

1. THE POLITICAL REGISTER, published weekly; Price 1s. each number. This work is divided into two parts; the first consists wholly of original and interesting papers, many of them written and communicated by persons of eminence; and embellished with curious prints; and the other a candid and disinterested account of all new publications.

2. A new Edition of COLLINS'S ENGLISH GRAMMAR, continued to the present time, and enriched with many very valuable additions. In seven small octavo. Price 2s. 12s. 6d. bound.

3. THE PEERAGE OF SCOTLAND; a genealogical and historical account of all the peers of that kingdom; their descents, collateral branches, marriages, and issue. Together with a like account of all the attainted peers; and a complete tabulated list of all those nobles of Scotland whose titles are extinct; which was never before collected. Collected from parliament rolls, records, and documents, and personal information of many late peers. With the paternal coat of arms, crests, portraits, and mottoes, most beautifully and accurately engraved. In one volume octavo, Price 6s. bound.

4. THE PEERAGE of the KINGDOM of IRELAND, upon the same plan with that of Scotland, the arms executed in the same masterly manner. Two volumes octavo, 12s. bound.

5. The authors profess to have given in these volumes, the clearest, most authentic, and best account of the noble families of Scotland and Ireland, hitherto published; and, by omitting unnecessary digressions, and ostentatious quotations from histories and biographical memoirs, which only serve to increase the price, have exhibited their genealogies as clear and explicit, so that every collateral branch is given with great facility and exactness, and few even the gentry of Scotland and Ireland who have intermarried with the nobility, but may here discover by what degree of consanguinity they are allied.

6. A new and complete BARONETAGE of ENGLAND is in the press, and will be published with all convenient speed. The arms will be all beautifully and accurately engraved.

7. THE SPEECHES, ARGUMENTS and DETERMINATIONS of the Right Honourable the Lords of Council and Session in Scotland, upon that important use wherein his Grace the Duke of Hamilton and others were plaintiffs, and Archibald Douglas, of Douglas, Esq; defendant. Together with an introductory preface, giving an impartial and distinct account of the suit. By a Barrister at Law. Price 5s. bound, id 4s. sewed.

8. As this cause hath made a great noise all over Europe, the public will doubtless be curious to be informed of the particulars of so solemn a decree; and to see they may be assured, as herein related, are perfectly genuine and correct.

9. THE COMPLETE GRAZIER, or Gentleman and Farmer's Directory; containing the best instructions for buying, breeding, and feeding of cattle, sheep and hogs, and for suckling lambs; a description of the particular symptoms commonly attending the various distempers to which cattle, sheep and hogs are subject, with the most approved remedies; directions for making the best butter, several sorts of cheese and rennet; different methods of stocking a farm, with the particular expence and profits of each; how to prepare the land, and sow several sorts of grass seed to advantage; directions for raising proper fodder for cattle and sheep; particular instructions for breeding, breeding and feeding poultry, turkeys, pigeons, geese, ducks, barnards, pea-fowls, pheasants, partridges, and tame rabbits; also directions for making fish-ponds, or canals, and for storing them, and ordering the fish in the best manner. With several other useful and curious particulars. Price 3s. bound.

This book was written by a private gentleman, who intended to retire into the country; and who designed it for his own directory; but not being able to find a place that suited him; owing to the spirit of engrossing farms, and the exorbitant rents, he gave up his design; and, in the course of his readings, not having met with any book which treated solely upon grazing, he, on that account resolved to publish his own. It will be found, perhaps, to contain many useful observations, not unworthy the attention of the landed gentlemen and farmers. In it are contained very full directions for choosing and purchasing cattle; for the management of grass lands, and particularly the manner of ordering spurre or star grass; a copious account of the best manner to order or manage poultry, and other birds for culinary use, which is not to be met with in any other book; together with ample directions for making butter and cheese; and a great variety of other useful and interesting particulars, which the reader will find in the table of contents.

10. THE ROYAL KALENDAR for England, Scotland and Ireland, a new edition corrected to the present time; containing accurate lists of the complete establishments of Great Britain and Ireland, the four houses of parliament, all the officers of state, revenue, law, &c. in the three kingdoms; army, navy, &c. all with the last corrections, and including above five thousand names not in the other books of this kind. Together with the arms, supporters, crests, and mottoes of the nobility, engraved. Price only two shillings bound, and 2s. 9d. with an almanack.

11. THE MILITARY REGISTER, or new and complete List of all his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, for the year 1768. With accurate and useful tables of their full pay, allowances, and deductions. Also tables of their arrears, calculated to shew, in the most easy and expeditious manner, the amount of arrears for officers of all ranks, in the dragons and foot, any number of days. These tables will be found to be particularly useful to every officer, who will thereby be enabled to form an exact knowledge of the accounts between him and his agent. This work contains an alphabetical list of the officers' names, with references to their respective commissions. A list of the military garrisons, with the officers. And an alphabetical list of all the officers on half-pay. Printed and Published by Permission of his Majesty. Price 2s. 6d. bound, and 2s. sewed.

12. AN ESSAY ON CRIMES and PUNISHMENTS, translated from the Italian. With the Commentary of M. de Voltaire, translated from the French. Price 4s. 6d. bound.

It is now about eighteen months since the first publication of this work; in which time it hath passed no less than six editions in the original language; and the third of which was printed within six months after its first appearance. It hath been translated into French, that translation hath also been several times reprinted, and perhaps no book on any subject was ever received with more avidity, more generally read, or more universally applauded. The author is the Marquis Beccaria of Milan. Vide the translator's preface.

13. THE HISTORY of the MINORITY, during the years 1762, 1763, 1764, and 1765. Exhibiting the conduct, principles and views of that party.
