, in dealing with natives of Africa, 106
 Djamba, arrival at, 257; avoiding the cataracts at, 257; description of, 257; startled by the headman of, 257
 Dogs, European, smitten by coastal fever, 23; I procure native, 23
 Ducker (small antelope) seen at Katojo, 10
 Dufays, Father, visit from, at Niansa, 62
 Dynamite, experiments with, for fishing purposes, 89, 230
 Dysentery fatal to many Europeans at Basoko, 204

E

Eala, arrived at, 270; description of, 271
 Eland, I bring down an, 24
 Elands, troop of, Wintgens and I observe, 24
 El Dorado of buffaloes, a real, 36
 Elephant, exciting adventure with an, 188-9; hunt in the volcanic region, 124; hunt on the Semliki, 186; I kill an, 124; I photo an injured, 187; mountain, perilous adventure with, 134; trails, we come across, at great heights, 123; Wiese contributes a dwarfed variety of, 204
 Elephants, dimensions of, 125; killing of, forbidden west of Ruwenzori, 120; on the Ituri, 255
 Engh, Commandant, 232; leaves us at Boniti, 250
 Engler, Professor, consultation with, 2
 English authorities, courtesy of, at Mombasa, 11
 English steam-launch, my journey in, 2
 Entebbe, I order larger part of our goods to, 7; our entertainment at, 11; the seat of the Government of Uganda, 11; value of rice at, 8; we arrive at, 11
 Eruption, Kirschstein obtains photographs of, 151; Kirschstein witnesses, at Namlagira, 150
Étapes, Belgian, comfort of, 141
 Etiquette, African potentates keen on points of, 14

Ethnological-anthropological results of the expedition, 281
 Ethnological apparatus carried by expedition, 5
 Ethnologist, Dr. Czekanowski appointed, 3
 Euphorbium steppe seen at Katojo, 13
 Europe, we despatch specimens to, 20; work in connection with expedition in, 10
 European hunters, licence from Brussels necessary for, in Congo State, 189
 European lady, our first meeting with, for a twelvemonth, 259
 Europeans, illness of, at Beni, 200
 Expedition, botanical results of the, 270; ethnological-anthropological results of the, 281; geological results of the, 278; results of the, 277; topographical results of the, 278; zoological results of the, 280

F

Farinelli, Father Superior, our reception by, at St. Gustave, 195
 Fatalism of the negro, 101
 Fatality on the Ituri, 254
 Fauna, of Congo, 208; of Lake Kivu, 88; of Lake Luhondo, 120; of Lake Mohasi, Schubert's report on, 41; of Rutschur Plain, 170; of Semliki Plain, 221; on our way to Ruwenzori, 200
 Fever, Wiese suffers from, 40
 Ficus, fine specimens of, met with in Ruanda, 51
 Fire, driving lions from their lair by, 177; at Kissenji, 81
 Firearms, use of, to obtain botanical specimens, 73
 Fireworks, thrilling display of natural, 190
 Fishing, experiments with dynamite for, 89, 230; mode of, at Banalia, 250
 Flandre, the, 263; description of, 265
 Floating village of Katanda, 170
 Flora, Dr. Mildbraed's report on, round Lake Mohasi, 42; of Congo forest, compared, 249; of Ruanda mountains, 67; on Muhawura, 103; on our way to Ruwenzori, 200
 Fogs on Mikeno, 147
 Food, difficulty of obtaining through rebellion of Kisliwombo, 20
 Forests, devastation of, 68