

take place at such time as may be fixed by the Commanding Officer. Officers Commanding Companies will be expected to produce all articles of public property issued for the service of their Companies at this inspection.

4. No alteration of the Standing Orders to take place without proper sanction. Nor can any such alteration be made, unless due notice has been given of the contemplated change, at the Quarterly Meeting immediately preceding that at which the change is sought to be effected.

5. Each Officer to be provided with a copy of the Standing Orders, by which he will be expected to govern himself in all matters connected with the Regiment.

Approved,

(Signed,) MONCK.

Quebec, 14th November, 1866.